Country Club Dance.

The dance at the Country Club on Wednesday was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week—as they always are. And contrary to the expectations of those who argued that society was weary of overmuch dancing, it was well attended—if anything there being a larger crowd than at the previous hop. The usual delicious supper was served at 11 o'clock. The measure of the Country Club dances in their informality—you can do as you please about dress. There is no line against ragging. You come when you please and you go when you please—which means that the majority of the dancers remain until the musicians are exhausted and even the electric piano is somewhat played out.

Among those noticed at Wednesday's affair were Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. Rosamund Swamy, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bell, Mr. and Mrs. George Kluegel, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Shainback, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Others Take Away Popular Service.

Again goes up the old cry of the millions against the service set—"No wonder do we know and like them, when off they go." This time society feels it has a real grievance—four of our most delightful families are getting their affairs in shape preparatory to leaving for foreign parts. Ordinarily we could view them depart without any particular emotion—we should worry. But these are four of our favorites—ladies who by their gracious ways and charming hospitality have endeared themselves to all, even those who are considered "good fellows" and "a little bit of all right" by everyone. The first to receive their orders were General and Mrs. Montgomery Macomb and General and Mrs. Frederick Funston. Comes the news this week of the approaching departure of Major and Mrs. Timberlake and British Consul and Mrs. J. B. Rentiers—who although they are not of the army, nevertheless belong to the world of officialdom. The Macombs and the Timberlakes are almost kinsmen, so long have they been stationed in the islands. The Funstons and the Rentiers have only been here a year—society has scarcely had time to add out how really charming they are when presto! they are off. By a strange coincidence, they will all leave in March, the Macombs, the Funstons and the Timberlakes, by the March transport, and the Rentiers by a liner for the Orient. The Macombs will be in Washington, D. C., for the next few years where Mrs. Macomb will take her place in official society; General and Mrs. Funston will proceed to Galveston, Tex. The Timberlakes will be stationed in New York. One of their greatest pleasures, they say, will be in meeting—as they are bound to in this Mecca of the world—their old friends from Hawaii. The will not proceed directly to New York when they sail in March, but will make the southern trip, visiting in California, Arizona and New Mexico on the way. Mr. and Mrs. Rentiers will go hence to Manila—a particularly delightful station to them, already well acquainted in that part of the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown's Dinner.

Miss Lydia McStocker, whose engagement to Dr. Arnett P. Matthews of the army was recently announced, was the motif for a beautiful dinner on Wednesday given by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown at the Young hotel. The table was artistically adorned with pink roses and tulle and bows of wide pink satin ribbon. Pink shaded candles were linked together with strands of glass beads which glittered iridescently in the candle-glow. The favors at each place were little Dresden almond dishes, the ladies' bearing a wee Cupid, and those of the men in the shape of a match container. After dinner the evening was devoted to bridge. Among those present were Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss Julie McStocker, Captain and Mrs. Norris Stayton, Miss MacDonald, Mr. James McJerny, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McStocker, Dr. A. P. Matthews, Dr. Dieber and the host and hostess.

Cornell Club Banquet

The Hotel Courtland was the scene of a large and most enjoyable affair last Saturday night, when the Cornell Club of Hawaii gave its fifth annual banquet. Cornell pavants and the red and white colors of the alma mater were used in the decorations, carnations for the centerpiece shaded with crimson candelabra. The place-cards were little red and white footballs, the menu—which, by the way, was a most excellent one—and program of toasts being printed in the same colors. Prof. Arthur L. Andrews was toastmaster for the occasion, his clever introductions being as thoroughly appreciated as the toasts themselves. The following program was given during the evening:

Wedding in Hilo.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, Jan. 16.—Whether smoothly or 'not, the courtship of Raymond Lucas and Miss Bessie Vail, which led to their marriage Wednesday evening, ran very swiftly. The couple have been acquainted less than two months, Lucas meeting his bride for the first time when she came here from her home in Santa Rosa, Cal., for a visit with relatives.

The engagement was much shorter than was the courtship, for it ended in the wedding on the very day that it was first announced. Mrs. R. T. Lucas, mother of the bridegroom, gave the announcement of the intended marriage to the Hilo press on Wednesday afternoon, stating that the ceremony would take place soon, probably at the end of the week. But even this short delay was not in accord with the intentions of young Lucas and his fiancée, and a few hours afterwards they secured a marriage license and with their intimate friends and relatives went to the home of Reverend Dush, where they were united in marriage at 9 o'clock that evening. Present at the wedding were Henry Rickard, Mrs. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brickwood.

The bridegroom is a Hilo youth, 22 years of age, and has a large number of acquaintances in the islands by whom he is well liked. While the bride has been in Hawaii only a short time, she has acquired a circle of friends. She is a sister-in-law of Captain B. O. Nilson of the Hilonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Horner's Dinner Dance.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the dinner dance last night at the Country Club given by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner in honor of their son, Albert Horner, Jr., who recently returned to Hawaii after four years at Cornell. The tables and lanai were exquisitely decorated with roses and maiden hair, palms and bamboo, furnishing a pleasant green background. Kaal's quintet played during dinner and afterwards for the dancing which lasted to an agreeably late hour. Included in those present at this delightful affair were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dowsett, Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Misses Beatrice Castle, Mary von Holt, Nora Sturgeon, Margaret Waterhouse, Adelaide Allmond, Muriel Howatt, Helen Spalding, Miss MacDonald, Pauline Schaefer, Ruth Anderson, Marie O'Brien, Emily Farley, Jessie Kennedy, Marjory Gilman, Messrs. Kennedy-Chatard. Honolulu folk were deeply interested this week in hearing of the wedding of Mr. Derwent Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, to Miss Colita Chatard of San Francisco, which occurred last Thursday in that city. Although the bride is not known she is prominent in San Francisco society, being the daughter of Mrs. Philip Chatard, and a descendant of an old California family. The groom known to all as "Kim" Kennedy, is an island man of widespread popularity. He is a graduate of Stanford University and a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He is at present located with the California branch of the Inter-Island Steamship Company. The wedding was a quiet affair, the bride being attended only by her cousin, Miss Mazie Burke. Mr. Philip Chatard, Jr. acted as best man. After a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will make their home in San Francisco.

Engagement Announced.

News was received in Honolulu this week of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Searle of Alameda to Mr. Clarence Bowell, a prominent young banker of Oakland. Miss Searle is well known in this city having visited here last summer as the guest of Miss Sara Lucas. She is the sister of Mrs. George Laird, wife of Lieutenant Laird of the navy. The wedding is set for a very early date, after which the young couple will make their home in Oakland.

Tenney, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Mr. Fred Wichman, Mr. Vernon Tenney, Mr. Harr and the host and hostess.
