

Bride-Elect Honored Guest At Shower Party

Mrs. Joseph E. Boylan, Jr., delightfully entertained her sister Miss Gwen Avery bride-elect of this month, on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Mildred Scott on South Fifth street.

Upon her arrival the honoree was presented a lovely corsage of white iris and sweetheart roses.

During the evening games were played and prizes were awarded the winners of the contests. Miss Avery was presented gifts in her chosen pattern of crystal.

The home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers of pink and white. The brides table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons, corn flowers and baby's breath. Tall white tapers in crystal candleabra completed the table arrangement. The bride's cake was cut and served by Miss Avery, assisted by Mrs. Boylan and Mrs. E. L. Avery. Punch was served from a beautiful cut glass punch bowl by Miss Mildred Scott.

About twenty five guests enjoyed Mrs. Boylan's hospitality.

MISS MARGARET HOLMES—Who before her marriage on Sunday afternoon, April 13 at St. Andrews-Covenant Presbyterian church here was Miss Margaret Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Holmes of Wilmington. Mr. Sargent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison E. Sargent of Beloit, Wis.

Miss Margaret Holmes Becomes Bride Of John E. Sargent Here

In an impressive ceremony at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in St. Andrews-Covenant Presbyterian church, Miss Margaret Ray Holmes of Wilmington became the bride of John Edward Sargent, of Beloit, Wisconsin. Dr. Eugene Witherspoon officiated at the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with the traditional white flowers and ferns. Candelabra holding white tapers lighted the wedding scene. Prior to the ceremony, Mr. Weinrich, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music. The bride entered the church to the arm of her father, William Holmes, Sr., by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a gown of white net and lace which ended in a train. The sweetheart neckline was accented with long full sleeves which ended in points over her wrists. The fingertip veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and snapdragons.

Her only attendant, Miss Barbara Rivenbark, wore a light blue net gown. Her bouquet was of bronze snapdragons and she wore a matching flower arrangement in her hair.

C. J. Holmes, Savannah, Ga., was best man and the ushers were O. T. Royal and M. D. Pye, Jr., both of Wilmington.

Mrs. Holmes, the bride's mother, wore a bronze wool suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of tallismen roses.

Mrs. Sargent, the bridegroom's mother, chose a pink and black silk print with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore a three-piece grey pin stripe suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Holmes, Sr., is a graduate of New Hanover High school and for the past three years has been employed in the Commercial Department of the Southern Bell and Telephone company, here.

The bridegroom, before entering the service was a student at the University of Wisconsin.

The couple will reside in Beloit, Wisconsin.

Recent Bride Feted At Party

Mrs. Hazel Reeder and Mrs. Leo Smith were recently joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mrs. Smith honoring Mrs. George E. Williamson, who before her marriage on April 6 was Anna Hartley, of Wilmington.

Artistic arrangements of spring flowers were used in the decoration of the living room and dining room. The dining table was covered with a beautiful white lace cloth and centered with a tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. On either end of the table were silver candle holders with tall white tapers.

Mrs. Williamson was presented a lovely corsage of pink carnations by the hostesses, after which she opened her gifts.

Ice cream, cake, and mints were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Hobson Bennett and Miss Emily Sue Smith. Mr. Prentiss Sutton cut the cake. The guests were delightfully entertained with impersonations by Miss Violet Simmons.

Guests included Misses Bessie Nixon, Rosa Lee Rogers, Lucille Hart, Frances Heidt, Mary Mauronickolas, Marie Sutton, Emily Smith, and Mary Catherine Bradshaw.

Mrs. F. A. Hartley, Mrs. R. F. Bennett, Mrs. Bruce Bradshaw, Mrs. J. E. Bradshaw, Mrs. W. E. Schnell, Mrs. Oswald Hartley, Mrs. Jerry Rivenbark, Mrs. Mattie Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Witherington, Mrs. E.
