Paul Kohler, the land man, has a change of address this week, drawing attention to the listing of your land with him. The sale of land the coming summer in the Wheetstone Valley promises to be large, and Mr. Kohler desires to have his list as complete as possible when the rush starts. If you have a farm or other property, he wants you to call and see him or write either Milbank or Corona.

V. E. Pratt, late of Woonsocket, has accepted a position in the Milbank Steam Laundry, where he will have charge of the laundering. He will move his family here in the near future. This is a step Mr. Williams has had in view for a long time, but has been unable to find a man that was right up-to-the-minute. This addition of a first-class launderer with all the other improvements now places the Milbank laundry second to none.

John Lilleskov received word of the death of a friend of his, John Holland, with whom he had been quite intimate. The young man was a blacksmith, seemingly strong and muscular, and had been in his usual good health until about the time he retired for the night, when he complained of having a chill, and asked for an extra quilt for his bed. He was found dead in his bed in the morning. The remains were taken to Bellingham for burial.

J. Doherty and wife, former citizens of Milbank, who have been living at Brainerd, accompanied Mrs. C. Doherty on her return home last week, that they might visit their son, who has been seriously ill. Mr. Doherty is a tinsmith, and works at that trade in Brainerd. He returned home last evening, Mrs. Doherty remaining for a more extended visit.

HENRY CHAPMAN

A Student of the High School Senior Class Dies of Pneumonia

Last Saturday morning as news was received from Corona of the death of John Henry Chapman it cast a pall of gloom over the many friends of the young man in this vicinity, particularly among attendants of the high school, with whom the deceased had been associated for more than three years past. He was a young man of fine character, respected by the teachers of the school, and popular among his fellow students. While at his home on the Christmas vacation he was taken down with pneumonia, and despite of all that medical skill could do, he was unable to rally from the disease and gradually sank until he passed away on the 22nd inst. The deceased was born in South Stukely, Province of Quebec, on Nov. 12 1889, and with his parents came to the vicinity of Corona in the summer of 1893, where the family has since resided. His father, mother, two brothers and three sisters survive him.

The funeral service on Wednesday was conducted by Rev. E. Holgate, and consisted of a short service at the farm home in the morning and services at the Methodist church in this city in the afternoon, Mr. Holgate preaching, and a choir composed of Messrs C. E. Mills and W. Emanuel and Mrs. Mills and Miss Cushing, rendering appropriate selections. Miss Ida Emanuel acted as organist. The entire service was of an impressive character.

A wealth of floral tributes covered the casket, among them being: White roses by the teachers; red roses from the Athletic club; pillow with "class of 1910" on it from the senior class; and red and white pillow with "M. H. S." on it from the high school students; red and white carnations from the sophomore class; and individual friends of Milbank, Melrose and Corona were represented with floral offerings, as was also the athletic club.

The pall bearers were six of the young man's classmates of the senior class, Ed Harper, Ray Leach, Ed VanWalker, Francis Martens, Arthur Holtquist and Arthur Anderson. The members of the high school attended the service in a body, marching to and from the cemetery.

Class Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted by the senior class of the high school upon the decease of their classmate, Henry Chapman, who died of pneumonia on the morning of the 22nd inst:

Whereas—God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our number our beloved classmate, John Henry Chapman, and, Whereas: our hearts, heavily oppressed in this the great loss which we have sustained, go out in sincere sympathy to the father, mother, brothers and sisters.

Be It Resolved—that we the Senior class of nineteen hundred and ten, extend to the bereaved ones our deepest sympathy, and trust that God, who doeth all things well, will comfort and keep them in this, their hour of sorrow.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1910.

Garnett Bros. Win First

At the state corn show at Mitchell recently, Garnett Bros. of this city, won first prize on the best ten ears of corn exhibited. These gentlemen have won prizes on their corn at previous state shows. The prize corn was of the yellow dent variety and the premium was a set of tools said to be worth $25.00.

Creamery Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Grant County Co-operative Creamery Association will be held at the court house on Saturday, January 29, 1910.

A free lunch will be served at noon. Come and help us have a good time. Business meeting will be called at one p. m. The buttermilk from the creamery for the year 1910 will be sold at auction at this meeting.

G. C. MIDDLEBROOK, Sec.

Woodmen!

The dance given last night at the opera house by the trainmen was well attended and eclipsed last year's affair. The decorations were very pretty. Supper was served by the Catholic ladies in Harmonia hall.

WOODMAN DISTRICT PICNIC.

Local Woodmen Talk of Inviting Neighboring Camps to Celebration at Milbank.

There is talk among some of the local woodmen of having a picnic here this summer and inviting the members of neighboring camps for a reunion, parade, etc. This feature of woodcraft is being carried on in many localities with profit to the order. The day may be made a fine outing for the woodmen and their families, with a parade and exercises by the various drill teams, with prizes for the best drilled. A district could extend east to Appleton or Montevideo and west to Webster. Milbank has the facilities for making such a gathering a very pleasant outing, and it might become an annual affair. In order to hold such a day this year action should be taken by woodmen and citizens at once.

Death of Ladd Robie.

Word was received by Miss Ida Funk the first of the week of the death of Mr. Ladd Robie, at Moscow, Idaho, on the 18th inst. Mr. Robie was one of the pioneers of this county. He removed to Montana from here, but had been living at Moscow for four years. His wife survives him.

Did You See It?

Have you seen the so-called Halley comet in the western sky? It has appeared at about seven o'clock in the evening, and on Saturday evening was much brighter than the following evenings. Just what it is, or where it is bound for, the office devil does not say.

Not So Bad After All

While many of the trains running east and west on the Milwaukee are more or less late, it is better to have a delayed train than none at all for 24 to 48 hours and even longer, as has been the case this winter on many of the other railway lines in this state.

No More Chug! Chug!

The new dynamo is being installed at the power house, and in the near future the chugging of the large gasoline engine that has annoyed Landlord Guthrie of the city hotel, and others in that vicinity will be but a sweet remembrance.

Get them All.

In the taking of the census this spring everyone should assist the enumerators in securing a correct record of the residents of the city, that its population figures be placed where they belong. There has been a substantial increase during the past five years, and the census should show this.

LaBolt Banker Invests

Watertown Public Opinion

Wesley Swenson, cashier of the First National Bank at LaBolt, was in Watertown Saturday and Sunday, and while here closed some deals that netted him quite a comfortable amount of money. Mr. Swenson is interested in Watertown real estate. Recently he purchased some lots and later on disposed of them at a good profit.

Detective Doing Business

Some of the citizens of Peever employed a detective from Minneapolis to live in their village for a couple of weeks, with the outcome that he had two of the citizens arrested and taken to Sisseton to answer to the charge of "blind pigging."

Equity Meeting January 29.

A meeting of the American Society of Equity will be held at the court house, Saturday afternoon, Jan. 29, at 2 o'clock sharp. All members are requested to be present.

W. I. LOWTHIAN, Sec.

Storm Damages Wires.

The sleet storm of Tuesday, damaged telephone service quite a good deal. As fast as wires could be straightened up in one place, they would be found down or crossed some where else.

Woodmen!

A meeting of the Milbank camp of M. W. A. will be held Saturday evening, Jan. 23, when all woodmen are requested to be present, as there will be three candidates for adoption.

GEO. MITCHELL, Consul.
