

River or No River, Hunter T. R. Did Shoot This Great Giraffe

ROOSEVELT & SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTE, WASHINGTON

River or no river, there's no doubt that Colonel Roosevelt shot this giraffe. You've got to take your hat off to him for that, anyway. This picture shows the colonel at the National museum of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, pointing out where he shot the huge animal. It is a splendid specimen of a reticulated, or vein striped, giraffe. The hunter also saw the other trophies of his African hunt of several years ago. He visited Washington to tell about his new river before the National Geographic society and to spend a social half hour with President Wilson at the White House.

Lamar Says Mediators Will Solve the Mexican Tangle

JUSTICE JOSEPH R. LAMAR

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 30.—Justice Joseph R. Lamar of the United States supreme court is the dominant figure in the A. B. C. peace conference. Justice Lamar has from the first taken the leading part in attempting to straighten out the tangled affairs of the shot riddled republic. If peace prevails it will be due mostly to his able methods of dealing with the delicate situation. He has been quoted as saying he had every reason to believe the negotiations would prove successful.
