Seventh Straight—Red Sox in Second Place.

Cincinnati, July 23.—The monotony with which the Reds toppled before the pitching of Rube Marquard yesterday was broken seldom and the Giants won hands down. The score was 4 to 1, and the invincible pitching of the Rube comprised a greater part of the attractiveness of an otherwise dull contest. The score:

Cubs Take Seventh Straight.

Chicago, July 28 .- The Cubs beat the Phillies again and won their seventh straight game. The score was 4 to 2. Alexander was much better than Lavender and should have won, but the fellows back of the Philadelphia twirler bunched their misplays. Zimmerman opened the second inning with a drive to the left field fence and reached third ahead of the return throw. He failed to touch second, however, and was called out. Whereupon he kicked so strenuously that Mal Eason sent him to the clubhouse. The score:

Pittsburg, July 23.-The Pirates and Boston Braves split even in a to the Braves by a score of 1 to 0, while the second was won by the Pirates by a score of 8 to 4. In the first contest a pitchers' battle developed between Harmon and James. the latter holding out to the finish of an eleven inning game without being scored upon, while Harmon's support wabbled in the eleventh, when the one tally was made. In that frame Wagner fumbled Deal's hit and the latter went to second on Mann's sac-Gowdy hit to left and when Carey fumbled the hit Deal scored the only run of the game. The scores:

When the Players' Fraternity ordered a walkout over the case of First Baseman Kraft the various club owners affected by the decision declared that they would fight to the finish. Yanks Take Two.

New York, July 23 .- The radical reform of Chance's hitless wonders developed the unusual spectacle of a two game triumph. New York won both parts of a double header from Hugh Jennings' Tigers and thereby came mighty close to wrecking the fond pennant hope with which the tow haired leader of the Felines first assaulted this citadel. Slim Caldwell outpitched Coveleskie in a clever duel, while Cy Pieh staggered through to glory over Dubuc and Cavet after King Cole had done his best to complicate matters. Over New Haven, 13 to 2

Tail-enders? Yes, but redeemed in the eyes of the baseball public. That is the position of "Bill" Scinski's club this afternoon. After the walloping the boys gave New Haven yesterday no one will predict that they will not beat out Hartford in the league standing. The score was: New Britain 13, New Haven 2.

The home club presented a new lineup which seemed to inject more ginger into the playing. Dorey Miller was stationed at the dizzy corner and Tetreault was back at the same old stand in right field. Miller did not have a chance in the field, but Tetreault carved a niche in the monument of fame by some of his speedy gallops after flies, which he secured. Only one error was chalked up against New Britain, that being accredited to Flannery, who otherwise put up a stellar game, accepting seven other chances without a "boot" and stopping everything that tried to ooze between "Big Jim" Heath and the middle pillow.

But it was at the bat that the New Britain club showed its sterling mark. Thirteen clouts for eighteen sacks is the story in a nutshell. Wee Willum Jones was the Cobb of the afternoon, smashing out two singles and a homer. The four sacker arrived with two New Britain players adorning the sacks. Flannery and Heath came across with two double crashes that rocked the mountains, beyond the fence. Dawson was decidedly in the running with three clouts. Dorey Miller shot two hot ones off his bat that went for safeties. Whenever a hit was needed it was produced without delay and the small crowd of fans present enjoyed the bombardment to their heart's content.

Johnny Lower, who heretofore had been a stumbling block in New Britain's path, tried to repeat, but the tide was turning and Lower slunk to the bench after the sixth inning. During his stewardship of the mount he was hit safely six times and seven runs were scored off him.

The real earthquake happened, however, in the seventh while Clauss, Rochester 6, Buffalo 4, (second, a new twirler, was on deck. In the seventh the broadside of hits was Baltimore-Jersey City not sched- turned on and six runs came across. It was in this session that the New Britain club batted around. Everybody seemed to find Clauss' delivery to his liking and the ball was in the air more than it was on the ground. Jones idolized himself with the fans by boosting the sphere over the

In despair, Jerry Connell went onto the mound for the last inning. but as New Britain had secured such a big lead the boys mercifully allowed Connell, who had nothing but a straight ball, to worry along with a clean slate.

The New Britain club ran wild between the sacks and pilfered five sacks on Clyde Waters. Woodward went the entire distance for the Hardware city bunch and was never in danger. He pitched a steady, heady game, allowing only seven hits, six of which were singles, fanning six, allowing two passes and hitting three batters. Other features were contributed by Dawson in the outfield and Gus Zeimer at shortstop. The score:

In the opener Pittsfield scored twice in the ninth and tied the score and won in the eleventh on hits by Prysock and Raftis. Ens made two spectacular one-handed stabs in the seventh.
