

The Indian Advocate

Vol XX

September

1908

No. 9

~ Faithful Is He Who Hath Promised. ~

Take thou no thought for the morrow,
God is thy Father and Friend,
Rest as a child on His promise
Trust in His Love to the end.

Carry the cross with submission,
Under His mighty Hand bend,
Faithful is he who had promised
Help from His presence to send.

"To day" saith the voice of the Master—
Tomorrow may fade from our sight,
Go forth in the field ere shadows
Tell of the coming of night.

Remember another Worker
Who went to his toil all alone;
Changeless and full of compassion
He watches to aid His own.

Take thou no thought of the morrow
But answer now to His call—
"Lord! I go forth at Thy bidding,
Help Thou me lest I fall?"

EMILY AGNES BEASON