Sudden Death of John O. Evans.

Thecommunity was shocked by the avonencement in yesterday's papers of the serious illiness of Mr. John O. Evans, so well known and so greatly respected in this city, and a deep and sincere grief fell upon his many friends when, two hours later, dispatche: were cold, which death are such as its excit; prouliar interest and sympathy. During a recent business visit to Chicago he contracted a severe cold, which in a few days culminated in inflammation of the bowels. He seemed to raily, however, and so late so Thursday has twas it work upon matters connected with the Mutaul Union Telegraph Company, of which he was the preident,

He had made every preparation to go Friday to his birthplace at Faysteville, N. Y., where at the residence of his father and brother, Dr. B. He had made every preparation to go Filday to his bitchplace at Payesteville, N. Y., where at the residence of his father and brother, Dr. D. S. Evans, who occupies the homestead, they were to have a grand family rounion on Christmas day. Several intimate friends in Washington had been invited, and they intended leaving yesicriay. Some of them did leave yesteriay, but instead of meeting their genial and hospitable friend they will perform the sad duty of accompanying the cild clay tenement of him whom they a greatly loved to its last resting-place by the home which it was expected would resound with mirth and the pleasanties incident to the holiday stateon. His death occurred at the Gilsey Ho.se, N. w. York, at half-past is clockey, tierday morbing, in the 45th year of his age.

Mr. Evans, many years, ago, was largely identified with the lumber business here. He severed his connection with the however, and during the improvement era undersook large contrasts. These, and profitable investments in real estate, were the main sources of his wealth. He owned a great many houses here motably a row on Vermont avenue, belw mill and I streets, another on L street belw mill and I streets, another on L street helw mill and I streets, another on L street helw mill and I streets, another on L street helw mill and I streets, another on L street helw mill and I streets, another on Company, and was also connected with the Weshington Brick Machine Company, of which institution he was an experienced with the Weshington Brick Machine Company, and was also connected with the Weshington Brick Machine Company, the became an incerporator in the Columbian Bank-Note Company and the time of its reorganization hand was a director in its at the time of his death.

Christmas Songs and Carols. ne softly down on spowflake car, om shrouded moon and clouded stor,

The catile knee! in littered stalls,
And through the startled night there falls
The mystic song agait.—
The shepberds on Judea's plains
First heard its sweet prophetic strains,
"Good will and pence to men!"
— Charles L Hildrith.

O'er the hills night shadows steal;
See the Virgin mild
Class her new-horn Jhild!
Round the manger shephords kneel—
Humble worshipers.
Hark! angels sing
Round their heavenly Kingf
Tis for man, and not for them,
Siceps the Babe in Bethlehem, E. Brook.

This is the day that Christ was born Hark to the music, sweet and wild That wakens glad hears and forlor: To greet the blessed Child!

O silver bells, that ring so clear all the wintry morning gray,
All the wintry morning gray,
buse up the sleeping world to hear
buse up the sleeping world to hear
That Christ was born to-day.

CHRISTMAS CAROL.

CRISTMAS CAROL.
It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old.
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold:
Peace on earth, good-will to men,
From Heaven's all-gracious King.
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

Chime, coime, merelly chime, Bells of the holy Christmas time; Wake with your music the cohoes that sleep Where the gray mountains their selemn watch keep;

out your gladness o'er hillaide and main,
hing till the New Year bells echo the strain;
Toil for the Old Year's record of wrong,
Wall for its losses in agonized song;
Chants glad pasm for victorics won,
And an anthom of hope for the days that will

And all the angets in Heaven shall sing On Christmas day, on Christmas day; And all the angels in Heaven shall sing On Christmas day in the meraing.

And all the souls on earth shall sing On Christmas day, on Christmas day; And all the souls on earth shall sing On Christmas day in the moreing.

Then let us all rejoice amain On Christmas day, on Christmas day; Then let us all rejoice amain On Christmas day in the morning.

Christmas Tragedics.

At Helmwood, a small mining town in Tencesses, 125 miles north of Chattanooga, eterday, some trouble grew out of a dog ght. Pistols were used industriously. John cell was shot through the breast, and is dead hrice West brothers, W. Smith, and a man amed Thompson were shot, probably fatally. Information was vesterday received at Three West brothers, W. Smith, and a man named Thompson were shot, probably fatally. Information was yesterday received at Petersburg, Va., of what is supposed to have been the murder of two young men in Sussex Coun.; Friday night. The names of the victims are follower and Murrell, and they were employed as clerks in the store of J. H. & J. B. Prince at Green Plain. Late Friday night a colored boy visited the store, and, finding it closed, looked under the door and saw the young men lying on the floor. Failing to arouse them, the boy ran to inform their friends. Before the latter reached the store it was 'n fames and two explosions were first muriered, after which the store was set on fire, as the colored boy remembers hearing two pistol shots before reaching the store. A posse of men are souring the woods in scarch of two suspected tramps.

Kentucky has had another awful tragedy. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibbons, who reside near Ashland, went visiting on Friday night, leaving their daughter, fourteen years old, and son Robert, aged seventeen, and Mrs. Emma Thomas, seventeen years old, in charge of the Gibbons homestead. During the night the house was entered by sconndrels, who outraged and murdered both the girls. Their clothing was saturated with oil and the house set on fire. Young Gibbons, it is supposed, at tempted to give an alarm, when he was also killed. All three had their heads split open with a hatchet. The homestead was burned to asnes. There is no clue to the murderers. One thousand dollars reward is offered for their capture.

PILES! PILES! PILES! Nore Cure Found at Last! No One Need Suffer!

A Sure Cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minute, after applying this wonderful soothing medi cine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense tiching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant and pain-less relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itchless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.
Read what the Hon, J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Indian Pile Olutiment: "I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave me such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Pile Olutiment."
