There are 3,064 languages in the world and friend wife can use every one of them when she finds a dainty, perfumed lace-bordered handkerchief in your pocket.

Once in a while you run up against a fellow who uses speech to conceal what he thinks.

The war in Europe seems to have upset a lot of men in this country. But mother's idea of a world disturbance is to have the wash day postponed until Tuesday.

When mother has three or four daughters, father always finds enough store hair around the house to stuff a sofa pillow.

After all, it isn't your income that keeps you awake at night. It is your outgo.

Along about this time of year the June bride wonders what she was drinking when she promised to obey a mutt that she could lick with one hand.

A woman writer who evidently has a lot of it announces that the greatest need of her sex is common sense. Right here is where we fess up and admit that it is also the greatest need of the male sex.

This world would be better if mother got more help and sympathy when she is alive and less bawling and flapdoodle when she is dead.

The human race is just like a horse race. There are always lots of good starters, but only one good finished.

About the only sure thing we know of right now is that people are not going to take your advice unless you charge them for it.

A woman can make a man roll over and play dead. But she can't get a point on a lead pencil.

Methodist Lay Corner Stone With Ceremony

With impressive ceremony the corner stone of the new First Methodist Episcopal church was laid last Sunday afternoon.

Dr. W. G. Seaman, president of the Dakota Wesleyan university, had preached a powerful sermon at the Metropolitan opera house in the morning.

The corner stone ceremony formally opened at 3 in the afternoon by the singing of a hymn by the assembly, followed by an invocation by Rev. F. E. Stockton, of the First Baptist church, following which a male quartette rendered a fine selection and Dr. O. E. Boyce, district superintendent, conducted a responsive reading.

Dr. J. P. Jenkins, former pastor of the church, delivered an address in which the progress of the church was dealt with and its spiritual and material growth.

Dr. L. G. Hill, president of the local board of trustees, speaking of "The New Church Enterprise," referred to the campaign for the raising of the funds and the liberality manifested by the citizens of the community. Dr. Hill also gave a succinct description of the building, as it will be when finished.

Dr. Seaman read the ritual service, and Mr. J. W. Dougherty, president of the building committee, then formally presented the sealed box containing a copy of the Bible, conference minutes, a list of the pastors of the church, copy of the program of the day, and the local papers containing a reference to the church and its progress.

Rev. W. S. Shepherd, also a former pastor, led in an impressive prayer, when Rev. Franklin F. Lewis, present pastor, assisted by a representative of the Colfax Stone company, placed the large stone, weighing about half a ton, into position. The stone fronts on Oak street and Second avenue.

ed should develop. I am paired with Congressman Hammond of Minnesota who is one of the democratic members of the ways and means committee who is now absent in his campaign for governor in Minnesota. I expect to go into the campaign for the republican ticket on Monday and to remain in it until election day. The reports I have received from every part of the state are most encouraging."

'English' Goods Made in Germany, the War Discloses

Berlin.—Under the headline, "Old Sins," the commercial supplement of the Berliner Tageblatt published the following:

"In a recent issue we published a note, according to which a German manufacturer maintained his offers of 'Sheffield Steel,' notwithstanding the war between Germany and England, disclosing the fact that for years he had sold in Germany under the name of 'Sheffield Steel' a steel made in Germany.

"It now comes to light that in a similar way many other 'genuine English' goods are sold on German markets. The smart English business man has long ago discovered the weak point of the Germans, and right away took advantage of their mania of giving everything foreign a preference.

"This applies especially to the sale of gloves. Big English houses received their 'English gloves' made in Saxony by German hands, after German methods and from German material.

"These gloves were shipped, whole carloads full, to England, and, after being stamped with English trademarks, with English labels attached, were reshipped to Germany, where they were sold as 'genuine English' merchandise, with an additional commission for the English manufacturers, of course.

"These manipulations swelled to great proportions in the cloth business. English firms would buy big quantities of German cloth at the textile centers in Silesia, import the cloth to England, and then re-export it to Germany. These goods, having thoroughly become English, as proved by the shipping documents and the higher prices—found then a ready market in foreign loving Germany, under this disguise.

"The Frenchmen also learned to make use of this German peculiarity, especially in millinery, fashions, and so on, where the Perisian taste was given preference to the German public. French manufacturers, for instance, frequently bought at Sebnitz, Saxony, artificial flowers and leaves, selling them afterwards to Berlin houses as 'Parisian novelties.'"

Methodist Men Give Entertainment Oct. 29

The Methodist men of the city have undertaken to raise one thousand dollars for the benefit of the building fund of the church—that is, to raise such sum outside of the channels of subscription.

With this in view they have contracted for the appearance of a noted musical aggregation for Thursday evening, October 29, at the Idle Hour.

The great Gwent Welsh Male Singers, consisting of sixteen gentlemen of recognized musical merit, will be here on the date mentioned, under the auspices of the Methodist men.

Fifty of them now have tickets in their possession. You may buy of them.

The tickets will be reserved at D. F. Jones' drug store on Wednesday, October 28, at 9 o'clock p. m.

This is the third American tour of these great Welsh singers. In one of their former tours they gave a greatly appreciated concert at the White House at Washington.

Not only will they give chorus numbers, but they have among them soloists of distinction.

It will no doubt be one of the finest entertainments that will be put on in Watertown during the season of 1914-15.

QUESTION CLEARED UP.

Watertown Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

Again and again we have read of strangers in distant towns who have been cured by this or that medicine. But Watertown's pertinent question has always been "Has anyone here in Watertown been cured?" The word of a stranger living a hundred miles away may be true, but it cannot have the same weight with us as the word of our own citizens, whom we know and respect, and whose evidence we can so easily prove.

Mrs. E. E. Boyd, 311 First St. S. W., Watertown, says: "The constant stooping and lifting in my housework brought on kidney trouble. There was never a time when I was free from backache or some other symptom of kidney weakness. I finally began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and I have been practically free from kidney ailments since. I am grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Boyd had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv. 19

Frank Crane Suffers Hemorrhage of Brain

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crane, who so long resided in Watertown, will regret to learn of the illness of Mr. Crane, at their home in Jamaica, N. Y., where they have resided since leaving South Dakota.

Some time ago Mr. Crane, who has not enjoyed the best of health for the past two or three years, especially the past year, suffered a hemorrhage of the brain. His left side also became partially paralyzed.

His life was despaired of for a few days, but it is now thought that possibly he may recover, although he still lacks the use of his muscles of the afflicted side. He is also unable to speak distinctly.

Nevertheless, Mr. Crane retains his cheerfulness, a fact which may materially assist in his ultimate recovery.

He was first stricken about ten days ago.

The Saturday News is indebted to Mrs. Beckerville for the information herein given, which was contained in a letter just received from Mrs. Crane.
