SSGT. RICHARD G. DIXON

EMORY ELECTED COMMITTEE HEAD

H. R. Emory, executive director of the Housing Authority of the City of Wilmington, was elected chairman of the Veterans' Service Committee of the Community Council of Social Agencies at the meeting of the group at noon yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce.

Felix A. Scroggs, manager of the U. S. Employment Service, was elected first vice chairman. Other officers elected were Walter J. Cartier, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, second vice chairman and George L. Stearns, executive secretary of the Community Chest, who was elected secretary of the committee.

Emory outlined the scope of the committee at yesterday's meeting. He said that its purpose was to coordinate the actions of local agencies providing services to returning servicemen.

It was agreed by the committee that a central information office should be established, and it was decided to authorize the chairman to appoint a sub-committee to study and present a plan by which to organize the office. This committee will make recommendations as to the location of the office, the size of the staff, and the methods of finance.

Discussion took place on the various series the representatives were prepared to give. Further data on the services is to be compiled for reference.

Other members present were Fred E. Little and Tom Keith, of draft boards one and two, respectively; Lieut. S. B. Frink, of the Captain of the Port's Office of the U. S. Coast Guard; William Farmer, representing the American Legion; Mrs. J. C. Seymour, of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Emma D. Howell, of the American Red Cross; Tom Hamilton, George West, and George Willard, of the Board of Education; Mrs. Esther Emerson Sweeney, of the U. S. Travelers Aid; A. C. Nichols, city manager; and J. R. Hollis, of the Department of Public Welfare.

Body Of Zeb Fisher Remains Unrecovered

The body of Zeb V. Fisher, 29, of 320 Chestnut street, who was drowned in Masonboro inlet late Tuesday, has not been recovered. Wrightsville Beach police reported last night.

The tragedy occurred while Fisher was swimming with a party of friends.

Claude H. McCall, whose address was given as the Y. M. C. A. in Wilmington, was reported to have rescued Miss Lila May Horne, also of 320 Chestnut street, and administered artificial respiration.

Others in the party were Miss Bonnie Brawer, Miss Edith Thompson, Miss Doris Jones, and Mrs. C. V. Betchellor, all of 320 Chestnut street and Ray Warren, 307 Chestnut street.

FLOATING ROCKS

Hawaii National Park has volcanic rocks which will float on water, others which can be heated and held in the hand without injury, and some which resemble human hair.

APPREHENDED

Virginia Knox, Negro, and Herman Tyson, Negro, who escaped last week from the county farm were apprehended yesterday by sheriff's deputies and a member of the Police department, the Sheriff's department announced. The two were caught at Nixon street and McKee's alley.

RICHARD G. DIXON KILLED IN ACTION

S/Sgt. Richard G. Dixon, who was previously reported missing, was killed in action on June 4, according to a War department message received by his mother, Mrs. Cecil M. Dixon, 302 Castle St.

Sergeant Dixon, a graduate of New Hanover High school, class of 1938, was active in all athletics and was a member of the Boy's Brigade club. Before entering the service on December 20, 1942, he was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling company. He received basic training at Camp McCoy, Wis.

Sergeant Dixon was attached to the 238th Combat Engineers and received the rank of staff sergeant four months after entering the Army. He had been stationed overseas since November, 1943.

He has two brothers in the service, Aviation Cadet, Harold F. Dixon, stationed in California, and Pvt. Cecil Dixon, somewhere in France.

He is also survived by his mother, another brother, Johnnie Dixon; one sister, Mrs. W. T. Walker; and his grandmothers, Mrs. F. F. Zellars and Mrs. Callie Dixon.

FEAST WITH A PURPOSE

The American Indian of the northwest gave potatoes, or huge feasts, to make a name for himself, to pay his debts, to outrank a marriage rival, or to announce that he felt near death, and so to divide his property.

Victim Of War

One of the sidelights of World War II is the manner in which the children have endured terrible hardships and came up smiling, their spirits unimpaired. A little boy of Surbiano, Italy, puts on a winning grin as he holds the crucifix given to him for safekeeping by his refugee parents. (Int.)

Japs Fail To Give Data On Prisoners

CANBERRA, Australia, Sept. 6. (AP)—Japan has failed to send information about 2,877 Australian soldiers still in Japanese hands, Army Minister Francis E. Forde said today.

Japan, through Geneva, by capture cards and by radio, has accounted for 20,042 Australians. The others are officially listed as missing.

MANY VETERANS PLACED IN JOBS

Of the 229 World War II veterans calling on the United States Employment Service here during the month of August, 200 were referred to jobs and 175 were placed, Felix A. Scroggs, manager of the local U. S. Employment Service office, announced yesterday.

Seventy-one veterans of World War I came into the office during the month, with 47 being referred to jobs, of which number 31 were placed.

There were 7,097 personal calls to the office and 2,555 people were placed in jobs. Of this number 1,952 were referred on priority orders. The remaining 603 went to non-priority and less essential jobs.

There are 3,251 priority job openings in the office now. German war prisoners were placed in 129 non-agricultural jobs.

The figures include the activities of the outpost office in Whiteville, which was opened the first of August. This office has handled 1,479 calls, placed 554 people in jobs, and at present has 1,143 priority openings.

Discharged servicemen are not subject to stabilization or priority regulation during their first 60 days of employment. During this period they have the privilege of changing from one job to another without having to procure a release.

URNS OVER FUNDS

RALEIGH, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Monroe Redden of Hendersonville, retiring chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, has turned over $10,720.25 in party funds to his successor, William B. Umstead of Durham.

"One thing he will admit—Marlin Blades are better than theirs!"

RUPTURED?

THE NEW DOBBS TRUSS IS BULBLESS--BELTLESS--STRAPLESS

It holds like the hand. It can be worn while bathing. It does not strut the rupture. It holds with a concave pad. Reason should teach you not to place a bulb or ball in opening of rupture, thus keeping the muscles spread apart.

F. A. Vines, Truss Technician, Dobbs Truss Co., Birmingham, Ala., Will Be At The Cape Fear Hotel, Wilmington, N. C., Friday, September 8th, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and Saturday, September 9th, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Single $12.00, Double $17.00.
