TODAY'S VETERAN

Today's veteran is married, 27 years of age, and holds a BA degree from Wake Forest college. While a member of the armed forces, he attained the rank of first lieutenant, and was operations and training staff officer, for a battalion of field artillery. He also had experience with personnel work while in the Army.

He served overseas 18 months in Belgium, France and Germany. Prior to his entry into the Army he taught a high school class in social science for one year, at which time he also was athletic director.

He can type 40 words per minute, and is interested in personnel work. He can be contacted through the local U. S. Employment Service.

PRESSURE NEEDED IN COAL STRIKE

Government Labor Leaders Voice This Opinion After Close Survey

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(P)—Some government labor officials indicated privately Monday that they fear settlement of the soft coal work stoppage must await the development of outside pressures to drive contract negotiations to a close.

The conferences have been in recess since last Wednesday when John L. Lewis walked out. Secretary of Labor Schwelbensch indicated they are trying to get the parties to talk about the same thing at the same time.

Although the nationwide walk-out of 400,000 United Mine Workers entered its third week Monday, officials who cannot be identified said that little of its effect has been felt yet in the actual consumption products of reconstruction.

If a settlement must await the building up of pressures from a coal pinch, these officials said, it may mean the negotiations will be adrift for another week or longer.

Lewis was represented as insisting that the operators agree in principle to creation of a health and welfare fund and the operators were just as adamant in their stand that wages and hours should be determined for the new contract first.

Special Conciliator Paul W. Fuller has been consulting the operators almost daily, and Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson has been contacting Lewis. Neither reported progress.

CRAVEN HOPEFUL IN PRIMARY RACE

Six Are Candidates For Post Of Sheriff; Others Announce

NEW BERN, April 15.—Six candidates have filed for the office of sheriff of Craven county, subject to the Democratic primary May 23, to succeed the late Sheriff R. B. Lane.

The six are Frank Holton, who was named temporarily to the office upon Sheriff Lane's death, with the understanding that the primary nominee would take the office July 1; L. F. "Red" Weatherington, Charles B. Berry, Leaster Willis, Walter W. Smith and C. Bonner Calton.

Three candidates have filed for coroner—the incumbent, U. W. Daugherty, Raymond Pollock, Jr., and George Phillips of Bridgeton. Judge William J. Lansche, Jr., of recorder's court, is opposed for a second term by William M. Brown, a local blind man.

D. C. McCotter, Jr., will be certified without opposition for another term as county solicitor. L. E. Lancaster is the only candidate to succeed himself as clerk of superior court.

Burl G. Hardison will be this county's representative in the General Assembly for a second term, no opponent having filed against him.

D. L. (Libby) Ward of New Bern and R. A. Whitaker of Kinston will again represent this senatorial district in the state senate. Both had no opposition for second terms.
