The foreign church Hilo was decorated in excellent taste with American flags and crape by Judge F. L. Lyman the 16th instant on occasion of the Memorial services in honor of General Grant. Rev. E. P. Baker's remarks were very appropriate and able.

"Swipes, swipes, swipes. Every where you go is swipes, and it is said that three glasses will bring the drunk, yet no one place is licensed. Some wonder why things go so easily, some wonder if the officials are too busy to look after such things in Hilo?

A case of Chinese leprosy is reported from Sacramento.

Marshall, the discoverer of gold at Sutter's Mill, California, in 1848, is dead.

Williams, Dimond & Co.'s circular of the 15th instant, reports no change in the San Francisco prices for either raw or refined sugars.

Lord Houghton the poet—Richard Monckton Miles—the poet is dead.

John Ruskin is ill, and his friends regard his condition with anxiety.

Rear Admiral Sir Michael Seymour of the British Navy is at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco. He will relieve Admiral Baird in command of the British Squadron in the Pacific. Admiral Baird is on the flag ship Triumph. He will return to London to the Home Office, to take command of the coast guard or relief fleet.

A company having an object that is something of a novelty on the Pacific coast has recently organized in San Francisco and has gone into business. It is called the Pacific Surety Company, and was organized under the Act of the Legislature approved March 12, 1885, entitled "An Act to facilitate the giving of bonds required by law." By this act it is provided that "any head of department, board, court, judge, officer, or other person who is now or shall hereafter be required to approve the sufficiency of any such bond or undertaking, or the sureties thereon, may accept as sole and sufficient surety on such bond or undertaking, any corporation incorporated under the laws of any state of the United States for the purpose of making or guaranteeing bonds and undertakings required by law." The sole business of the company is granting bonds of suretyship, guaranteeing the honesty of employees of railroads, banks, express companies, and other corporations or business houses, and furnishing bonds required by courts. The revenue of the company is derived from premiums, like that of insurance companies.

The city editor of a leading daily paper seldom lies when off professional duty. Perhaps he generously wishes to give others a show—perhaps he learns to love truth for its rarity. One such Bohemian is among my acquaintances. He says non-professionally, that when Adolph Spreckels' mind meandered in the thenceforth of the witherward each of three pistol-pops cost his papa $20,000. For publication of speeches in defense the city papers were paid an estimate of $25,000. The two lawyers, Hall McAllister and Robert Highton, received fees of $10,000 apiece. Shorthand reporting absorbed another $10,000. Incidental expenses during trial were $5,000, making an aggregate of $60,000, but double that sum would doubtless be necessary to cover witness fees and expenditures of which outsiders knew nothing. Adding what the Chronicle necessarily used, even if only half, though there is no reason why its expenses should be less, you will observe that a nice little sum was called into circulation. It was a gala day for typos. Newspapers combed the city for extra help and the job was cash in hand. No principle of law was established, no revenge gratified, no satisfaction secured to either side. The state has been at great expense, enemies made, evil passions encouraged, and for what? —Sacramento Record Union.

On the morning of August 13th H. M. S. Triumph entered San Diego harbor for the purpose of painting and otherwise getting into trim after her voyage from England before coming to San Francisco, to which port she is bound. The Triumph is the largest vessel that has ever entered San Diego harbor, being 300 feet long, 50 feet beam, and 6,000 tons. She carries 550 men and 50 officers. Her armament consists of ten breech-loading guns of nine-inch bore, each weighing twelve tons; four breech-loading guns, five-inch bore, each weighing 3,800 pounds; four Gardiner guns, ten Nordenfeldt guns and sixteen Whitehead torpedoes. Her draught is fixed at twenty-eight feet. She left Portsmouth, England, on the 7th of February, arriving at Montevideo on the 1st of April. She arrived at Coquimbo, Chile, on the 3d of May, where she relieved H. M. S. Swiftsure. The Triumph left Coquimbo about the middle of July, Callao the 17th and Acapulco on the 31st of July, arriving at San Diego last Sunday. She will go from San Francisco to Esquimalt, where she will be stationed. The following is a list of her officers: Chief Officer, Admiral J. K. E. Baird; Commander, Capt. B. Simpson; Captain of the ship, Capt. Rose; First Lieutenant, Lieut. Huchinson; Second Lieutenant, Lieut. Gibbons; Admiral's Flag Lieutenant, Lieut. Garforth; Lieutenant Staff Commander, Lieut. Broad; Torpedo Lieutenant, Lieut. Anson; Gunnery Lieutenant, Lieut. Fisher; Paymaster, Rae; Surgeon, Bolster; Chief Engineer, Whiting; Gunner, Matthews; Boatswain, Marchant.

GENERAL AMERICAN NOTES.

A terrible condition of affairs prevails at Aspinwall in regard to sanitary matters.

The reduction of the public debt during July amounts to about $7,000,000.

Louis Riel, the Manitoba rebel has been found guilty, and will be hanged September 18th.

It is announced that the last spike on the Canadian Pacific railway will be driven early in October.

There is no truth in the report of an Anglo-Chinese alliance offensive and defensive, directed against Russia.

The Etruria's time to Fastnet was six days, five hours and thirty-five minutes from New York, the fastest time on record.

The craze in Santa Barbara now is to grow English walnuts. It is said that four-fifths of the fruit trees will be dug up and walnut trees planted in their stead.

It is a singular anomaly in Virginia politics that the son of the man who was Governor when John Brown was hung, is now the Republican candidate for Governor.

Commissioners have been appointed to take a census of the Northwest Territories, with a view of giving those now unorganized representation in the Dominion Parliament.

The general army order sending officers back to their regiments after a period of four years on detached duty is provoking much discussion among officers in Washington.

The United States Consul at Vera Cruz informs the Department of State that yellow fever is fast increasing at that place, 46 deaths having occurred in the last two weeks.

Geo. W. Curtis has retired at the age of 61 from the editorial chair of Harper's Weekly, on a liberal pension by its publishers. Montgomery Schuyler, a Democrat, succeeds Mr. Curtis.

Considerable difficulty is encountered in paying bills in "legal tender" currency, viz., United States gold. The government has none with which to pay salaries of employees and to establish the gold credit of the Hawaiian $20 notes.

The local Board of Health of Montreal declares that small-pox is now epidemic there. The City Hospital contains thirty-six patients, and is crowded. A new wing is being built, which will hold fifty more.

Twenty thousand Hungarians who have been working in the Pennsylvania mines are preparing to migrate in a body to North western Canada, where the Dominion Government will give them 200,000 acres of fertile land. They were agricultural peasants in their native land, and are tired of mining. This is the largest movement of population in a single body that has ever occurred in the United States.

The Bulletin Sun says that the friends of Lieut. Greely, of Arctic fame, are extremely solicitous about his health. They fear that he is declining rapidly. He is now at his home in Massachusetts taking a rest for the benefit of his health. His friends have urged him to take a year's leave of absence and spend it in some part of the country the climate of which is suitable to his state of health. Mr. Greely had hoped to spend a short time in Europe, but poverty has prevented the accomplishment of his desire. It is asserted that the failure of Congress to reward him in a substantial manner for his Arctic trip has had a very depressing effect both on his mind and body.

There has been but one newspaper in the South, so far as has been observed here, which has spoken ill of Grant since his death, and has taken occasion to attempt to revive war memories, using his grave for a rifle pit. That paper was published in Raleigh, N. C. The editorial has been copied in most of the Republican papers of the North. A gentleman who reached here from North Carolina to-day tells a curious story about the writer and his tragic end. The ink upon the paper which contained the article was scarcely dry, and the edition of the paper had not all been delivered at the post-office, when the editor who wrote the article fell dead. This editor was convicted as a kuklux, and sentenced to ten years at the Albany Penitentiary. The evidence in his trial showed that he was the leader of the kuklux in his section. He remained in the Albany Penitentiary four years, when a petition for his pardon, generally signed in his locality, was presented to president Grant, who granted the pardon. The man then returned to his home. He had been in politics since, but has committed no suspicious act until he made the recent assault upon the memory of General Grant, so quickly followed by his own death.

At Sir Moses Montefiore's funeral the coffin was so placed that his head rested upon a stone brought from Jerusalem. In the coffin had been placed many relics of Lady Montefiore and the Holy Land, together with an account of the good works of the deceased. Over the coffin, as the relatives and friends passed, each scattered a handfull of earth from Rachael's grave in the Holy Land.

On August 14th the populace of Krementchoog, a Russian city on the Dnieper, in Poltava, attacked the Turkish residents of the town and attempted to drive them out. The miltary restored order with much difficulty. During the riot a great number of persons were wounded. Thirty of the native leaders have been arrested. An Important Notice to Exporters.

The San Francisco Merchant of the 14th instant vouches for the following:

The Hawaiian Consul-General at San Francisco has prepared a notice to exporters of goods and merchandise to the Hawaiian Islands. It was compiled by Mr. E. R. Hendry whose intimate knowledge with the Custom House Department at Honolulu is a guarantee of its accuracy. It commences by quoting the Act of December 30, 1884 which says that "All invoices of merchandise to be presented at any Custom House in the Hawaiian Kingdom for entry must be accompanied by a certificate of the Hawaiian Consul at the port of shipment, otherwise 25 per cent will be added to the original value and the usual duties levied on the increased value thereof." The notice then gives separate lists of 1—Goods free by the Civil Code from all countries. 2—Goods free by treaty from the United States. 3—Goods that are dutiable, with the amount of the duty plainly indicated on the margin. 4—Goods on which a specific duty is levied and the amounts of such duties. All invoices must be properly certified to before the Hawaiian Consul at the nearest port of shipment. Special attention is called to the clause in the Opium Act which grants power to the Board of Health to authorize importations of opium and its preparations. All persons presenting invoices at the Hawaiian Consulate in San Francisco for consular certificates are respectfully requested to carefully examine the schedule so that dutiable goods may not appear on invoices of free goods and vice versa. This will effect considerable saving of time for all parties who are interested. Another and most important and necessary regulation established by Mr. D. A. McKinley, the Hawaiian Consul-General, is that all invoices must be verified by a member of the firm who is making the shipments or by some party authorized to act for the firm, and a register of all who are so authorized will be kept at the office. These notices will be kept in a prominent position at the office of the Hawaiian Consulate, 327 Market street, and will also be forwarded to all who have trade connections with the Islands. Such business-like methods will be appreciated by commercial men in view of the growing importance of our trade with the Hawaiian Kingdom.
