

TELEGRAPH NEWS OF THE WEEK

HONOLULU, January 26.—Inspector Haley is said to be slated to lose position. Commissioner General of Immigration is coming to Honolulu with axe, is report.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—"Millions for preparedness and not billions for defense," is slogan for new preparedness party. Congressman Mann cheered after speech on nonpartisan support of President Wilson's program.

Army and Navy experts, before the senate plead for mobilization of munitions plants.

LONDON, January 26.—Winter campaigns in theatres of war are assuming more and more activity. Latest report from Athens says Germany is seeking a separate peace with Serbia. Russians are making substantial advances.

Famous cathedral of Neuport wrecked by Germans, and Dunkirk has been attacked.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—Understood here proposals made by Germany to settle dispute over sinking of the Lusitania, definitely refused by administration, acting under direction of President Wilson.

LONDON, January 26.—German reports of fighting in Mesopotamia say British left 3000 dead on field.

PARIS, January 26.—War has reduced the total of unemployed almost unbelievably.

LONDON, January 26.—Field Marshal von Dergoltz, of German army, has been appointed commander in chief of Turkish forces, in Caucasus district and will take over operations at once.

NEW YORK, January 26.—Charles Stone, president of the $50,000,000 American International corporation, announced tonight that the company which bought the Panama fleet of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company is now considering entering the trans-Pacific trade.

EL PASO, January 26.—Villa, with 1000 men belonging to army of retaliation, is reported to be moving in the direction of Santa Clara canyon, 45 miles from Chihuahua.

NEW YORK, January 26.—Imports of America fall off immensely. Statistics show that this city handled one half of the exports, and slightly more than one half of the imports of country this past year.

LONDON, January 26.—Reports say private yacht was torpedoed in December by French submarine.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—The President and Mrs. Wilson

LONDON, January 26.—Japan has presented to China a new list of 7 demands which imperils the sovereignty of the Chinese nation and menaces the interests of foreigners. This is the information which the Manchester Guardian, particularly well informed on Oriental affairs, prints as coming from far-eastern sources. It is said that Japan has handed the Chinese minister in Tokio, for transmission to China, a note embodying 7 demands which were included in the Japanese program last spring. It is possible that the 7 demands alluded to today were the original 7 of group 5 of the series presented last spring.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—Many diplomats here, when informed that Japan has apparently renewed the demands made, but not accepted last spring, express the belief that the only power in the position to make an effective protest against the renewal of Japanese demands, is the United States. The United States has never taken an open position against Japan on this matter, but it is understood to regard all the articles of group 5 as objectionable.

LONDON, January 26.—The Bulgarian forces are reported to have advanced in Central Albania and come into contact with the Albanian soldiers, under Essad Pasha who had defeated an advance guard of the Bulgarians, near El Bassan.

BERLIN, January 26.—French have failed in many counter attacks to recapture trenches taken by Germans near Neuville. The attacking French were repulsed in bloody hand to hand fighting.

EL PASO, January 26.—General Villa is now reported in western Chihuahua, where he is defying Carranza and the United States and stirring up hatred against Americans by using the slogan—"Remember Orozco." He is endeavoring to gain recruits to carry on his campaign.

HONOLULU, January 26.—Mrs. R. W. Shingle left for the mainland in the Wilhelmina this morning, for Washington, and to bedside of the Princess Abigail Kawananakoa, who is seriously ill with typhoid fever in the Capital. News reached Mr. Shingle yesterday to effect that the princess had not rallied, and that her fever is ranging between 104 and 105.

PARIS, January 25.—Germans have begun the bombardment of Nancy with long range guns, and simultaneously launched aeroplane attack on the French town. Official French communique says damage has been trivial. Around Neuport there is increased activity today which may herald important moves by Germans on west. Official statement says that hostilities at Neuport are favorable to French. At Artois, Germans made attack in force. This was preceded by large blasting operations. About 1500 yards of Allies trenches were blown up, Germans charging from their positions occupied craters thus made. Later French, by a series of counter charges expelled Germans and reoccupied most of positions. Another raid in force has been made by Allies aviators upon Bulgarian and Teuton forces in southern Serbia. 16 French aeroplanes last night attacked Monastir and Greveli. At the same place about 100 persons were killed or wounded.

GENEVA, January 25.—Col. E. M. Gouse, of Texas, confidential adviser to President Wilson, and now in Europe to carry certain important messages to U. S. Diplomats in various capitals, arrived here today. He made but a short stay, departing for Berlin where he will confer with Ambassador Gerard.

LONDON, January 25.—Two aeroplanes dropped bombs at Dunkirk, at 6 o'clock this morning. German sea-planes were forced by British machines into water northeast of Neuport, at 8 o'clock this morning.

LONDON, January 25.—Message from Liverpool to exchange telegraph agency, reports Dominion liner Northman sunk. No particulars.

CHICAGO, January 25.—Forecast of republican victory and the Chairman Hilles, "Is to effect that Col. Roosevelt will not be candidate were contained in statement issued today by Chas. B. Hilles, chairman republican national committee. Statement deals approaching campaign and republican hopes of victory. "All information that I have," said Chairman Hilles, "Is to expect that Col. Roosevelt will not be candidate for republican nomination." He did not say, however, that Roosevelt would refuse nomination, if tendered him. He characterized the attitude of Justice Hughes, of the Supreme bench as unknown. "No man is big enough to refuse the presidency," he declared. Our candidate will be elected. The victory of the republicans is a foregone conclusion, he pointed out.

WASHINGTON, January 25.—Major-General Murray believes that Hawaii should be one of three naval bases of the United States, with a battleship fleet stationed at the Islands. Hawaii is the local outpost of the coast and Panama canal. There should be three battleship fleets of the navy, he says, each to consist of 3 battleships with auxiliaries.
