HONOLULU, January 12.—Nahome, a Syrian fruit dealer, made a get-away on the steamer Makura leaving many creditors behind. Dr. Atcherly is charged with insanity. Mrs. Atcherley says her husband was chasing Dr. Wayson from the house when he fired the shots. The kona storm is not very severe here. It has been raining for several hours. The Federal government is to retain lands at Wahiawa. SEATTLE, January 12.—Sharp earthquake shocks were felt throughout the Sound district. It this city, Bellingham, Vancouver, Victoria and Tacoma the effects were very noticeable. At Port Townsend windows were broken, dishes smashed and water mains burst flooding houses. The Alaskan cable parted several hours before denoting severe disturbances in the North. SAN FRANCISCO, January 12.—Heney was enthusiastically welcomed on his return from Pittsburg. He will begin the Calhoun trial today. INDIANAPOLIS, January 12.—Marshall, the first Democratic governor since 1892, was inaugurated today. MESSINA, January 12.—Continued earthquakes and severe tempests have destroyed temporary shelters. BELLINGHAM, Wash., January 12.—Lumbering has been abandoned on account of the severe cold. WASHINGTON, January 12.—Tillman denies every charge and scored Roosevelt. HONOLULU, January 11.—Dr. Atcherley was arrested for attempting to kill Dr. Wayson by firing revolver shots through his window Sunday morning at three o'clock. This was his third visit to the house. A kona storm is blowing in the vicinity of Waiialua. Several small houses were upset. HONOLULU, January 10.—A shortage is hinted at in the case of Stayton. He was short once before and the amount was made up by him. Postmaster Pratt expresses great sentiment. A white gambler at the beach is winning from natives. He may be run out of town. BERNE, Switzerland, January 11.—An ancient church collapsed yesterday and many worshippers were burned to death. ROME, January 11.—The Pope received Archbishop Ireland yesterday and sent the apostolic blessing to the people of the United States. WASHINGTON, January 10.—Breckons' case is before the President. No action will be taken until Senator Warren of Wyoming sees the charges. LAS PALAS, Canary Islands, January 10.—A severe earthquake shock occurred here. Many buildings were damaged. MEXICO CITY, January 10.—Earthquake shocks were felt along the Western coast of Mexico yesterday. They were severe at Acapulco and Oaxaca. WASHINGTON, January 10.—The Secretary of the Treasury has called upon National banks for $2,500,000 of their government deposits. SEATTLE, January 10.—There was a fall of nine inches of snow. BUTTE, Mont., January 10.—Idaho is in the grip of a blizzard. Traffic is blocked. WASHINGTON, January 10.—Congress has passed a resolution to investigate an appropriation to uncover frauds and punish criminals involved in matters investigated by the secret service. UNION CITY, January 9.—Six night riders were sentenced to be hanged on February 19. HONOLULU, January 9.—Judge Kepoikai appears to have the laugh on his enemies. Advices from Washington say there is no foundation for the report of Kepoikai's resignation and no signs of the case being reopened. Assistant Postmaster Stayton has been arrested for tampering with Inspector Hare's mail. W. O. Smith says Mayor Fern must name the officers. WASHINGTON, January 9.—The House adopted resolutions purging President's message of secret service paragraphs. They were declared disrespectful to Congress. The President responded by disclosing a report made by secret service men implicating Senator Tillman in the land frauds of Oregon. He showed copies of letters Tillman sent to his agent in Oregon instructing the latter to reserve eight sections in the names of the Tillman family. Meanwhile Tillman introduced a resolution to compel railroad owners to sell land cheaply as provided in their grant. The Senate has instructed the Judiciary Committee to report whether the President was authorized to permit the absorption of the Tennessee coal and Iron by the United States Steel Trust. The absorption was an incident of the panic. In consequence of President Roosevelt's approval Morgan was able to wipe out remaining competitors. The House devoted its time to debate on secret service. The President was vigorously assaulted. REGGIO, January 9.—One thousand bodies were dug from the ruins. Three children were recovered alive. SAN FRANCISCO, January 9.—Matson has ordered a million dollar steamer from Newport for the Honolulu run. PARIS, January 9.—A mail sack containing $200,000 was stolen on a street in broad daylight. HELENA, Mont., January 9. A blizzard has been raging for four days. SAN FRANCISCO, January 9. —Police Sargent Nolting was shot dead by private Jordan of the Coast artillery. SACRAMENTO, January 8.—An anti race track gambling law was introduced today.
