SOUTH OMAHA MARKET LETTER.

SOUTH OMAHA, August 10, 1906.

The cattle trade this week has been in considerably better shape as compared with last week. Beef steers sold up to $4.95 early in the week. Pretty good steers sold all the way from $4.10 up to $4.80. Butcher stock has shown little change as compared with a week ago. There has been a better tone to the market with prices ruling steady to strong for the more desirable kinds. Choice spayed heifers have sold up to $3.60, with good kinds at $3.25 to $3.40; choice cows around $3.25; fair to good $2.85 to $3.15; common to fair, $2.40 @ 2.75; canners $1.75 @ 2.00.

The tone to the stocker and feeder trade has improved greatly over a week or ten days ago. Light and medium kinds have advanced 15 @ 25c over a week ago. Good to choice heavy feeding steers are quotable at $4.00 @ 4.25; fair to good $3.75 @ 4.00; good to choice light and medium cattle $3.65 @ 4.00; fair to good $3.35 @ 3.65.

There has been considerable increase in sheep and lamb supplies, something like 23,000 head for the week, with a strong inquiry from feeder buyers, and anything of this sort is selling strong and active. Good killing lambs are selling at present at $6.75 @ 7.40; good yearlings, $5.35 @ 5.75; good wethers $4.75 @ 5.00; good ewes $4.30 @ 4.80; good feeding lambs $5.50 @ 6.25; good yearlings $5.00 @ 5.40; good wethers $4.50 @ 4.75; good ewes $3.50 @ 4.15.

CLAY, ROBINSON & CO.

KANSAS CITY MARKET LETTER.

STOCK YARDS, KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 10, 1906.

The cattle market is about 10 cents stronger this week, account of continued moderate receipts. Prices now are better than Monday, top veals today $6.00. Demand from the country for stock and feeding cattle is growing at the rate of 100 cars per week, total outgo this week 450 carloads, and the extraordinary prospects for corn insure a maximum business in this line the coming fall. Cow stuff is selling first class just now, except thin bulls and canners, which are dull this week, not much demand for them yet, bulls going at $2.00 @ 2.40 on the quarantine side.

The sheep market is 15 to 25 cents higher this week, account of continued scarcity of supplies, less than 16,000 here this week. Arizona lambs sold at $7.40 and 8.60 this week, Utah sheep and yearlings at $5.40 @ 5.60, some 62lb Utah lambs today at $7.40, considered a high sale by the owner, some medium Utah and Colorado ewes at $4.75, feeding wethers around $4.65, lambs $5.60 @ 6.00.

PORTLAND MARKET LETTER.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 13, 1906.

The demand is good this week on good fat steers; best 1100 to 1200-lb steers 3 1/2 cents; lighter and medium steers from 3 to 3 1/4; best fat cows and heifers, 2 1/2 c; old and shelly cows and light half-fat stuff from 1 1/2 to 2c; stags 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 c, and bulls sell from 1 to 1 1/2 c per pound. Hogs are still in good demand. The best 175 and 250-lb hogs are to 125-lb blockers and china-fats 7c, selling from 7 1/4 to 7 1/2 c; lighter 75 and feeders and stockers from 6 1/2 to 7c per pound.

Sheep are very scarce and the demand is good. Good young ewes and wethers mixed from 4 to 4 1/4 c; fat wethers 4 1/4 to 4 1/2 c; spring lambs 5 cents per pound.

Good veal calves are very scarce and the demand is good. Light 100 to 200-lb fat calves 5c; heavier calves from 3 1/2 to 4c per pound, owing to quality.

PORTLAND UNION STOCK YARDS.

DENVER MARKET LETTER.

DENVER UNION STOCK YARDS, Aug. 13.—There has been a decided improvement in the cattle market during the past week. Buyers are needing cattle now and the slump week before last has been more than taken up by the advance. Well finished grass steers are selling as high as $4.65, with the average kind bringing $3.75 to $4.25. The cow market is strong and choice well finished cows will bring $3.25 to $3.50.

While there has been practically nothing doing in feeder cattle, there is a much better demand and the under tone is strong. Good feeders will sell around $3.75 to $4.25 for the choice dehorned kinds in good flesh. Light weight cattle of good quality will bring around $3.25 to $3.75.

W. N. FULTON.

CHICAGO MARKET LETTER.

There has been a decrease in cattle receipts this week. The extreme top reached was $6.60 for some choice beefs. Among our sales were two loads of fed western branded Nebraska cattle, averaging 1473 pounds at $6.25, four loads for the same owner, weighing 1286 at $6.00, a load of grade Angus, fair quality, weighing 1490 pounds at $6.20 and a load of Angus yearlings, only two-thirds fat, averaging 920 pounds at $5.60. These were made upon Monday. On Wednesday we sold two loads of grade Angus averaging 1337 pounds at $6.35 for an Illinois shipper, two other loads of Illinois cattle at $6.00, some grade yearling steers from Indiana, averaging 1090 at $5.75 and 45 head of grade Hereford yearling heifers also from Indiana averaging 788 pounds at $5.50. The stocker and feeder trade has shown an upward tendency this week. Quite a number of sales were made at 10c to 25c advance. We look to see considerable activity in the market from now on and anything desirable will be held at good strong rates.

Receipts of hogs have been heavier than a week ago and about 50 per cent heavier than a year ago. As result there has been quite a sharp decline in values. Top Monday was $6.75, while the highest figure today is $6.15, a straight drop of 60c. We believe the market will partially react.

Considerable activity has characterized the sheep trade throughout the week, choice Idaho lambs selling up to $8.00, while big strings of feeder lambs have gone at $6.60 to $6.70 per cwt. We sold several loads at the latter price, which is the highest of the season for feeders. It does not look as though the values were going to be upon a much lower basis than a year ago for this particular class of stock. The great bulk of supplies from now on will consist of westerns.

We quote:

Westerns: Choice export wethers, $5.00 @ 5.15; choice light western wethers $5.15 @ 5.35; fair to good western wethers, $4.90 @ 5.00; feeding wethers, $4.75 @ 4.90; choice 2- and 3-year old breeding ewes, $5.40 @ 5.60; choice western ewes, $4.85 @ 5.10; fair to good western ewes, $4.25 @ 4.75; feeding ewes $3.50 @ 4.00; culls $2.00 @ 3.00; choice western yearlings, $6.10 @ 6.35; fair to good western yearlings, $5.75 @ 5.90; feeding yearlings, $5.40 @ 5.65; choice western lambs, $7.65 @ 7.75; fair to good western lambs, $7.00 @ 7.50; choice feeding wethers, $6.60 @ 6.75; fair to good feeding lambs, $6.25 @ 6.50.

CLAY, ROBINSON & CO.

Captain Barrett, a Nebraska farmer, and a resident of McCook, favored this office with a call, on his way home from a visit of several months at Roseberry, Idaho. The captain called in company with Maynard Loomis, a prominent farmer of Roseberry. He was very enthusiastic over the Long valley country, around Roseberry, and said that crops up there were a revelation to him. He hopes to be in Idaho again and to see more of the state.

Captain Barrett was accompanied by his wife.

Judge Whitely, of the mercantile firm of Sims & Whitely, of Van Wyck, passed through town the first of the week on his way home from San Francisco. Mr. Whitely said things were still in dire confusion in the stricken city, and while extensive plans for rebuilding were under way it would take a long time to get things completely righted there.

Miss Edna West, of Greeley, Colo., who is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gipson, took her departure for home today after a four weeks' visit with relatives here. She spent most of the time in the hills and was charmed with Idaho's scenery and health-giving climate. Miss West is one of the popular and successful teachers in the city schools of Greeley, being a graduate of the city schools there as well as of the state normal. Her vacation trip extended as far as California and Portland, returning home by the way of Idaho.
