marble or brazen bust. "We shall not attempt to mention, nor even bint at, the deservings of Mr. Webster, still less to compare him with other men. There is a shorter course, which is to invite the community to weigh and value them for themselves. There are his works, such of them as have been collected. There they stand. They shall speak for bim. They want only to have readers to create admirers." [Newark Daily Advertiser. "In company with the writings of Washington and Frankiin, they constitute a most essential part of the history of our Republic. No lapse of time can destroy their value so long as the world shall feel an interest in knowing how the great-ness of the American nation was built up and pre-served, and how the genus and spirit of the peo-ple in the nineteenth century were embodied and personified in one eminent individual—emphati-cally the AMEBICAN STATEMAN." [Boston Courier. "By the side of the excellent edition of the works of Edmund Burke, issued some years since by the same publishers, every student of politice may well place this edition of the works of Daniel Web-ster."-Washington Republic.
