

Teen-Age Tattler

By WINIFRED HARRISS

Black and orange were the colors; the Legion Stadium was the place; Saturday night was the time; and football was the reason! Yes, it was our first home game. Before the eyes of thousands of spectators who turned out for the initial encounter, the Wildcat team chalked up another win with a final score of 26-6 over Laurinburg. The boys were really on the ball out there with co-captain Jimmy Piner making the first touchdown for the home town. Irvin Gore and Bubba Sykes brought the score up to twenty points for the Wildcats. Jim Gibb had made a touchdown which made the score 20-6 and Jim Gibb made the final touchdown for the home team making the score 26-6.

The whole team will next week when the Wildcats meet Charleston there on Saturday. Our first conference game will be played against Rocky Mount in the Smokey City on October 4. The student section once more fell back into that position and led the band Saturday night.

Donald Edwards, better known as Turkey, arrived home last week from Fort McClellan, Alabama. Turkey's leave was delayed because of sickness but now that he's home, it's good to see him here. A graduate of '46 from NHHS, Turkey was commander of company A and under his captainship the company was chosen as the best of the year. Turkey will be here until October 4 when he will again go back to Fort McClellan.

The staff of the Hanoverian has already begun its year's work in getting together material for the annual. Editor-in-chief is Virginia Hatch. Virginia is an outstanding student and all of us can count on a good Hanoverian with Virginia as its head. Serving with her are Mary Reynolds, business manager; Patty Southerland and Franklin Graham, assistant business managers; Managing Editor, Jo Anne Snead with Betty Lou O'Master as assistant. Other editors are feature, Shirley Berger and Nancy Winingham as assistant; Lorraine D'Lugin, club editor and Kathryn Hunter as assistant; Sara Kay Jordan, art editor; Tommy Marable, photographic editor with Mildred Thomas as assistant. The typists are Catherine LeGwin and Alita Bryant; the junior representative, John Crowley.

BRIDE OF YESTERDAY—Mrs. Robert Albright Little, whose wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at Grace Methodist church. Mrs. Little is the former Billie Daniel Sidbury, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Buren Sidbury of Wilmington.

Miss Rorison Fetes Billie Sidbury And Her Wedding Party

Miss Margaret Rorison entertained Monday in honor of Miss Billie Sidbury and Robert Little, whose wedding took place later in the afternoon at Grace church, with a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. The Rorison home at Oleander was decorated with white dahlias and tube roses. In the dining room the long satin ribbon decorations suggested a brides train at the end of which burning candles in old silver bracket candle sticks.

Enjoying Miss Rorison's hospitality were the guests of honor, Miss Billie Sidbury and Robert Little, and members of the wedding party, Miss Bibbs Holmes, Dr. Rowena Sidbury Hall of Raleigh, Miss Emma Trask, Walker Taylor, III, James F. Robertson, Jr., James Buren Sidbury, James Irving Corbett, Jr., Dr. James Buren Sidbury and Mrs. Sidbury, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Little.

Little-Sidbury Wedding Vows Spoken Yesterday Afternoon

The wedding of Miss Billie Daniel Sidbury, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Buren Sidbury, of Wilmington, and Robert Albright Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Little, also of Wilmington, took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in a ceremony solemnized at Grace Methodist church.

The Rev. J. A. Russell, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony which was witnessed by a large gathering of society. The vows were spoken before a background of smilax, palms, ferns and center arrangement of white chrysanthemums and burning candles.

Miss Agnes Chasten, organist, presented a program of wedding music. Dr. Rowena Sidbury Hall of Raleigh, the bride's sister, attended her as matron-of-honor. She wore a gown of white jersey fashioned with extremely full skirt and draped neckline. She carried an arm bouquet of red carnations in the center of which was a cluster of tiny white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Misses Margaret Rorison, Gibbs Holmes, Emma Trask and Juliette Robertson wore identical gowns made on the same lines as that of the matron-of-honor and their bouquets were of red carnations tied with matching satin ribbon.

Fred E. Little, father of the bridegroom, attended his son as best man. Groomsman were James I. Corbett, Jr., Walker Taylor, III, James F. Robertson, Jr., and James Buren Sidbury, Jr., brother of the bride.

Miss Sidbury entered the church with her father by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin neckline outlined with a bertha of mother and sister at their weddings. The skirt was full and formed a court train over which her veil of Princes lace fell gracefully from a coronet caught across the back with a band of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book, used by her mother and sister at their weddings.

Symphony Society Names Field Representative For Membership

CHAPEL HILL, Sept. 23.—Two field representatives of the North Carolina Symphony Society who will direct the renewal membership campaign now being conducted in various sections of the state have just been appointed by the society. It was announced here today by Dr. Benjamin F. Swalin, Director of the State Symphony Orchestra.

They are Albin Pikutis, former secretary-treasurer of the Symphony society and a graduate of the university, and Charles Newcomb of the Farmers' federation in Asheville.

Mr. Pikutis will serve as field representative in the eastern part

ARE YOU JUST A PLAYTHING OF NATURE

Nature may endow you with breathtaking beauty, a lovely curvaceous figure. She may bestow gifts on you that make you a brilliant actress, a leader in your class at college, sought after at dances, or a charming wife and mother.

Yes, Nature may do all this. And yet you may find your face mockingly slapped if you suffer these distressing symptoms, which so many unfortunate girls and women do.

Something You Should Not Joke About!

So if female functional monthly disturbances are causing you to suffer from pain, nervous distress and feel weak, restless, so cranky and irritable that you almost turn into a "she-devil" on such days—THIS IS SOMETHING YOU SHOULDN'T JOKE ABOUT. Start right away—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. It's famous for this purpose. And don't
