SANE, LEVEL HEADED CITIZEN

Magazine Writer on Describes Frank B. Brandegee, a Charter Oak Senator—Has Broad View on Public Questions—Has Confidence of Colleagues of Both Parties.

In the September issue of the New York State Journal, which is published weekly, there appears an article by Willard W. Huebner, a sociologist of New York University, entitled "A Study of the Personality of a Senator who Has Been in the Legislature for Thirty Years, Frank B. Brandegee, of Saranac Lake.

The title suggests that Mr. Ford of Michigan's "Human Personality Studies" have been followed in the State of New York. Mr. Huebner has written on New York's 'Senses of the Reactionary.'

Mr. Brandegee is one of the old-time members of the Legislature of New York, having first served in the Senate in 1880, and later in the Assembly in 1881, and again in the Senate in 1884 and 1886. He has been a member of the Senate since 1886, and has been a member of the House of Representatives since 1896.

Mr. Brandegee is a man of wide experience in public affairs, and has been a leader in the legislature for many years. He is one of the ablest and most influential men in the state, and is respected by all who know him.

The article describes Mr. Brande-gee's views upon the current issues of the day, and his opinions are given with great force and persuasion. He is a man of great judgment, and his views are based upon a thorough knowledge of the subject under discussion.

Mr. Brandegee is a man of high character, and is respected by all who know him. He is a man who has always done his best for his constituents, and has been an active and efficient member of the legislature. He is a man who is worthy of the confidence of all who know him.

The article is well written, and is a valuable contribution to the literature of political science.

Why Endure Pimples

Do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little that it is almost criminal not to use them.
