BLACK MAREKTING DEALT HARD BLOW

U. S. Army Substitutes Script For Paying Italy Personnel

ROME, Saturday, Sept. 14 — (U.P.) — In a surprise move aimed at curbing military black marketers, Mediterranean and European theater headquarters of the U. S. Army early today declared a 72-hour moratorium on virtually all soldiers' financial transactions.

The moratorium was declared to permit substitution of a new currency — "military payment certificates" — in place of local currencies.

Under the moratorium, which effects all transactions except the settlement of mess accounts and payments by departing personnel and authorized transients, all military personnel will surrender local currency shown in their currency control passbooks for the new certificates. These will be issued in denominations of five, 10, 25 and 50 cents and $1, $5 and $10.

The army said the measure "dealt a severe blow" to black market operators by military personnel.

An unheralded late hour announcement over the army radio facilities was the first intimation most GI's in Italy had that their lire would henceforth be worthless in post offices, post exchanges and similar activities, all of which were closed for the moratorium.

Appeal Vote Ruling

ATLANTA, Sept. 13 — (U.P.) — The U. S. Supreme court late today was asked to declare Georgia's county unit vote system unconstitutional in appeals filed by attorneys for local voters who challenged the state's electoral system in two federal court suits.

The appeals were signed by Judge Samuel H. Sibley of the U. S. circuit court of appeals, who presided over a three judged federal court that recently upheld the unit system in a special hearing.

One of the suits attacked the system as it operates in statewide elections, and sought to enjoin state officials from certifying stormy ex-governor Eugene Talmadge as governor in January.

In the July gubernatorial primary, Talmadge was nominated on unit votes but ran second in popular votes. He is unopposed in the November general election.

The companion suit, filed by Earl P. Cook, a war veteran and Georgia Tech student, concerns only the fifth (Atlanta) congressional district, in which Rep. Helen Douglas Mankin, D. Ga., led in popular votes, but trailed Judge James C. Davis in unit votes.

The statewide suit was filed by Mrs. Robert L. Truman of Atlanta and Dr. Cullen B. Gosnell, Emory University political science professor. Their attorneys are headed by former Chief Justice Charles S. Ried of the state Supreme court.

PREDICTS LINT FAMINE

RALEIGH, Sept. 13 — (U.P.) — Cotton will sell for 45 cents a pound next year unless the top price is pegged by legislative action, M. C. Mann, general manager of the North Carolina Cotton Growers association, predicted today. Mann said a cotton "famine" was probable next year because of heavy world demand and the probability of another small crop.

However, he coupled his prediction with a warning to producers not to hold their cotton in warehouses in anticipation of higher prices and possibility of governmental action.

From July 8 to August 1, the county prisoners spent 293 man-days at work in Winter Park. In August, their total was 202 man-days.

Mass on Sunday at 10 a. m. Confessions before Mass.

WINTER PARK AND AUDUBON have been the main point of concentration for county prisoners since they completed drainage work at Carolina Beach early in July. Size of the work crews available to the county daily has varied from 18 on July 31 to ten on Aug. 27.
