Green Bay Packers Halfback Howie Williams Tapped For Honor Society At Howard U.

Eight Other Students Elected To Engineering Group; Badge Presented To Honor Coed

Washington, D. C. — Green Bay Packers halfback Howie Williams was among nine Howard University students inducted last week into Tau Beta Pi, the nation's foremost honor society in engineering. An electrical engineering student majoring in electronics, Williams will be graduated in June.

Other inductees included five seniors and three juniors. In addition the Tau Beta Pi Badge of Honor was presented to a coed, who, because of her sex, is ineligible for membership in the society.

Williams is a 26-year-old native of Spartanburg, S. C. who made the championship Green Bay team as a rookie last year after completing his college athletic eligibility at Howard in 1961. A veteran of four years in the U. S. Air Force before enrolling at Howard, Williams has had some dozen job offers from major industrial and research corporations throughout the country. He is expected to turn them down for the present, however, and report to the Packers for pre-season drills in July.

Williams lives with his wife, the former Toyoko Oda of Yanaguchi, Japan, and 16-month old son at 1325 Rittenhouse St., northwest.

Other seniors inducted into the Howard chapter of Tau Beta Pi include Adish K. Jain, mechanical engineering, son of Janeshwar D. Jain of New Delhi, India; Albion A. Potter, mechanical engineering, son of Mr. Leonard S. Potter, San Nicholas Aruba, Netherlands Antilles; Inder J. Sethi, mechanical engineering, son of Mr. Parma H. Titus of Wakefield, Jamaica, W. I.

Juniors inducted into the honor society are Harold Mack, Jr., electrical engineering, son of Mr. Harold Mack, Sr., 382 Angier Ave., Atlanta, Ga.; Roy B. Palmer, civil engineering, son of Mr. Lewis R. Palmer, 10 Deanery Dr., Kingston, Jamaica, W. I.; and Charles B. Watkins, Jr.,

Boys Baseball Needs Your Help

The Negro youth of Jackson are underprivileged in many respects. There is fine talent among the youngsters, but hundreds of them never have a chance to develop this talent.

Realizing this fact, the Boy's Baseball Association was organized in 1959 and has continued throughout the years to work toward giving every boy a chance to play and compete against each other to develop his talents as best he can. And help combat juvenile delinquency through a healthy physical outlet.

The program is set up so as to take in the vacuum that is created in his life when school is out for summer vacation.

The cost of equipment is high; Their funds are low, therefore, we earnestly beg for your support in helping to build better men of our boys through the Boys Baseball Association.

You may sponsor a team as low as $125.00 a year, or an individual player. Your business name will be displayed on the back of each uniform. The cost is small and the amount is tax-deductible on income-tax returns.

Small contributions will also be of great help. You don't have to be in business to contribute. Any donations you make will be gratefully accepted.

Won't you please let them hear from you soon. You may write to Curtis Cowards c/o mechanical engineering, son of Mrs. Haseltine T. Watkins, 2800 Centre Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Miss Irene E. White, a senior majoring in electrical engineering, was given the society's Badge of Honor. She is the daughter of Mrs. Almer W. Williams, Rt. 1, Box 149, Brookneal, Va.

The Howard chapter of Tau Beta Pi was established in 1956. Total national membership of the honor society is nearly 100,000, with chapters in leading engineering schools throughout America. The society was founded in 1885 at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa.

THE BOYS BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

The Boys Baseball Association is a non-profit tax exempt organization, formerly operated by the Cavalier Club; but later abandoned. The Boys Baseball Association was founded by Curtis Coward in 1955. Most of the uniforms and equipment used by the Boys Baseball Association is in fair condition with a little mending. We have been fortunate in securing equipment of this sort given to the boys by the Servian Club of Jackson. We are very grateful to you that helped acquire three new set of uniform since 1959.

We have several yearly donors, who donate each year. Most of our contributions come from organizations, contests and hand-outs. Our apparent handicapped is getting devoted civic-minded men and women to help carry on this program each year. Since 1959 we have kept more than 1200 boys busy during the summer months. Our intentions is to have 18 baseball teams in 1963.

Age for qualification in the following teams: Little League 9-12, Babe Ruth 13-15, The Pony (Protect Our Nation's Youth) League was organized in Washington, Pennsylvania and is composed of boys in the 13-14 age group.

Grambling Man Mainstay Of Pan-American U. S. Team

Sau Paulo, Brazil (Special) — One of the mainstays of the U. S. basketball team participating in the Pan-American games is big Willis Reed, a 6-10 235-pound giant labeled "the most underrated player on the American squad."

Reed is a junior from Grambling College, a perennial small-college basketball power.

Pan-American game observers claim that he has the poise and confidence of a professional star and supposedly is yet to reach his peak.

He and 6-9 Lucious Jackson of Pan American College, Edinburg, Texas are the biggest members of the U. S. team.

Last season Reed scored 699 points and grabbed 563 rebounds to garner spots on the Associated Press, United Press International and NAIA All-American teams, and starred in the Pan-American trials.

Reed is making his second visit to Sau Paulo.

Last summer he was one of 14 U. S. cagers who made a six-week goodwill tour of Latin America for the Department of State.

Seven players from Grambling and an equal number from Westminster College (Pa.) visited nine Central and South American countries on the tour.

Grambling Moves Back Into Basketball Lead

By Collie J. Nicholson
Grambling, La. (Special) —

The Grambling Tigers have made it abundantly clear that they still have the competitive spark that won Southwestern Conference titles in '61 and '62. The talented Tigers moved back into first place in the SW-AC race Saturday and will likely remain in the familiar spot, despite anguished bleats from Southern University and Jackson State.

Jackson led the league briefly last week before suffering a severe case of tanglefoot in a series with Grambling. The Big Blues were embarrassed and completely deflated by the defending champions.

President - Coach R. W. E. Jones will be the last to admit it, but his team played smart, gutsy baseball in the Jackson series and used an admirable blend of tenacity and skill to
