The Herald of Freedom.

LAWRENCE, K. T.

Saturday Morning, June 4, 1859.

The Jay-Hawker.

The concluding chapter of this tale is given in the present number. The author is revising it for publication in book form, and will embody incidents which would properly have been in place in the last chapter, but which were purposely withheld. The tale has been written in haste, but three weeks elapsing between its first conception and the date of its completion.

The author is now collecting material for another serial, which will embody every incident of historical importance from the first Missouri invasion in 1854, up to the present time, exposing the secrets of the Blue Lodge, and the secret springs and modes of action by which the rights of the freemen of Kansas were perilled, as well as the occurrences taking place on the soil of Kansas—in fine, the lights and shades of actual life in the Territory, throughout all its troubles, will be presented, in a manner and style which will interest and fascinate the reader.—Those Pro-slavery men who have laughed at the exposure of the Jay-Hawking fraternity, will find the tables turned on them, and the laugh on the other side.—Justice will be done to the heroism of the slaveocracy. Weaving in every notable public incident with the details of private life, Mr. FOWLER's new serial will be attractive and entertaining, and add to his present reputation as an able writer.

"Pure" Democratic Doctrines.

The Democracy of Wayne township, Doniphan county, met at Doniphan city on the 14th of May, and endorsed the Dred Scot decision, and

Resolved, That Territorial Legislatures have no power to prohibit, abolish, or in any manner interfere with the rights of holding slaves as property in the Territories of the United States."

Also, instructing their delegates, if elected, to insert in the Constitution "a clause protecting the rights of individuals to all property acquired under the Territorial organization"—that is, to protect and perpetuate slaveholding! The people of a Territory have the right of moulding their institutions in their own way, accorded to them, subject only to the will of slaveholders!

Grand Masonic Festival.

We learn that the anniversary of St. John's day will be celebrated at this place on the 24th of June, by the Masonic fraternity of Kansas and Missouri, under the auspices of Lawrence Lodge, No. 6. Several distinguished Masonic orators have been invited, and are expected to deliver addresses on that occasion.

The order of exercises will be Procession, Oration and Dinner; to conclude with a Grand Masonic Ball at the Eldridge House in the evening. Tickets to dinner and ball $3 50, to be had at Brooks' boot and shoe store, and of the Committee of Arrangements, T. S. Lownds, James Christian, P. R. Brooks, J. E. Fleischman and O. W. McAllaster.

This Festival, under the management of its spirited directors, will be an occasion of marked interest, and contribute to the welfare and increase of this noble Order.

Democratic Proscription of Foreigners.

The "National" Democratic press of the Territory have no end of complaining as to the intolerance of the Republican State of Massachusetts, in regard to the "two years residence" law. The action of Massachusetts, they saddle upon the Republicans everywhere, as a part of their platform.

"Sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander." Three years ago, South Carolina, whose Democracy is above suspicion and question, adopted a law in reference to the naturalization of foreigners, precisely similar to that of Massachusetts—in fact, the law of the latter is almost a literal copy of the South Carolina odious enactment. "Restricting the privileges of foreigners" is, then, a Democratic doctrine, a "national" one.

Fatal Affray at Marysville, K. T.

William Murray, from Hardin county, Iowa, and C. C. Stanley, of Virginia, attempted to cross the ferry of the Big Blue at that place, on the 21st of May, for a less amount than the regular prices. They drove their teams upon the ferry boat, and crossed over, when they were met by U. D. Williams and a Frenchman, named Valetore, who demanded the price of ferriage. They refused to pay it, when Williams and Valetore fired their revolvers, resulting in the death of Murray and Stanley. Valetore and Williams have fled.

Ice Cream.

Raymond & Tuttle, opposite the Eldridge House, served up to the public the first Ice Cream for the season, last Tuesday afternoon. The H. of F. office was not forgotten. We found their Saloon gratefully cool, and tastefully fitted up, and the Ice Cream delicious. Such excellent caterers to the public taste will not fail of success.

Foreign News.

No battle has yet been fought between France and Austria; but the French anticipate a conflict soon, and a victory.—Rumors of a Hungarian insurrection are current. The Germanic States intend to maintain the balance of power in Europe and stand up for the integrity and security of the national interests of Germany.

Gone Over.

The Leavenworth Ledger, after due deliberation, has come to the conclusion that the Republican is the strong party in the present contest, and pledges its support to its nominees. It supports them, "not as Republicans, but as good men, nearer right than their opponents, and a great deal more to be trusted."

Good Templars.

The Smaritan Lodge of I O. G. T., was recently organized at Wyandott City, comprising some of its best citizens.

The Silver Lake.

It is for the interest of the business men of Lawrence to secure regular steamboat communication with Kansas City and Wyandott. They should encourage, by every means in their power, those boats which propose to remain permanently in the Kansas river trade, rather than those which are transient, ready to quit when trips are not paying.

The Silver Lake has strong claims on the business men of this place. It proposes to remain on the river through the summer, making two trips a week, running only between Kansas City, Wyandott and this place. Its freight tariff is 25 cents per 100 lbs. It will make regular trips, though it have but six tons of freight at a trip. The business men of Wyandott and Kansas City, we understand, are pledged to give their exclusive business to this boat, and the merchants of this place should copy their example, and order their goods consigned to Kansas City, care of the Silver Lake. By such inducements, they can secure low freight tariffs, and permanent navigation on the Kansas river.

Delegate Nominations.

The Republicans of Leavenworth Co. have nominated, for delegates to the Constitutional Convention, M. J. Parrott, Thos. Ewing, Jr., Wm. Engleman, Roger F. Kelly, Josiah Kellog, of Leavenworth City; Geo. Dickenson, of Alexandria; B. W. Williams, of Stranger; John E. Gould, of Kickapoo; Chas. S. Foster, of Easton; G. W. Gardner, of Delaware.

The Republicans of Doniphan Co. have nominated A. E. Lee, of Elwood; F. Grube, of Geary City; C. Fleming, of Columbus; V. D. Markham, of White Cloud; Robert J. Porter, of Troy.

The Democrats have nominated, in the same county, John Stairwalt, of Palermo; John W. Forman, of Doniphan; E. M. Hubbard, of Highland; —. Lewis, of Wolf River; Benj. Wrigley, of Troy.

The Republicans of Atchison county have nominated, for delegates to the Constitutional Convention, Robert Graham, John J. Ingalls and Caleb May.

New Millinery.

Mrs. Whitney, No. 30 Massachusetts street, has just received a large and finely-selected stock of bonnets, flowers, trimmings, and every description of millinery goods. However capricious the tastes of ladies, as to quality of material, or artistic arrangement, we feel assured that they will be suited. Mrs. Whitney is never behind the fashions, and has that qualification which is so necessary for success—that of knowing just what variations in style, form of trimmings, or combinations of colors will harmonize best with the complexion and form of her customers. Her flowers are, as Bryant says of the prairie flowers, "surpassingly beautiful."

Of course, we cannot begin to enumerate the articles she has for sale. Our curious readers are referred to her card, and those who wish to purchase, advised to call on her and see for themselves.

More Gold.

We find in the Leavenworth Ledger of May 26th, further news from the mines. Mr. Williams, Asst. Superintendent of Jones & Russell's Express, reports activity in the mountain diggings and confident expectations as to success. Fine specimens of quartz rock had been brought from the mountains, and dust and shot gold were daily exchanged at Denver City and Auraria for provisions. If he had had coin, he could have purchased thousands of dollars of dust and shot gold.

Mr. Williams met 8,000 persons on the central route bound for the mines, who were progressing finely.

A Miss Way and Prof. Wilson in attempting an aerial voyage from New Orleans to Jackson, Miss., had their progress checked by the anchor of the balloon being caught in a tree. Miss Way let herself down by a rope, and going to the nearest house, found that they were in Pike county, 150 miles from New Orleans. The balloon was uninjured.

The Colona.

This side-wheel steamer, built at Pittsburgh, and fitted up for the Kansas river trade, claims a fair share of the business of the river towns. Our readers are referred to our advertising columns for further information in reference to her trips.

What the Clergy think of Each Other.

The editors of the New York Observer are ministers, so is Rev. Antoinette Blackwell. Yet the former, with an irreverence smacking of the fish market, styles the latter a "crowing hen," for her participation in the Woman's Right's Convention in New York.

Legislative Journals.

Persons who have received or may receive copies of the House or Council Journals, can exchange them, if returned to the HERALD OF FREEDOM office in good order, for bound copies, by paying the cost of binding.

☞ J. M. Arthur, of Centerville, and Josiah Lamb, of Potosi, have been nominated as Republican candidates for delegates to the Constitutional Convention, from Linn County.

☞ Jones & Russell's Express Coaches, which left Leavenworth last Monday, took out two thousand one hundred and fifty-six letters for the gold region.

Blank Shipping Bills.

Just printed at this office, a quantity of blank shipping bills, for sale by the dozen or the hundred.

The Gas. Line.

This steamer arrived Friday night last, from Kansas City, having 20 passengers and 220 tons of freight on board.

☞ Davis and Crosby's American and French Circus will exhibit at this place on Monday, the 13th of June.

☞ Mr. Bishop, of Conn., has entered upon his duties as Commissioner of Patents.

☞ Marcus J. Parrott is stamping Doniphan county this week.

The Lawrence Post Office.

"Justice" takes exception to the petition in reference to the removal of the Post Office. He presents the case in such an aspect that there is but little need of our adding a word in favor of the present convenient and central location. When the office was removed from its former location, to the neighborhood of the Commercial House, instead of going one square northward, we were compelled to go a square southward, and did not relish the change. For ourself, and for the public generally, we can say there is no valid objection to the present location of the office, or its management.

☞ The Hannibal and St. Joseph Rail Road company, has purchased the steamer Platte Valley to connect Leavenworth with St. Joseph, taking the place of the Sallie West, and it will make daily trips each way.

☞ The Cabinet at Washington held an extraordinary session on the 24th ult., acting on dispatches to our foreign ministers, setting forth the neutral position of the United States in view of the European hostilities.

☞ The Leavenworth Ledger will be issued on next Monday in an enlarged form and a new typographical dress.
