Charges Against Oregon Legislators Numerous

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] Portland, Dec. 23—Many charges are being made against Senator Mitchell and Representative Hermann of participation in the land fraud cases. The legislators are before the jury today. It is understood they have given an opportunity to explain all the charges that were made against them.

Mitchell's Reign Over
[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] Seattle, Dec. 23—Horace G. McKinley, who was convicted in the land fraud cases at Portland, is here. He says Senator Mitchell and Representative Hermann will probably be indicted, and that the reign of Mitchell in Oregon is over for good. He added, "there will be some big people to go to jail."

COLD WAVE

Fierce Storms Rage in East

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] New York, Dec. 23—Fierce snow storms are raging over Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa. All of those states are experiencing zero weather.

GOOD SHOW

Northern Views and Moving Pictures at Church

There will be an exhibition of stereoptical pictures at the Presbyterian church Wednesday and Friday evening of the present week. The exhibition will include views the whole length of the Yukon route, city life at Nome, mining in different northern camps and other views. There will also be moving pictures and other features. Mr. Beck, who has been in Alaska and Northern Canada for some several years, will manage the show.

The pictures will also include humorous and interesting views including Tom's trials in giving a banquet to his girl, trapeze performers, horses fording streams, the washerwoman, a man with a change of heads and other pictures. Wednesday and Friday at 8 p. m. sharp. Admission 25 cents.

Forrestry Control Passes to Agricultural Department

[Special Dispatches to Daily Alaskan.] Washington, Dec. 23—The forestry bill giving the agricultural department jurisdiction of the forest reserves, taking it away from the department of the interior, has passed. The bill carries a provision permitting the cutting of the timber of the Alaskan reserves after the removal of the legal restrictions, by the promulgation of rules for that purpose by the department.

Sage Departs From Whitehorse

Whitehorse, Dec. 23—A White Pass stage left here at 7 a. m. yesterday for Dawson. P. F. Schar Schmidt and H. B. Berdoo were passengers for Tanulux. The stage carried 700 pounds of mail, 320 pounds of express and 605 pounds of freight.

PEABODY WILL GET THE SEAT

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] Denver, Col., Dec. 23—There is no doubt but that the plan to seat Gov. Peabody in Colorado has been completed. Under the decisions of the supreme court, if they shall be followed, the legislature will be republican and a formal contest against the election of Gov. Adams will be filed with the legislature, which will proceed to throw out all the votes from the democratic precincts. This will give the seat to Peabody.

OFFICIAL TAKES SKAGWAY ROUTE TO TANANA

One of the best evidences in the world that the Skagway, Whitehorse and Dawson route to the Tanana is the only practicable way to the great American gold camp is the fact that people are coming from Valdez to Skagway on their way to Fairbanks. A. T. Heilig, clerk of the United States district court, arrived in this city on the last boat and took the train from here Saturday morning, leaving Whitehorse Sunday afternoon by

WILL OPPOSE WAGON ROAD

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] Washington, Dec. 23—War department engineers estimate the cost of a wagon road from Valdez to Eagle to be $3500 per mile and the distance is given at about 400 miles. An effort will be made to secure the passage of a bill appropriating the money for the construction of the road. A fight against the bill is anticipated in the house by the friends of the several coast to Yukon railroad projects.

CONDEMNS RUSSIAN POLICY

[Special Dispatches to Daily Alaskan.] St. Petersburg, Dec. 23—Russ, newspaper, strongly condemns the policy of favoritism that prevails at the Russian capital. It says:

"The time is past when it can longer conceal the fact that this policy has cost the government ships to the value of more than $150,000,000 and has brought the nation nothing but shame and disgrace. The task that has been assigned the Baltic fleet is superhuman."

CZAR GIVES REFORM UKASK

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] St. Petersburg, Dec. 23—The czar's long expected ukase was issued yesterday. It grants equality before the law to all persons; grants more power to local zemstvos; limits the rights of for-
