MURDER MOST FOUL.

JOHN LECKIE IS KILLED BY SOME UNKNOWN PERSON—A TERRIBLE DEED.

On Saturday night last what is regarded as the most foul and cowardly murder that has ever occurred in Rapides Parish, the victim being a young man born and raised in Alexandria, and at the time of his death was doing a mercantile business just at the edge of the corporation line, on the Bayou Robert road.

The store house in which Mr. John Leckie, the victim, was doing business is situated on the right hand side of the road going from town, and in dimensions will measure about 15x35 feet. There are two rooms in the building, the largest one being used as the store and the smaller one as a sleeping apartment. In the small room, on the right hand side, is a window opening in a cotton field, and between the cotton field and the store is a fence.

Reports have it that Leckie had closed his store early and had retired. At 9:30 o'clock that night a negro man passed by and hearing Leckie groaning reported the same to Mr. John Grogan, a relation of Mr. Leckie by marriage and also his nearest neighbor. The deceased was in the habit of doing this when asleep, and Mr. Grogan thinking that nothing unusual was the matter paid no attention thereto.

Nothing further was heard in the matter until Sunday morning. A boy had gone to Mr. Hastings, who has a store near Leckie's, and inquired for ginger cake; Mr. Hastings having none referred the boy to Leckie's, to which place he went, and after calling and receiving no answer at the front door went to the window, which was open, and looked in, and saw Leckie lying in the position described below. The boy at once reported back to Mr. Hastings, and the latter, as soon as Mr. Geo. Kelse and another gentleman came along, went over to the store and saw Leckie lying dead on the bed.

Thus the discovery of this damnable deed was made, and the crime unearthed, and soon the news spread like wild fire over the Town.

All sorts of rumors were rife; different theories were advanced, and hardly one person agreed with the other.

Coroner John Casson was at once summoned, and soon an autopsy was held, and a jury on inquest, composed of Messrs. A. Jarreau, Alphonse David, H. M. Haie, Louis Girard, and John Laney, were impaneled.

Their verdict was "that the deceased came to his death from the effect of wounds inflicted in the head by means of a bar of iron or other metallic body, breaking the skull in two places—by the hands of some unknown person."

The wounds were two—one over the orbital ridge of the right eye, both tables of the skull fractured over a space of one inch; the other wound at the base of the skull just above the right ear, about 2 by 3 inches, both tables broken, no cut in scalp at this point.

Leckie's body had apparently been carried from the window, mentioned in a preceding paragraph of this article; the window had evidently been forced open. Here it is supposed that deceased was dealt the blow which summoned him to his maker. Close by the window, and from there to the bed, bloodstains were visible; a towel and a handkerchief were found on the floor both of which had blood on them; whether Leckie used them or the party who did the killing is not known. His body was lying on the bed, his legs hanging over the sides of it, and the arms were folded over the abdomen. The right hand breeches pocket was inverted; at the foot of the bed, covered by the bed clothes, was found money to the amount of $29.25, where it is supposed deceased had placed it for security. A straw hat, mashed in, was also near by.

The natural supposition is that the deceased had not gone to bed—that he was assaulted early in the night; how long he lingered is unknown; at the time of the inquest his body was yet warm.

Touche Jenkins, a colored man, had been at the store all that evening, until dark, and he it was who was suspected, and was arrested and lodged in jail. Jenkins' shoe fit in the tracks by the window; he also had blood stains on the front of his shirt. Jenkins denies that he is guilty.

Leckie was a man of family, having a wife and children. He has always borne a good reputation, and that he should be so foully dealt with, in such barbarous style, is a surprise to this community.

We learn that strenuous efforts are being made to trace the crime, and the guilty party or parties brought to justice. This people express themselves plain in this killing, and denounce it in most severe terms.

—We are still paying the highest market prices for cotton, cash down, and selling goods cheaper than ever. Bauer & Weil.

—Our new stock of Watches are now in. We have the following Railroad Watches: The Rockford, Wal-tham, Elgin, Columbus, and other movements, in gold and silver cases, at Ferguson & Schnack's, Jewelers.

The Nicholls Barbecue and Speaking.

Monday was Gen. Nicholls' day in Alexandria, so to speak. He met his appointment here that day and spoke to a crowd of about 1000—of whom 400 were ladies.

The speaking and barbecue took place in the town square, where everything had been previously prepared. Hon. Robert P. Hunter acted as chairman, and Messrs. E. H. McCormick and A. P. Williams as secretaries. Thirty vice-presidents were appointed.

The speakers were G. L. Hall, Fred D. King, Hon. M. Ryan, Robt. N. Ogden and Gen. Nicholls. All five made good addresses and were attentively listened to. The effort of Col. Ogden was a masterly piece of oratory. On account of not feeling well Gen. Nicholls spoke but a few moments. The points touched and harped on by the different speakers were principally the third term and personal government.

At the close of the speaking the committee on resolutions reported. By the same the Nicholls men denounce the action of the Sixth Congressional convention; think the third term contrary to the doctrines of democracy, and align themselves squarely against the present administration.

Everything passed off quietly and well—not the slightest disturbance occurring.

Gen. Nicholls and party left yesterday morning for Natchitoches, where they speak to-day.

—SHOES in abundance at Bauer & Weil's, and of all grades. Our $1.00 pair sewed shoes for ladies cannot be beat and our 95 cents brogan is unexcelled for the money.

A NEW RAILROAD.—It is announced from Little Rock that a new railroad is about to be constructed and cross the border of Louisiana. It is proposed to unite Monroe, La., with Pine Bluff, Ark., and the road is to be called the Pine Bluff, Ark., and the road is to be called the Pine Bluff, Monroe and Texas railroad. The route is now being surveyed. Passing through a rich agricultural and well timbered section of country, it will be a most welcome factor of prosperity in the southern counties of Arkansas and the northern parishes of Louisiana. It will form a part of a central iron band to girdle the State, and at Monroe will meet the road to be built from Alexandria up. These gaps filled, and all rail connection between Pine Bluff and New Orleans on the west side of the Mississippi will be secured. It is said that the necessary capital has been obtained, and the advantages of the road are so numerous that local aid will no doubt be extended freely for the entire route. The railroad campaign in North Louisiana is the most hopeful indication for the future of that section, and promises a rapid development of its mineral and agricultural resources.—[New Orleans Chronicle.

—GENTS' underwear in suits at Bauer & Weil's.

A Strong Recommendation.

Mr. D. C. Hooks, Walnut Grove, Miss., writes: "I have been using Hughes' Tonic for some time past for chills and fever, and unhesitatingly say it is the best remedy I have ever used. I could name a number of others who have been benefited by taking this Tonic."

Prepared by R. A. Robinson & Co., Wholesale Druggists, Louisville, Ky. Sold at retail by Druggists generally.

—Sewing Machine Headquarters.—We sell The White, N. Y. Singer, New Home, Domestic, Eldridge, Wheeler & Wilson No. 8 Machines. Ferguson & Schnack, Jewelers.

Lost.—A purse containing coins, currency, and a promissory note drawn by Dr. C. J. Ducote in favor of Felix Bauer for the sum of $244.00. A liberal reward will be paid anyone returning the purse and contents to the office of Bauer & Weil. The public are cautioned against negotiating said note, payment having been stopped. FELIX BAUER.

—THE Marksville band should learn to play "Rock Me Julia." It would sound nice at a barbecue.

—AND now comes "Cheap John" (Joseph Levin) to the front with the best and most complete assortment of gents' clothing and furnishing goods ever brought to this market.

—THE expression of sentiment on the part of the people hereabouts, in favor of the nomination of D. T. Stafford, is daily growing more and more. On Monday we talked with people from all sections of the parish, and they each and everyone said he was a favorite. With such chances we do not see how he can prove a loser in the present race. Mr. Stafford is very thankful for the support of his people throughout the Parish, and when he is installed in the Sheriff's office will not be backward in his duty, but will make an officer of whom the entire parish will be proud.

—THE Farmers' and Planters' Club had no meeting on Saturday last for the reason that no quorum was present. The next meeting takes place on the 1st Saturday in November.

—UP to Saturday there had been shipped from this point 2222 bales of cotton, 1700 by the Morgan and 522 by the T. & P. road.

—The next thing in order is the formation of a McEnery club in every ward in the Parish. The move is a popular one.

—CONNECTED with the Irving House is a first-class sample room for drummers.

—How about the enthusiasm at the Nicholls meeting on Monday.

Liver Complaint

Is more surely and speedily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, than by any other remedy. "I was a great sufferer from liver troubles, and never found anything that gave me permanent relief until I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, about two years ago. A few bottles of this medicine produced a radical cure."—Wm. E. Baker, 135 W. Brookline st., Boston, Mass.

A Remarkable Cure.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured me of a case of Abscess of the Liver as any human being could be afflicted with and live. I was confined to the house for two years, and for the last three months of that time, was unable to leave my bed. Four physicians treated me without giving relief, and, in fact, nothing helped me, until I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using a quarter of a bottle of this medicine I began to feel better, and every additional dose seemed to bring new health and strength. I used three bottles, and am now able to attend to my business. I walk to town—one mile distant—and return, without difficulty. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has accomplished all this for me. —W. S. Miner, Carson City, Mich.
