HEART FORCE. - A man's force in this Merced-John W. Bost. world, other things being equal, is just in Napa-Jesse W. Whitton the ratio of the strength and force of his Nevada—G. D. Boberts heart. A full hearted man is always a Plumas-C. Chau powerful man. If he be erroneous, he is Sa rful for error; if the thing is in his port, he is sure to make it notorious, even though it be downright falsehood. Let a man be ever so ignorant, still, if his heart is full of love to the cause, he San comes a powerful man for that object; because he has heart power, heart-force. A man may be deficient in many of the advantages of education, in many of those niceties which are so much looked upon in society, but once give him a strong eart that beats hard, and there is no mistake about his power. Let him have a heart that is right full up to the brim with an object, and that man will do the thing, or else he will die gloriously de-

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my official seal, the day and year first above written. PAWN BROKER

CARD—Prompted by the honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement I met with on attempting it, soon became such as I was then led to believe, as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miserries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance, or shelter me from danger, as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having, previous to my afficition, tasted the sweets of life. I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recompendation, called upon Dr. L. J Caspkay, told him of my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and, with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afficiced to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice my find a physician in whom every confidence may be placed.

to the attention of all afflicted:

Thankfulness the Indentive to Gratitude.

CRETIFICATE.

The undersigned desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable neasion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed on the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances, months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, the symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and, being told by one that my disease, being principally confined to the brain, medicines would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dissiness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the elightest alarm or excitement; the misanthropy and evil forebodings; the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution; the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which, but a short time ago, I contemplated to end

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Thankfulness the Incentive to Gratitude.

The almost miraculous cure that has been effected in my case, prompts me to impart to those of my fellow creatures who may be suffering from like affliction, the source of relief, with a short description of my case. Several years ago, my health began to fail. I was attacked by general weakness and debility, which reduced me to the mere shadow of my former self. At this stage I sought medical assistance, and expended large amounts but without the and put up in GLASS CASES, airtight, and will keep in any climate.
