HARRY'S HORSE.

The baby lies in its mother's arms, Quiet, and pale, and thin ; But the little head is once more raised As Harry comes bounding in.

A wooden horse in his hand he holds, Dark gray with a long black mane And an eager, longing look lights up The pale little face again. "No kaby dear, I will hold it close,

But I cannot give it to you; I'm afraid you would let it fall, and break My horse, so pretty and new.'

But the pale little eager face still pleads, Outstretched is the small hand still; He stands for a moment, then holds it out, "I'll lend it to baby, I will " That day is past, and he finds it again

Where the baby had thrown it aside; Her coral red, with its silver bells, Still fast to the bridle tied. There's a touch of paint off the bright green stick; And a chip off the horse's ear;

But, Oh ! not that to the boy's blue eye Brings the quickly gathering tear. And while Harry lives he will still be glad That he lent her his horse that day For the Baby has gone where never again Can she ask with his toys to play. -Harper's Bazar.

REMOVE THE TAXES.

The solution of the financial problem is simple. It is expressed in the single word Retrenchment.

Disband the Army. Reduce the Navy to a peace footing.

Cut down the Civil Expenses of Government. Then Repeal the Taxes. Abolish the Income Tax, which grinds five percent off the interest of every city, corporation or railroad bond, whether the holders be poor or rich. Abolish the licenses to merchants, hotel and restaurant keepers and professional men. Abolish all taxes, except excises on liquors and tobacco, and if necessary, stamps

The Manufacturers clamored for the repeal of their taxes, and Congress removed them. Now let the People clamor for the repeal of their taxes, and require Congress to remove them. If Congress refuses, the people should apply the proper remedy and remove Congress .- Lancaster Intelligencer.

SOMETHING FOR THE SICK .- Dr. Keyser says: "Frequenfly we find sick people whose stomachs reject all kinds of nourishment until conditions follow ment prescribed and rejected by an never known the simple saucer of parched corn pudding or bowl of gruel refused. The corn is roasted brown, precisely as we roast coffee, ground as baked brown, and given either warm or cold, clear or with whatever dressing the stomach will receive or retain. Parched corn and meal boiled in skimmed milk, and fed frequently to children suffering from summer diarrhœa, will almost always cure as it will dys-

How THEY RETRENCH .- The other day a couple of Mongrels attempted to get into the Tennessee Legislature, and were beaten by some eight thousand votes. The people did not want them -the Mongrel Legislature did; although the Committee on elections reported unanimously against the right of the the result? The "loil" majority in the Legislature boldly robbed the State treasury of five thousand dollars, giving the sum to the two beaten candidates, as a solace for the loss of their seats in that body. This is a specimen of the legislation, not only in all the Mongrelized States, but in Washington year after year .- Day Book.

REMARKABLE FREAK OF NATURE. -The Salem (Ind.) Times says that Abner Fields, of Howard township, in Washington county had a cow which the size of ordinary twin calves, the the remaining twenty-five about the size of an ordinary rat. They are all statement above is from Mr. Fields person in the world. This is the most singular freak of nature, of the kind, of which we have ever heard.

COUGH CURE.-One who has tested viating the barking which afflicts our community, advises them to roast a ounces of sugar, finely powdered .greeable to the taste. Rarely has it

An Irishman a short time in this country, was eating boiled green corn.
