During their absence in accordance with the action of the bank officers, they will receive half pay and their former positions will be open to them when they return after the-close of the war.

That war scrvice work of all kinds is not to be allowed to lag in the west river counties of the state is shown by the numerous sales which have been held, or are advertised to be held at the various small inland towns far from railway centers, and in every case the response financially has been far ahead of that of the larger town of the state, when the population represented is considered. It does not take much of a community to bring in $3,000 or more at such sales.

The little town of Ravinia has taken hold of the consolidated school idea. Thr township in which the town is located has constructed a large modern brick school building, and the district has purchased four motor busses and will employ drivers to convey the children from their homes to the school and geturn each day. This gives the country pupils the same educational advantages which the children of the towns get, with the same class of work in the grades and high school

An agent of the treasury department has arrived in South Dakota, and now is investigating all estates having a value of $50,000 and more. Estates worth more than $50,000 are subject to a special government tax, and Uncle Sam has placed experts in the field to look after all such estates and see that none of them are overlooked in Admission 27c, war tax 3c, total 30c Grand musical finale at 8:00, The loyal Grenadiers, an orchastral singthe payment of the special tax.
