The Maui convention songs are given below:

SWEET MAUI

—Tune: "Sweet Marie."—

1. There are secrets in the heart of our Maui,
Which I fain would now impart
Friends to thee:
Of her beauties I would tell
But since I cannot do it well,
I urge you all to come and see.

Chorus—

Come and see, come and see
Fair Maui; Fair Maui;
Our Wondrous Valley Isle dear to me;
Of her beauties I would tell,
But since I cannot do it well,
I would urge you all to come and see.

2. There is famous old Iao
With verdure deep,
Mantling all the rugged sides
Of mountains steep:
Refreshed by waters in their might,
Guarded by the Needles height;
O, it is a grand old sight,
Believe me!

Chorus—

Come and see etc.
3. On the Island's other side
By the sea;
Where the water falls go tumbling
Wild and free;
Where the ditch-trail winds its way,
Natures glories hold full sway,
And her charms invitingly to you do say.

Chorus—

Come and see etc.

4. Then Haleakala in majesty,
With her cloud encapped brow waits for thee;
You'll find a rest house at the top,
Where in comfort you may stop,
While the splendors of the sun-rise you see.

Chorus—

You've your Garden Isle, Kauai; Oahu too; Oahu too;
And your great big Island of Hawaii;
But if you'd really like to see,
Something greater than the three,
Come to Maui, Maui, no ka oi.

MY DEAR OLD VALLEY ISLE

—Tune: "Old Kentucky Home."—

1. The sun shines bright on our dear old Valley Isle,
'Tis summer there every day;

The cane tops wave in the cool and gentle breeze,
while
Flow'rs waft their fragrance far away,
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy in play;
For ne'er hard times comes a knocking at the door
In that dear old Valley Isle across the way.

Chorus—

You'll need to seek no further
For Paradise today.
We will sing one song for our dear old Valley Isle,
For that dear old Valley Isle across the way.

2. You can hunt your fill of the wild game, crab or toon (a)

On mountain, in sea, or on shore;
You can sing your songs by the glimmer of the moon,
Or hula by your little cabin door;
The days go by undisturbed by anxious care,
Full of gladness, of hustle, and zest;
It makes no odds to anybody there
If there ain't no birds in next years nest.

Chorus—

Then you'll need to seek no further etc.

3. Knowest thou this land of the palm tree and the cane,

'Tis only just over the way;
Where we have liquid sunshine with just enough
of rain,
To make one long glorious summer day:
In this fair land where 'tis June time all the while,
There's naught here to cause any pain;
It's all the style here to wear the Roosevelt smile,
When the money crop is good from sugar cane.

Chorus—

When I die let me go to Maui,
Best Isle in all the sea;
It's the only spot on this great big round old Earth,
Oh, it's Maui, Maui for me.

MAUI'S OUT TONIGHT

For there'll be big things a doing,
Hot times are brewing,
Just look whose here tonight;
For we are all boosters,
A live bunch of roosters,
Maui is out tonight.

Big things are doing,
Hot times are brewing,
Just look whose here tonight;
For we are all boosters,
A live bunch of roosters,
Maui is out tonight.

Maui Men Defeat Crack Polo Team

The Maui polo team carried off the honors in the fourth match of the inter-island series at Kapiolani Park Saturday afternoon, defeating their Kauai opponents by a score of 10½ to 4½. It was a beautiful day, the field was in good condition, and the game was hard-fought to the very close of the eight periods. The victors won because of better team-work rather than through having better horses, or because of any superiority in the work of the individual players, says last Sunday's Advertiser.

The game was as good as any that has been played in many years. One would have to go far to see a better. There were no accidents or mishaps, and the play was an exhibition of clean, straight playing, hard hitting, and superb horsemanship from beginning to end.

The Kauai team used some of its best horses in each period, while the Maui men saved their best and fastest ponies for the periods. Kauai lost because they played the game as individuals, leaving holes in their line of offense and defense which their opponents were not slow to take advantage of.

Jay Gould a Star

By all odds the best skill was shown by Jay Gould, riding as No. 4 of the Kauais. Throughout the play his interference was perfect, and it was noted that he was just exactly in the spot where a defender was needed, whenever his mount could get him there.

Gould's system of play was different from that of the Island men who depended on powerful arm work and the speed of their horses more than on the short side-strokes by which he repeatedly worried the ball out of a hot skirmish. Unfortunately the Maui players were usually where in the nature of the strategy, the Kauai men ought to have been to have taken full advantage.

Kauai very often overrode the ball and tailed their Maui opponents, hopelessly distanced, while Maui "followed" the ball between the goal posts.

Close Score At Half

At the end of the first half the score stood 4½ to 4½ in favor of Maui but in the fifth period Maui made two goals in two minutes and steadily piled up points to the end of the game.

The teams and positions were:
Kauai—J. M. Spalding, No. 1; J. H. Malina, No. 2; C. A. Rice, No. 3; Jay Gould, No. 4.

Maui—A. W. Collins, No. 1; H. W. Rice, No. 2; F. F. Baldwin, No. 3; D. L. Fleming, No. 4.

The officials were:
Referee, Lieut. L. A. Beard; time-keepers, Lester Petrie, J. S. Walker; goal judges, Robert McCriston, V. Lemon.

House Candidates Are All Active

Politics in the primary campaign have begun to hum during the past ten days. Candidates for nomination for the legislature are making every effort possible for nomination, especially for nomination as Democratic and Republican candidates for election to the house of representatives. There are fourteen candidates who desire their party's nomination for the lower house and as six are all that is to be elected the fight will be an interesting and exciting one.

Enos Vincent and C. K. Makekau, representative candidates, made visits to Molokai last week, where Vincent says he addressed five different meetings and was given every assurance of election. John Brown Jr. and Sam Kaula paid the settlement island a visit the week before.

Manuel Paschoal, "keiki o Puunene" is another candidate for nomination as representative who has been active during the past two weeks. In fact all the fourteen have been doing some campaigning, but there is no marked indication at present as to whose efforts have been the most effective.

One Sunday Duck Costs $50 Monday

Shooting one duck on Sunday cost James Matsumura $50.00 on Monday. Matsumura claimed that he had just returned from Japan and did not know the season for duck shooting was not open. When he discovered from 400 to 500 ducks at Kanaha Point on the other side of Kahului the temptation to have duck for dinner was too great, he told Judge McKay, after he had been arrested for killing game out of season. The minimum sentence provided by the law is $50 fine, which was imposed by the magistrate. Matsumura paid the fine.
