

SMOKE RINGS

Still Aiming

By SAM RAGAN

Now that officials of the Big Ten have shied away from the proffered hand of the Pacific Coast league to meet their champ in the Rose Bowl every New Year's Day, Southern football coaches can continue aiming at that lucrative target.

For it's generally conceded from a pre-season standpoint that the team that will journey to Pasadena late in December will come from the South. In less than two weeks a very interesting chapter in gridironery will begin to unfold.

Dunkel's Dope

In the past few weeks we have repeated what a good many of the nation's pigskin experts have had to say on the coming campaign. Today we present the findings of Dick Dunkel, who bases his figures on mathematics.

For the 30 top teams in the U. S., Dunkel nominates the following in that order: Texas A. M., Cornell, Ohio State, Tennessee, Missouri, Tulane, North Carolina, Mississippi State, Duke, Alabama, Mississippi State, Southern California, Southern Methodist, Penn State, Duquesne, Northwestern, Fordham and Texas.

The Texas Aggies are his choice as the team of 1940. He picks 'em as sure shots to go to the Rose Bowl and names the Washington Huskies as their opponents.

But there's one point we can't figure. In the national ratings North Carolina is ahead of Duke. Yet in the Southern conference ratings, Duke is first and Carolina second. The rest of the favorites in the Southern are as follows: Clemson, Wake Forest, William & Mary, V. M. I., Furman, Richmond, W. & L., and South Carolina.

Clark to Fish

Bill Keziah, of Southport, reports that puppy drum fishing should be demanding plenty of attention ere long. And via way of this angle's friend we learn that Congressman J. Bayard Clark plans to come down to Southport some time soon for his annual fall fishing expedition.

Talking about the sport, Keziah recalls some catches. Dr. L. C. Ferguson landed 18, all weighing more than two pounds, in about 40 minutes while fishing in Walden's Creek, and Roscoe Rogers, of Southport, caught 53 during one high tide.

Here and There

R. J. Powell wants an excuse to go to New York in early October, so he's hoping the Yankees will win the pennant just because of that. . . Bill Berry caught a bluefish weighing three and three-fourths pounds on Frying Pan Shoals Sunday. . . Huntsmen report that next week should be a good time for marsh hen hunting along the coast. . . Around Chapel Hill everyone is passing the word along to watch Johnny Pecora, the Bowden boy, go when Carolina takes to the gridiron. . . V. M. I. looks about the same and maybe a little stronger than last year. . . Coach Gene McEver thinks his Davidson Wildcats—who will play Citadel here on November 30, look much better than last year's edition. . . Raleigh and Durham high schools are scheduled to open their 1940 football seasons Friday.

BILL TO PUT BOAT LINES UNDER ICC PASSED BY SENATE

displaced by consolidations and reorganization of transportation systems.

Before approving the bill the senate voted down, 51 to 23, a contention by Senator Clark (D-Mo.) that the joint committee had violated senate rules in redrafting it. Clark asserted that the "sole purpose" of the bill was to bring about a condition where there would be "only a few boats on the rivers and a few boats engaged in interstate transportation and the railroads will own them."

The same thing, he added, would apply to motor transportation. Proponents of the legislation contended that it would eliminate "unfair" competition by waterways and provide equality of regulation for all types of transportation.

Inland, coast-wise and inter-coastal water carriers, except certain types not competitive with land transportation, would be brought under regulation by the interstate commerce commission. Foreign commerce would be left under the maritime commission.

INDIA LOSE LEAD AS SOX WIN

CHICAGO TRIUMPHS ON LEE'S HURLING

Detroit Takes Over League Lead As Tribe Loses Again By 2 To 1 Count

BY RAY BLOSSER

CLEVELAND, Sept. 9. — (AP) — Thornton Lee southpawed the Cleveland Indians out of first place today, passing out only four hits as the Chicago White Sox slammed a 2 to 1 victory down upon the slump-ridden Tribe.

The idle Detroit Tigers thus took over first place by a half game and the fast-climbing New York Yankees, who open a two-game series here tomorrow, face the Indians only a half-game behind.

Lee exerted his mastery over the Indians and their starter, southpaw Harry Eisenstat, before 78,000 empty and 2,000 occupied seats in Cleveland's lakefront stadium.

It was the unhappy Indians' seventh defeat in eight starts.

The game wasn't even as close as the score indicates. The Sox, who won only five of their previous 21 starts against the Tribe this year, made 11 hits off Eisenstat and his ninth-inning successor, Joe Dobson.

Three of the blows came in the fourth inning, when the Chicagoans scored their first run.

With one out, Joe Kuhel singled past Eisenstat to center field. Julius Solters, who takes great delight in beating his old teammates, also singled sharply to right field, Kuhel stopping at second.

A slight drizzle started to fall, adding to the gloom which hung over the stadium all afternoon.

Luke Appling smacked a sharp drive toward first base and Oscar Grimes, subbing for the injured Hal Trosky, bobbled it. The blow went for a single and clogged the sacks although Second Baseman Ray Mack, just behind Grimes, probably could have handled it for an out.

At that point Eisenstat lost his control and walked Taft Wright on four straight pitches to force in the first run.

"CLUTCH" HITTER

By Jack Sords

On Big Five Grid Front

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 9. — (AP) — A firm believer in fitting his system to the players, Coach Ray Wolf started the second week's drills at Carolina by putting in several additional plays, revising assignments on others, and juggling several players in an effort to find who was best where.

LOCKING STRESSED
DURHAM, Sept. 9. — (AP) — Duke's Blue Devils of football went back to blocking this afternoon when virtually the entire drill was turned over to this important feature of present day football.

Head Coach Wallace Wade personally took charge of the linemen as he continued to hustle the work along in preparation for the opener with V. M. I. here September 28. Coaches Hagler and Staley watched the proceedings and called attention of the forwards to mistakes they made in going through their assignments.

Backfield Coach Eddie Cameron put the ball-carriers and passers through passing drills. The entire squad took part in a light dummy scrimmage.

Clemson's First String Fails To Click In Drill

CLEMSON, S. C., Sept. 9. — (AP) — Clemson's first team failed to click today in its first real offensive ground scrimmage of the football season.

Time and again the second team threw George Floyd, Chippy Lanness and Charlie Timmons for losses. Coach Frank Howard worked three teams.

Prior to the running game, however, Maness fired no less than three touchdown passes to Joe Blalock, star Tiger end. The third team stopped an aerial attack led by Sid Tinsley and intercepted several passes.

That champion should be up and in the running was no surprise. Winged Foot virtually is Dick's backyard. But Cree and Whiteway were considerable surprises.

Behind him and the three 71 shooters the brackets began getting crowded. Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, defending champion and favorite, found a lot of good company at par-72, including such contenders as trailer Bill Holt of Syracuse, Skip Alexander of Duke, Freddie Haas, of New Orleans and the hard-hitting veteran Ellis Knowles, who was a semifinalist in this tournament in 1936 and won the intercollegiate title for Yale in 1937.

M'COY, PATTERSON TO MEET IN MATCH HERE

Sammy Manacher To Grapple Newman In Opening Bout Here Thursday Night

Bibber McCoy, the bad man from Boston, gets a chance to redeem himself for his defeat here last week at the hands of curly Jake Patterson when he meets the boy from Syracuse in a return match at Legion stadium Thursday night.

Last week McCoy went down before the onslaughts of Patterson in one of the roughest bouts seen here in months.

Thursday night's engagement is expected to be along the same lines as the first meeting of the two, only rougher.

In the semi-finals bout Pat Newman, former navy champ, will battle Sammy Manacher, of New York, in a two out of three falls 60-minute time limit affair.

Both Newman and Manacher are well liked by fans here and both are fast and clever grapplers.
