LEGION PUTS STOP TO HATTER MARCH IN FIRST QUARTER

The American Legion Football team played the Stetson University Reserves, one of the fastest and best games that has ever been witnessed in Palatka at the ball park yesterday afternoon, losing by the close score of 13 to 0. Time and again the Legions team held the collegians for downs, and the whole team proved a power of strength on defense. Due to lack of practice, their interference was ragged at times, but on a number of occasions they were able to puncture their opponents' line for substantial gains.

It was unfortunate that such a small crowd turned out to witness such an excellent exhibition of the fall sport.

Stetson by "Pug" Allen, a former Georgia Tech half back, used the famous Haiseman shift, and while slightly disconcerting to the locals in the first quarter, they quickly solved it, and from that time on Stetson, was at no time within the shadow of Palatka's goal.

Florida Ties Up With Carolina In Exciting Contest

Tampa, Nov. 5.—Played off their feet in the first period when South Carolina marched eighty yards to a touchdown in eighteen plays, Florida came back, forced Carolina behind her goal post, blocked and recovered a kick there for a touchdown, tying the score and then battered the gamecocks back into a corner inside their own thirty yard line. The game ended with the score 7 to 7.

SEVENTY-FIVE CHILDREN ENJOY A STORY HOUR

The first story hour of the season was held yesterday afternoon on the Library lawn and was largely attended, there being seventy-five children present. These attractive gatherings are held each week under the auspices of Palatka Community Service and with yesterday's successful meeting, promise well this winter for the children of Palatka.

The children assembled at 3 o'clock and were first led in a number of attractive games by Negley Teeters. Adults in passing the Library were much interested and stopped to watch the little tots enjoy real supervised play. After the games the children were entertained with Victrola music which was donated by the Chas. E. Rowton Company. A number of marches were played, the children keeping time with the music. They were next entertained with stories by Mrs. F. H. Wilson, who presented them in a highly dramatic manner.

The story hours are to continue each week for the remainder of the winter and it is hoped that more children will avail themselves of this wonderful opportunity of listening to the best in folklore and child history. The patronesses to be in charge each week will be announced by the chairman of the Story Telling league, Mrs. J. H. Millican. Those in charge yesterday and assisting Mr. Teeters were, Mrs. F. H. Wilson, who presented them in a highly dramatic manner.

and Knight as umpire, both performing their duties in an entirely satisfactory manner to both teams.

First Community Sing to Be Held on Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday night the first Community Sing of the winter will be held in the High School auditorium under the auspices of Palatka Community Service. It will be remembered that last spring the sings held on the court house lawn were very popular and were enjoyed by large numbers. The music committee, with Mrs. E. L. Mann in charge is arranging for a number of these sings the coming winter with special numbers to be the attractions each time. The sing Tuesday night will be led by Mr. Teeters, who led them last spring. Palatka has lost a fine song leader in Mr. Charles Bennett, who has gone to Gainesville to take charge of the Community Service program in that city. But it is hoped that some local talent can be found to assist in this phase of community work this winter.

A fine program to be announced later is in store for those who attend this first sing. Special reservations are to be held in the auditorium for children and students. Children are always the feature in community sings and the sings this winter are no exception. Everybody is asked to save Tuesday night for this entertainment. Come out and help put Palatka on the map with community singing.

There are two classes of people: those who feel abused because they have to work, and those who feel abused because they have no jobs.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Duval Swamps Lanier Jacksonville, Nov. 5.—Duval High defeated Sydney Lanier High of Montgomery, claimant of the Alabama High championship, here today 34 to 0. Duval was too powerful for the visitors and when the ball was put over in the second period the Alabamians goal line was crossed for the first time in two years. Lanier had a slight handicap in weight, but fought gamely throughout the contest, the line, on several occasions holding like a stone wall.

Ocala Noses Out DeLand

Ocala, Nov. 5.—Ocala High outplayed DeLand High at all times here today and the visitors went down to defeat by a score of 14 to 7. Both of Ocala's touchdowns were earned by the visitors who scored after getting the ball on a fumble.

Gainesville Rumps On Leon

Gainesville, Nov. 5.—Gainesville High had no trouble smothering Leon High on the local gridiron today piling up a score of 41 to 0. The Tallahasseeans never threatened during the game. Three of the local touchdowns resulted from straight football and two from forward passes, while the other came near the end of the game when Vickery received a punt and squirmed his way sixty yards to the goal line.

SERVICE AT CARR ST. CHAPEL. Reverend Julian de Nazarie will preach tomorrow morning at the Carr street Chapel. Services will begin at eleven o'clock.

WATSON SPREADS HIS ATTACK TO HEAD OF ARMIES

(Continued From Page 1) Georgia senator that a former service man, now living in Washington, had given him a statement as to the hanging of four negro soldiers "on one gallows at one time, each clad in the uniform that General Pershing wears." The same soldier had informed him, he said, that these men were hanged without court martial.

Another soldier had informed him, Mr. Watson said, that the body of "a negro convict, the black cap still over his face," had been exhumed and sent to the home of a white woman in Rochester, N. Y., whose son had been killed in action.

"Just such a case happened in my home county in Georgia," the senator added.

Cold Blooded Murder

Harry Waldron, of New York, an ex sergeant in the army service corps, the senator said, offered to give evidence of "cold blooded murder" in the American expeditionary forces and destruction of files of the Bastille prison.

Finally, after presenting an affidavit from Joseph E. Conwell, of Philadelphia, stating that he saw a negro hanged in uniform, Senator

AUTO INSURANCE

What Others Say of BELT Service:

T. J. Knight, Agent,
Belt Auto Insurance Co.,
Dear Sir:

I want to thank you and your company, the Belt Auto Insurance Company, for your promptness in adjusting my claim for collision with H. A. Osgood, amounting to more than $400 on the two cars. I appreciate the promptness with which you handled this matter.

It has been a good many years since I carried Auto Insurance for the reason that the rates have been almost prohibitive. Besides I have never had any but minor accidents and felt that, with careful driving, I would be ahead by carrying my own insurance, but when you showed me the low rates your company was offering, I bit and am glad I did, as this total claim would very likely have fallen on me. I am going to stay "BIT."

Again thanking you for your attention, I am,

Very truly,

Watson said the executions cited by him already had passed the figures given by the War Department and Chairman Wadsworth of the senate military affairs committee.

"The further we go the worse it gets," he concluded. "The more we stir it the worse it stinks."

One of Watson's Stories Wrong Beaumont, Tex., Nov. 5.—O. A. Daigle, a former lieutenant in the A. E. F. today declared that the alleged hanging of a negro soldier by the American army officials in the La Rochelle area of France during the war, referred to by Senator Watson, of Georgia, never took place, the negro, according to Daigle, is William Curtis, now serving a life term at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

Curtis, according to Daigle, who says he attended the court martial as an interpreter, was found guilty of attacking a seven-year-old French girl.

He was condemned to death, Daigle said, but later the sentence was commuted because of the fact that the French law is opposed to capital punishment for such crimes.

Serving at Leavenworth Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 5.—Albert Curtis, a negro, formerly private in Co. B., 33 American Battalion, who was convicted of attacking a French girl, was sentenced to twenty years of hard labor in Leavenworth prison. Records at the prison showed that later his sentence was reduced to twenty years, was tried on January 12, 1911, according to the records which is said, that the negro was sentenced to death. Curtis was charged against him.
