NINE MONTHS AND COSTS. Given Three Men in Town Court—All Appeal and Are Jailed in Default of Bonds.

Attendants at the session of the town court, Judge Harry E. Back presiding, were considerably entertained, if not more so Tuesday morning, when three of the night blooming species of the genus homo, were arraigned to answer to charges of having been intoxicated, camping on private property and committing a breach of the peace. Timothy Connor, Patrick Kelley and Thomas Casey were the men. At 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, Night Officer John Gaudin and Officer Thomas Marlow were summoned to take the trio away from the lawn on the Adams property on Maple street, where they were brawling in a manner that kept the whole neighborhood awake.

The men willingly pleaded guilty to having been intoxicated, but bucked on pleading guilty to the other charges so it became necessary to try the cases and prove by witnesses the allegations against the men.

Connor, a regular customer in this town court for years, proved himself a near-barrister. He accepted his privilege of examining the witnesses and made considerable of a showing considering the evidence against him. He furnished amusement for all present. Kelley and Casey were not so argumentative. Each prisoner was sentenced to serve 30 days for intoxication, 60 days for camping and 180 days for breach of the peace, a total nine months for each man, and costs of $17.74 each. All appeals must be fixing the bonds at $200 each. The prisoners, in default of bonds, were taken to jail.

As Casey was being led away from the prisoners pen to his cell he was pondering over that 180 days. "That's like getting a life sentence on the installment plan" was the expression he finally gave to his mental deliberations.

Two Teachers Appointed. Two vacancies in the teaching staff of the schools at Attawaugan and Ballouville have been filled, one at Attawaugan by the election of Miss Ruth Flske, teacher in the Tucker district school during the past school year, to be primary teacher, and one at Ballouville by the election of Miss Alice Morrissette, teacher in the Sparks district, also as a primary department teacher. There are several candidates for the other two vacancies to be filled.

OBITUARY. William W. Sherman. (Contributed.) William W. Sherman, a resident of the town of Killingly for 33 years, died July 10, at the home of his daughter in Melrose, Mass., from heart trouble. The end came suddenly and unexpectedly. Sunday, funeral services were held at his home in Melrose, a large delegation from the U. S. A. R. being present. On Monday the body was brought to Danielson, his former home for years, and funeral services were held at the Congregational church. Rev. H. B. Goodsell officiating, the clergyman being pastor of the Congregational church at South Killingly of which the deceased was a member. Burial was in Westfield cemetery. The bearers were members of McGrew's post G. A. R., and Edward Anderson camp, S. O. There was a large display of floral tributes, attesting the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. Sherman was born Nov. 15, 1840, in Kingston, R. I., his parents being Silas E. and Charlotte C. (Brown) Sherman. On August 3, 1865, he was married to Margaret Vogel of Newfield. In April, 1881, he moved from Newfield to Killingly, where he lived until October, 1913, when he removed to Melrose. He was ever considered one of Danielson's most highly esteemed and respected citizens and his death came as a shock to his many friends here.

Mr. Sherman was a thorough Christian man, a kind husband and an affectionate father, and the bereaved wife and daughter have the deep sympathy of all in their affliction.

He was a veteran of the Civil war, being a member of the 19th Mass. Vol. company B. He was a member of the G. A. R. and of Mt. Vernon lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Jewett City.

A man whose life was filled with the noble inspirations of a life that was clean and pure, a heart filled with tender love for humanity, a soul that lived the precepts of Christ, an influence that has never been forgotten, and a life which it came in contact, all these represented the life that has simply been translated to a more real and a far more beautiful existence—the home of the soul.

Play P. A. right across the boards!

You lay an odds-on bet that Prince Albert is the best pipe and cigarette smoke any man ever put a match to. You'll cash in before you clean out your first tidy red tin.

Here's tobacco that's got real red-blooded man punch, but it can't bite your tongue and it can't parch your throat. That's thrown into the discard by a patented process owned exclusively by the manufacturers. You stick a pin here—no other tobacco can be like Prince Albert; nor has P. A. any "near" relatives! Follow the thought?

Just put it right up to yourself for a test-out. Lay a dime against a tin of Prince Albert and get tipped off from the home plate as to how close to case cards this talk is.

You get wise to that P. A. flavor and fragrance. Because it's just one of those little things in life that smooths out ruffles and wrinkles in the day's work and sends you along right cheerful like.

Prince Albert is sold everywhere. In tippy red bags, 5c handy for rolling 'em; in tidy red tins, 10c; also in handsome pound and half-pound humidor that make a hit around home or the office.

Boston Painters Lose Ball Game to Local Team—First Defeat for the Rangers.

Joseph Roberts is building a new barn on his farm situated on the old Locke road.

Boston Players Lose. The painters who have been here from Boston painting the Lawton Mill Co. houses finished work here last week. Saturday afternoon they formed a baseball nine to play against the Plainfield nine. Both teams paraded the streets headed by the Plainfield band before going to the ball grounds where the Plainfield team, again under their old manager, Fred Racine, defeated the Boston boys to the tune of 7 to 6.

Versailles Defeated. Sunday afternoon Plainfield and Versailles played ball on the Plainfield grounds and the score was 5 to 4 in favor of Plainfield. With Fred Racine again at the helm Plainfield team will once more be found hard to beat.

On Saturday the Indians of Packer beat Westminster at Canterbury, 14 to 4.

Rangers' First Defeat. Sunday on Indian park at Packer the Indians defeated the Moosep Rangers, 18 to 4. This is the tenth game the Rangers have played this season and the first one they have lost.

It was 38 degrees in some of the Plainfield kitchens Monday afternoon.

Meant to Try. "When you get out of here," said the sympathetic visitor, "I presume you will try to do better." "Oh, yes," answered the bigamist, "none of the women I married before had much money."
