Wideman-Evans Vows Spoken At Cooleeme

DILLON, S. C., Nov. 12.—"Cooleeme," the plantation home of Mrs. Thomas Leaholme Manning and Mr. and Mrs. Jamie McQueen at Dillon, S. C. was the scene of a candlelight ceremony at 5:30 Saturday afternoon, when the marriage of Miss Lillian Heyward Evans of Raleigh, and Dr. James Warren Wideman, Jr., of Manning, S. C., was solemnized with the Rev. Andrew C. Aston of Latta, S. C. officiating.

A program of nuptial music preceded the wedding with Mrs. B. S. Tillinghast, pianist and Mrs. W. J. Baxley soloist.

Gladioli and greenery were used throughout the home which was effectively lighted by candles. The ceremony was performed before an improvised chancel arranged in front of a large pier mirror and decorated with fragrant long leaf pine, palms, white gladioli and branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a lovely suit of atmosphere gray with brown accessories and carried a white prayer book topped with white orchids and spray of tube-roses.

Miss Betty Evans, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a geranium red suit and carried gold and bronze dahlias.

The bridegroom's father, James Warren Wideman, of Manning, S. C., was best man. The mother of the bride wore a caramel suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow sweetheart roses. The day.

mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Following the wedding ceremony the guests, who were members of the two families and a few intimate friends, were entertained in the dining room. After the reception the young couple left for a wedding trip to the mountains. Upon their return they will make their home in Florence, S. C.

Mrs. Wideman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hasell Evans of Raleigh, North Carolina, and niece of Mrs. Manning. She attended New Hanover High school, Wilmington, N. C., and St. Mary's school and Junior college, Raleigh.

Dr. Wideman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Warren Wideman, Sr., of Manning, S. C., and received his education at Erskine college, Due West, S. C., and the University of South Carolina, Columbia, S. C., and the Medical College of the State of South Carolina, Charleston. Dr. Wideman also spent three years in the Naval Training program—V 12 and at the present time is affiliated with McLeod Infirmary, Florence, S. C.

Wilmingtonians On Radio Show In New York City

Mr. and Mrs. Percy West, 213 Brookwood Ave., attended ABC's "Betty Crocker Magazine of the Air" Monday, Nov. 10, while vacationing in New York.

Selected from the studio audience to participate in a kitchen quiz, "Mr. West's correct answers entitled him to an autographed copy of "A Fistful of Stars" which was presented to him by the book's authoress, Mrs. Sarah Lockwood, the program's guest attraction that day.

St. Mary's Club Hears Reports Plans Project

St. Mary's Mothers and Teachers club met at the school recently, at which time a report was made on the recent cake sale and plans were presented for a rummage sale to be held Saturday, November 22.

The sale will be under the supervision of Mrs. A. S. Simon, Mrs. H. W. Hoelscher, Mrs. M. S. Neblett, Mrs. J. Strahler, and Mrs. E. A. Boado.

Mr. J. M. Meditz, president, presided, and Father Roche, club advisor opened the meeting with a prayer.

Votes were cast in favor of presenting a plaque to the school at the end of the year. It will be permanently displayed in the school hall and it will bear the names of the outstanding students of this year and the years following.

It was voted to have a "Fathers' Night" meeting in December. Refreshments will be prepared by Mrs. Angelo Narcisco, Mrs. T. G. Everett, Mrs. A. S. Klein and Mrs. E. S. Wenburg.

Members knowing of any illness among club members were requested to contact Mrs. Lewis Stein, who is in charge of sending condolences.

It was announced that a special movie would be shown at the Carolina theatre Saturday, Nov. 29, as an award to students for punctual attendance and adequate lesson preparation.

Members chose the papers of fifth graders Buddy Raymond, Joe Haymore, and Joyce Bryant as being the best displayed from that grade. The attendance award went to the 5th and 6th grades. Mrs. J. M. Meditz and Mrs. M. S. Farrelly served refreshments at the close of the meeting.
