CAROLINE E. WHITE. Elsle White died Sept. nce on Northport Aveorn May 30, 1845, the s house which occupied residence later built by Ann White, died many 21 years. A lover of right mind and a happy was a delightful person those intimate with her what she did in chariremark. On learning there throughout the war.

nitarian church and its regular attendant at its parsonage on Church Illiance and one of its d to her home and failed waters. st. In all this time she tant care and tender de-

ODY-STEVENS

A BUSY VACATION TRIP.

Mr. Alfred Johnson has returned to Newport, R. I., where he has been engaged in important war work for the past Webster) White. Miss in what was formerly house which occupied During his visit Mr. Johnson attended the first meeting of the men who have come back from over seas, held in Memohe had thus lived all her rial hall, one of the regular meetings of Northport avenue. Her the Home Guard in the Armory, and the first gathering of the Alumni of the Belfast High School at the City Park. He 21 years. A lover of seemed very much interested in the well read in current lit-movement to raise money for our new was a delightful person gift, explained in full by Mayor Wescott to the gathering, he offered to be responnecessary to complete the fund.

He was also present at the cabaret givwhat she did in chari-she dreaded publicity of his opinion the skit by Mr. Cobe, and the of the kind that the Newport people have been in the habit of putting on for the time, expressed himself as very much earning the funds that pleased with the work being done here at the St. Margaret's Chapel and hopes to the efficient secretary of do while war conditions existed.

After leaving Belfast Mr. Johnson was of the Belfast Home was loaned to the U.S. Government by she always bore them her in his inspection trips along the nt. Since March she whole Atlantic coast and in European

MRS. FRANK PALMER WILSON.

ave been more constant gust 31st, after a surgical operation. ss White's nearest rela- She was born in Lawrence, Mass., the owing cousins: Mrs. H. daughter of John Merrill Currier. She iss Annie M. and Will- was a member of the Artists' Guild of s. Annie W. Hinchman, Boston and was well known as a sculpte of Miami, Fla., Hen- tress, maintaining an office for years in armington, Frank White Boston. For the past four years she had W. Mulholiand of Los been in New York, where she had a stu-Mrs. Harry Norrington dio. She had recently completed a large o, Mrs. Edward Davies | bronze statue, which was most favorably Minn., Mrs. Irving Pic- commented on by the New York press. d, N. H. Her funeral She was married in October to Mr. Willate home Tuesday at son. They lived in Norwald, Conn, The ton. It was one of the most delightful and most social functions held in Belfast the youngest daughter the voungest daughter the youngest daughter the youngest daughter E. Stevens of Herbert E. Stevens of the youngest daughter the youngest daughter the youngest daughter bride has been employed as a trained to be the past week of his boston, where he is in business and is also taking a course at the Boston Unigroom is employed by is well and very favorably known in Bel-r Co. The young couple fast and vicinity and is the daughter of rank of Lieut in the U. S. Infantry Rehes of many friends for Calvin J. Gray of Belmont. They will make their home in York.

BLOOM-GRAY

MARIE MORRISEY

HERSELF

IN BELFAST!

The famous concert contralto, whose finished artistry has captivated a whole continent, is coming by special arrangement to Belfast. Her personal appearance makes this the musical event of the season.

Thursday, September 11 at 8.15 P. M.

Colonial Theatre

Assisting Miss Morrisey will be Mr. Thomas A. Edison's Three Million Dollar Phonograph.

FREE TICKETS

Call, write or telephone us for free tickets of admittance. They will be issued in order of application.

Fred D. Jones, Belfast, Maine.

A Double Silver Wedding

Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Craig and Mr. the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriages Friday evening, Sept. 5th, from Keyes, Augusta. 8 to 10, at the Craig home, 14 High street. Charles Murray Craig and Miss Annie have always made their home in Belfast. Francis James Starrett and Lena Emily High school and after hearing of Miss Crosby's generous and public-spirited 19, 1894, by Rev. James M. Leighton then pastor of the First Parish (Unitarian) sand was always true sible for raising the last thousand dollars church. About twenty years ago they moved to Springfield, Mass., which has since been their home. The Craig home was beautifully decorated with an abun-For a number of years work by Messrs. Chase and Parker and the other artists was fully up to anything tion of Mrs. John R. Dunton and Mrs. Ben Ames Williams. The lower hall was entered with a smile thirty-two thousand sailor boys stationed in green and yellow and the upper hall in green and white. Misses Lillian Davis During his stay he made a trip down and Katherine Frost directed the guests. one of the best women the bay in the cabin cruiser Louise, Capt. William Decrow, when visits were made All her life she was with the Hon. Andrew J. Peters, Mayor was in asparagus, hydrangeas and phlox. of Boston, and Prof. Julian Coolidge of The receiving line was in front of a large Harvard University, both of whom have summer homes at North Haven, and with hydrogeneous delicate green relieved w was a member of the Charles Dana Gibson, Esq., at Seven Hundred Acre Island. Rev. William in the other parts of the room. The brides Mrs. Harriet P. Adams observed her hydrangeas and the same effect was used | crop on the trees. Brewster, Bishop of Maine, who was of a quarter of a century wore their wed- 91st birthday last Thursday at her home tach any blame to her for the accident, staying with Mr. and Mrs. Gibson at the ding gowns; Mrs. Craig a beautiful light with Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Bridges, visit Belfast oftener than he was able to from China which done service as her her birthday cake, the gift of Mrs. and had her foot on the brake. She also dainty white silk combined with lace.

James on his auxiliary bark-rigged yacht Aloha, one of the finest and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

of the Refeat Home

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. During the war she

The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. The really conspicuous feature of the inner and largest yachts in the world. The really conspicuous feature of the believes in being happy and in making yachts in the world. The really conspicuous feature of the believes in being happy and sleeves then so popular. Very informally THE SCHOOLS. The city schools open-Until within ten was loaned to the U. S. Government by the owner and manned with heavy guns about 150 guests were received. In the ed Monday with a good registration. The the cart pulled Mr. Collins about 20 feet and a Navy crew. She was the flag ship of Admiral Winslow, U. S. N., who used she always bore them she always bore them Elizabeth A. Kelley, Mrs. James C. Dur- presses a great deal of satisfaction at the and Grace Hazeltine. Mrs. Craig was A. Foster will succeed Miss Florence M. also assisted by the Misses Mabel R. and Cross and Miss Florence Keen will teach Maud E. Mathews and Margaret A. Dun-the sixth grade in the Peirce school. Rev. Arthur E. Wilson took place at Mt. Auburn, Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Wilson's many friends here extend sincere sympathy to him in his bereavement.

In the distribution of the several years. The children of the families were present adding materially to the interest. The Misses Craig have they recently bought of J. F. Shelpto the interest. The Misses Craig have move the 16th of September to the resirecently graduated from Mount Holyoke dence they recently bought of J. F. Shel-College. Mabel is teaching in Thorsby don on Cedar street. Mr. and Mrs. Shel-Raymond Roll Bloom of York, Penn., and Miss Alma Tower Gray, R. N., of New London, Conn., were married at the or, Rev. Mahlon E. Cursther, Rev. Ma of Louisville, Ky.

THE CHURCHES

supply

of St. John the Divine, New York.

open Sept. 14; preaching service at 10.45 a. m.; church school at noon. The minister, Rev. A. E. Wilson, will preach; subject, The Place of Religion in Today's Life. Everybody welcome.

Harry Taylor will supply. Sunday and their maintenance. school at noon. Christian Endeavor meeting at 6.30. Prayer meeting this, Thursday, evening at 7.30. The public is cordially invited to these services.

No. 7 Court St.; telephone, 213.11. Sun- ed down by a five passenger Overland City. day morning preaching, 10.45; Sunday school, 12.00; Sunday evening preaching, 7.30, at which Rev. A. E. Luce, District Supt., will be present. Prayer meeting this, Thursday, evening at 7.30. Preaching service at East Northport, at 230 Sunday. The public is cordially invited to attend all these services.

DIXIE JUBILEE SINGERS COMING

Southern melodies, mimicry, stories, jazz music and other featuring will be given by the Dixie Jubilee Singers and Specialty Co. in Memorial Hall Friday evening, Sept. 12th.

This is a typical southern show introducing the old and new style in a festival of music and mirth. Everything in the program is clean and wholesome and arranged to please every lover of harmony blended with bright comedy characteristic of the colored race. The Dixie Jazz orchestra has the pep and plays for the dance which will follow the entertainment.

The News of Belfast.

Mrs. Roy E. Young, Mrs. Elmer Keene F of the Third Maine Regiment at Camp

Mrs. Annie Mathews of Northport brought into The Journal office Monday Atherton Starrett were married in Belfast an immense cucumber, one of many of a Sept. 5, 1894, by Rev. Rollin T. Hack, like size raised this year by her father, the pastor of the North church. They Frank Dickey of Northport. It was 16 inches long, 10 inches in circumference and weighed four pounds.

> closed on Friday night of this week and not had a real vacation for about twenty-gray brocade silk, trimmed with beautifu Waldo avenue. Mrs. Adams bears her cide exactly with Mr. Nickerson's. She hand-made lace, the materials brought years very lightly and was happy with said she had perfect control of her car mother's wedding dress; Mrs. Starrett a Bridges; also with many letters, cards, said she did everything in her power to dainty white silk combined with lace. dainty presents and gifts of money. She prevent the accident, which she deeply glow and the daintier helium. The deco- Miss Eva Wentworth, remains of last rations at the bay window were most ef- year's faculty. The others were reported fective. Misses Maude E. Barker and when elected. Supt. E. E. Roderick exham and Mrs. E. S. Pitcher had charge of prospects of the present faculty At the the refreshments and were assisted in McLellan school there were 167 registerserving by Misses Katherine Jones of ed. Miss Lila Sprague is substituting Newtonville, Mass., Miriam Stowers of for Miss Frances A. Sargent in the first Searsport and Palm Beach, Fla., Edna D. grade and Miss Ola Redman in the sec-Crawford and Dr. Hester Brown of Bel- ond grade for Miss Julia Leary, who is ents, principally sterling, were displayed, istered. Mrs. Charles A. Townsend of Punch was served here by Mrs. Ben Ames | Wadsworth as principal and Miss Sar-Williams and the Misses Dorothy Norton gent will teach the fifth grade. Miss H.

FALL MOVING, Capt. and Mrs from the Frost house on Church street rank of Lieut. in the U. S. Infantry Reserve. Frederick was also in the service Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Kilgore, who have with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradbury. as Corporal in the Signal Service. He is been living a few months in one of the Kittredge cottages on Cottage street, will in business in New York and is taking a take the apartments vacated by Mr. and course at the University. Both have been released from service. Among the out- Mrs. Payson....Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gurney of-town guests was Mrs. Craig and Mr. will later move from Thorndike to their the summer at their cottage, Blue Water. new home, recently bought of Capt. Saw-Starrett's cousin, Frederick H. Vaughan year. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Kent will move from the Swift house on Cedar street to the Johnson house on Church Frisbe

Preaching services will be held next | Mr. Paul D. Sargent, Chief Engineer of Sunday morning at the Congregational the Highway Commission, was in Belfast and other relatives. church. Rev. Wm. Vaughan will be the Friday of last week to address our citizens on the subject of good roads. Dr. W. L. Mrs. Fred Waldo Brown, left Saturday Rev. L. L. Dunn of Readfield Depot, West presided at the meeting and in a for Quincy, Fla., where she has a position formerly of Detroit, Mich., preached at fitting manner introduced the speaker. In the public schools.

Lothrop and Mrs. Vaughan Hamilton of Rev. David L. Wilson and family called Boston. Mrs. Lothrop will make a short morning and evening. Mr. Dunn is now his hearers by the plain and convincing from Georges Lake, where they spent engaged in evangelistic work throughout manner in which he presented not only their annual vacation. the great advantages which good roads St. Margaret's Chapel. Sunday. Sept. 14th, morning prayer and sermon at 10.45 o'clock. The service will be in charge of whose state as a result of securing Fedthe Rev. E. Briggs Nash, of the Cathedral eral aid, as proposed, by an additional f St. John the Divine, New York.

First Parish church (Unitarian) will re issue of state bonds. He also gave an outline history of road building under the division of the summer college at North Hills at their direction of the Highway Commission and explained the aims and policy of the tions. Mr. Sargent was conservative in Harriman at Messelonkee Lake. his statements, but was vitally earnest in presenting the subject under considera- Coombs and Emma Robinson are spend-Services will be held at the Baptist tion. Those who heard him obtained ing a week's vacation at Mr. Obrey's church next Sunday at 10.45 a. m. Rev much information concerning good roads cottage, Camp Sundae at Swan Lake.

> ACCIDENTS. George H. Jobinson of parish in East Boston. Mrs. Rossbach and their son George remain for a longer tern Union, was seriously injured at noon > > this live store.

Belfast's Largest

Clothing Store

Haskell of Deer Isle. She was on her way to Portland and was accompanied and Mrs. Raymond B. Dyer recently called by Evelyn Banks of Deer Isle and Harry and Mrs. Francis J. Starrett celebrated on their husbands, who are with Company M. Parker of Hampden Highlands. James Nickerson, machinist at Bank's Garage, was standing in the door near the corner and saw the car come up Bridge street. He says she was driving between twelve and fifteen miles an hour. That she evidently intended to go over High street to Main and blew her whistle, but seeing there was not room to take that street ground. without running over the workmen, swung her car evidently to continue up Bridge Sanborn have returned from Boston with The Burgess Job Printing Office will be or go up High street. Mr. Robinson, who apparently did not hear what was said to will reopen on Monday, September 22nd. him or notice which way Mrs. Haskell Marshall O. Knowlton, the manager, has turned her car, stepped directly in front of it and was thrown violently to the five years, and will spend a week with ground. He was taken directly to the his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Graham, in Waldo County Hospital and Dr. Carl H. Stevens was called. He was found to M.s. C. E. White of this city received have fractured his upper jaw and one of Monday by parcel post a Bartlett pear his legs was badly bruised. Mrs. Haskell from her brother, Charles E. Fogg of went with City Marshal Knowlton to his Placerville, Calif. The pear weighs 13 office in the city building where she reounces, is 12 inches long and 10 1 2 inches mained until he investigated the case. in circumference. Mr. Fogg was a former | She did all she could to assist him. She Brooks boy and now owns a fruit ranch. also saw Mr. Robinson and his wife and later in the afternoon allowed her to continue her trip to Portland and did not at- reserve police officer of that city. Mr. Knowlton says her statements coinwhen his horse became frightened on side Tea House.

PERSONAL

Miss Mildred Ryan of Rockland s the guest of Miss Madeline Coombs.

Roscoe B. Smith of Allston, Mass., is visiting in Belfast, his former home

Mrs. F. G. Spinney has returned from Boston, where she went for millinery.

Mrs. Lefia M. Cottrell went to Benton fast. The living room, where the pres- ill At the Peirce school about 200 reg- Saturday for a short visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. J. Oscar Olson of Bangor was bright with gladioli, phlox and asters. the first grade succeeds Miss Alberta arrived last week for a visit with rela-

> Frederick H. Vaughan of Louisville, Ky., arrived recently to visit Belfast

Miss Elizabeth Fayles of Westboro, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curtis.

Mrs. Agnes Plummer of this city left Monday for Boston where she will spend the winter. Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Porter of Pittsfield were recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. Adelbert Millett. Miss Louise H. Ferguson arrived home eral days making the trip. last Thursday from her regular business

Mrs. George L. Lovely returned to Mrs. Willis Richardson of Knox is at the Tapley Hospital, where she recently underwent a serious surgical operation. Robert H. Coombs and family return this week from Bayside, where they spent Mrs. Mary Bemis of Medford, Mass., rived recently to visit Mrs. George W Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Ferguson have returned to their home in New York after and Mrs. Sarah Boynton of Freedom ara visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Durham Miss Jane Brown, daughter of Mr. and in the public schools. on Belfast friends on their way home

Mrs. Fannie E. Shute left Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hills of Simsbury,

Mrs. H. E. McDonald has returned from visits with Mrs. W. H. Simpson of Commission in conducting further opera- Fairfield and with Mr. and Mrs. Fred A.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Obrey, Mr. Wilfred

Rev. Adolph Rossbach, who spent th summer in Belfast, has returned to his People's Methodist Church, Rev. Charles W. Martin, pastor; parsonage, No. 7 Court St.; telephone, 213.11. Sun-

PERSONAL.

Chester B. Frost of Providence, R. I., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Lena H.

Mrs. Jane D. Stephenson of Roxbury, Mass., is visiting in Belfast, her former Henry C. Graton of Worcester, Mass., has been a recent guest of Dr. Foster C. Small. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gannon are spending two weeks at Northport Camp-

Misses Katherine E. Brier and Millie millinery.

Miss Clara B. Keating has returned to her studies at the Mary E. Pierce school in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Whitmore of Lynn, Mass., have been visiting Mrs. Mary Whitmore. Miss Alice Roswell of Brockton, Mass, formerly of Belfast, is the guest of friends here. Miss Adelia Cook left Monday to continue her studies at the Northfield Seminary, Northfield, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Robinson are spending two weeks in Monroe with her mother, Mrs. Louise Peavey. Harry F. Hunter of Haverhill, Mass., formerly of Belfast, has been elected a Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mitchell of Medford, Mass., and Texas have been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. J. N. Stewart. Miss Lillian Birmbaum of Brookline, Mass., has been the guest of Mrs. Belle Cates at her home on Upper High street. Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Thayer and Miss Nina Baeer of Mobile, Ala., and Miss Annie Thayer of Lynn, Mass., left Saturday after a two weeks' sojourn at the Way-

Mr. and Mrs. John Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Otis have returned to Lawrence, Mass., after an auto trip spent in Belfast the guests of Mrs. Ardence R. I. dence R. dence R. I. dence R. thur W. Coombs.

Mrs. Ethel Flood Johnson has return- of Mrs. D. W. Bradford. ed to Brockton, Mass., after spending a vacation with Belfast relatives. She was accompanied by her little son Maurice Arthur, who spent the summer here.

Rev. E. F. Ferris of the Rhinelander Memorial church in New York City, who has officiated several months at the St. Margaret chapel, will return home today, Thursday, with his wife and little mer at her home in East Belfast, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Towle, left Saturday for Bridgeport, Conn., where she is a teacher in the public schools.

Mrs. Elon B. Gilchrest left Tuesday for her home in Grand Rapids, Mich., after spending the summer with her parents, Hon. and Mrs. Robert F. Dunton.

Miss Alice P. Poor, Educational Director of Hutzler Brothers.

Mrs. Amos F. Carleton left Tuesday to Westville, Conn., to accompany home her daughter, Mrs. H. Donaid Mansur and ford, Mass., who are visiting in Belfast, and Mr. and Mrs. G. A Leavitt left Friday for an auto trip into Aroostook.

Mr. and Mrs. T. George Dodworth and J. W. Dougan, who have spent the summer t the Dodworth cottage on the South Shore, left Monday morning by motor for New York. They will be sevulved the summer to the College.

Mrs. Elijan C. Howard has returned from Boston, where she went to accompany Miss Vivian M. Howard, who will attend the Bryant & Stratton Business College.

Rev. William M. Sleeper, Miss Helen nd Frank Sleeper, who have been at the Battery for the season, have returned to their home in Wellesley, Mass. Prof. Allan Sleeper and Prof. James T. Sleeper and wives have gone to Passaic, N where they will be located turned from an extended auto trip into New Hampshire and Massachusetts, and were accompanied home by Mrs. Balanda Miss Florence E. The Countries of Cambridge, Mass. New Hampshire and Massachusetts, and were accompanied home by Mrs. Ralph Peak, daughters Marian and Janet and son Stewart of Medford and Miss Katherine Ferreia of Roslindale, Mass.

turned home from visits in Boston and Plymouth, Mass. Mr. Ritchie went to attend the sessions of the International Lawyers' Association. Both were present at the banquets held in Copiey Plaza and heard the world's leading lawyers.

Mr. Ira M. Cobe and Maj. S. C. Pratt left by auto Tuesday for a pleasure trip through Maine. Later they will join Mrs. Cobe in Boston who makes the trip there accompanied by Mrs. Ansel M. visit in Boston and vicinity.

Lennan, who have been spending a part of the season at their summer home in East Belfast, left Saturday for their home in Dallas, Texas. They will spend two weeks en route, visiting in Bangor, Portland, Boston and also in Canada, where Leavitt and son Gerald of Augusta, Mr. they will be guests of Mr. MacLennan's mother. They plan to spend next summer at Mr. Peavey's beautiful new home guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. in Northport.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Elijah C. Howard and son Merle left Friday to visit relatives in Monroe.

Mrs. Arthur E. Wilson has returned from a two weeks' visit in Athol, Mass. Mrs. V. A. Simmons is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Corliss, in Plymouth, Miss Alva Prescott of Chelsea, Mass., has been the recent guest of Mrs. Fred R.

F. C. Bartlett of Roslindale, Mass., is visiting his cousin, Mrs. Elmer B. Decrow, and family.

Merle J. Baker of Lynn, Mass., is the guest of his cousin, Miss Eva M. Wight, and other relatives.

Mrs. Lewis M. McKenney and daughter Barbara returned last Thursday from visits in Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. George L. Bowman left Friday to spend the winter in Soston, where she will join Mr. Bowman.

Mrs. C. B. Willey and son Malcolm of Putnam, Conn., arrived last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Norton. Miss Louise W. Richards left Saturday

o resume her duties in the faculty of the Farmington Normal school. L. T. Foster of Montville has been the guest several days of his daughter, Mrs. W. S. Darby, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Burton Wight of Lynn Mass., are guests of the former's brother, Willis E. Wight, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dunbar of Plymouth, Mass., are guests of Mr. Dunbar's mother, Mrs. Henry Dunbar, and other relatives. Cecil Clay left Friday for Farmington to attend the session of the Supreme Ju-dicial Court. He will also go to Alfred for a special hearing. Miss Mabel A. Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Charles M. Craig, left Saturday for Thorsby, Alabama after spending her

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kinney of Providence, R. I., arrived Tuesday on their way to Knox, where they will be guests Miss Avis M. Morison left Saturday to resume her duties in the Springfield, Mass., public fibrary, after spending several weeks with Belfast relatives. Mrs. Frederick Bailey and daughter Doris of Needham Heights, Mass., have been guests the past week at the home of where she is a teacher in the public of Hutzier Brothers Co., Baitimore, Md., left Saturday after a visit with her parents, Hon. and Mrs. Clarence O. Poor.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Darby

county.

Mrs. Elijah C. Howard has returned

High school, Providence, R. I, arrived Friday morning, to be the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen S. L. Shute and family.

Miss G. Bernice Rogers, who spent the summer with Mrs. George L. Bowman,

State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ritchie have reurned home from visits in Boston and Plymouth, Mass. Mr. Ritchie went to Aurelia and Ames, Iowa, and they will also visit Mrs. Dinsmore's parents in Rogers, Arkansas. Prof. and Mrs. C. D. Cool, son Robert and daughter Elizabeth left last Thursday for their home in Madison, Wis., after a visit with Mrs. Cool's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Robert F. Dunton. Mrs. G. D. Tucker, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George

A. Leavitt, has returned to her home in Malden, Mass. She was accompanied by her nephew, Sherwin Stanley of Bath. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Peavey, Mrs.
M. A. Peavey, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. MacLennan, who have been spending a part of the season at their summer home in Fact Paffect left Setural summer home in for the season at their summer home in for the season.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank everyone from everywhere for the wonderful support given our opening of

"THE DAVIS SAMPLE SHOP"

on Saturday last, and the words of praise heard from the people that crowded the store on that day makes us feel sure that ou large line of ready-to-wear garments for women and children are bound to please.

New goods are constantly arriving.. Below are a few specials for Saturday only:

Women's Coats, $20-$22 value, Saturday price $14.98 Women's Silk and Georgette Dresses, $18 and $20 value,

Saturday price $12.98 New Black Sateen Petticoats, $1.75 value, Saturday price $1.29

Women's Sweaters, all colors, $850 value, Saturday

price $6.98 Women's Silk Skirts, plain black and in colors, $12 value, Saturday price $9.98

Other bargains too numerous to mention.

Very truly yours,

THE DAVIS SAMPLE SHOP Clark's Corner, High Street

C. F. HAMMONS, Manager.

BERT L. DAVIS

Look for the Sign

BERT L. DAVIS

Some time you are going to find out you can

SAVE money by buying your CLOTHING at

Why not make the beginning today?

Very truly yours,