On motion of Mr. Lloyd, it was resolved that the two boards meet in joint session on Monday next, at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of electing Commissioners of Elections, at the ensuing June election.

Also, a resolution requesting the Mayor to call the attention of the Board of Health to the miserable nuisance now existing east of Four-and-a half street west, near B street south, caused by half-buried dead animals, and to require the prompt abatement of said nuisance.

It was also resolved to request of the Mayor a list of all the acts authorizing the improvement of avenues, streets, or alleys, passed since the first of July, 1858.

Adjourned to Thursday next at 4 o'clock p.m.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Mr. Emerson submitted a bill making an appropriation to repair Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets west, between L and M streets, and Twenty-first street west, between K and L streets.

Mr. Raub presented the bills against the Franklin Fire Company amounting to $36.50, which were referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

The President presented a petition of the Commissioners under the emancipation act for permission to use the council chamber for their sessions, accompanied by a resolution that the request be granted. Adopted.

Mr. Shepherd offered a bill providing for the laying of a water main along M street north, from Ninth to Tenth streets east. Passed.

Mr. Stevens presented the petition of Edw. Goetz, for refunding the amount of a fine. Referred to the Committee on Claims.

A bill for repairing Eighth street east, from Pennsylvania avenue to the Navy Yard gate, was passed.

Mr. Lewis, from the Committee on Improvements, reported a bill for the partial improvement of Judiciary square.

Mr. Edmonston moved to amend, so that the work shall be done under the supervision of the City Surveyor. Lost.

The bill was lost.

Mr. Lewis also presented a report on the repairing the Centre Market house.

Mr. Edmonston was opposed to any improvement on that market.

Mr. Shepherd moved to lay the bill on the table. Adopted.

The same committee reported an estimate in regard to improvements on the streets of the city, and asked that the matter be referred to the committee to represent this corporation before Congress.

Mr. Shepherd moved to lay the subject on the table. Adopted.

Mr. Lewis reported a bill authorizing the tearing down of the walls of a burnt building on Fourteenth street. Passed.

The same committee reported a bill to revive an act to repair Tenth street west, from D to E north. Passed.

Mr. Shepherd, from the Committee on Drainage, reported a bill for the erection of a fireplug at the intersection of Second street west and I street north. Passed.

The same committee reported a bill to authorize the supplying of certain adjoining tenements with Potomac water from one service pipe. Passed.

Another bill of the same nature was also passed.

Also, a bill to authorize the laying a water main on Seventh street west, from B street north to Pennsylvania avenue. Passed.

Mr. Shepherd also presented the report of the committee on the Central Guardhouse.

The committee state that the building is well adapted to the purposes for which it was designed; that it is well built, &c.; that the claims were just and moderate; and they recommend that the bill from the upper Board for the completion of the Central Guardhouse and pipe yard, which bill estimates the amount for the completion at $3,737.

Mr. Emerson asked if this was all that the building would require for its completion.

Mr. Shepherd stated that it was, as far as now known.

The bill was passed.

A resolution accompanying the report, that the claims and papers of Thomas Lewis, contractor for the central guardhouse, be referred to the superintendent of the central guardhouse and the corporation attorney, for their examination and opinion, was passed.

Mr. Given, from the Committee on Claims, reported back the petition of Taylor & Hutchinson, with a request that the committee be discharged from the further consideration of the petition. Granted.

Also, that they be discharged from the further consideration of the petition of Patrick Jordan.

The petitioner represents that he fought for his country in the Mexican war; that he and his wife were quietly pursuing a lawful business; and that he is poor, and unable to pay a fine of $25, imposed upon him for selling intoxicating liquor.

Messrs. Mulloy and Callan favored the prayer of the petitioner.

Mr. Given defended the action of the committee. The petitioner admitted that the charge was true, and the committee could not do otherwise than report adversely to his petition.

The committee were discharged—11 to 7.

Mr. Grinder, from the Committee on Police, reported a bill to establish the price of gas in the Centre Market. The rate is 75 cents per month for each burner, and the penalty for violation is $5.

The bill was passed.

Mr. Murtagh, from the Committee on Public Schools, reported the following bill:

Be it enacted, &c., That a special committee of two members from the Board of Aldermen and of three members from the Board of Common Council be appointed by the two Boards as a joint committee for the following purposes:

1st. To select seven building lots, more or less, for public school purposes, ascertain the cost of each, and report the same through the Mayor to the two Boards. One of the seven lots shall be located in the most desirable and available position in each ward of the city, which shall be sufficient for erecting upon it a Union ward school building, according to the most approved modern style of school architecture, of sufficient capacity to accommodate 500 pupils.

2d. To offer $100 for plans and specifications of one such building, which is to be the model for all the others.

Resolved, That when the said committee, in connection with the Mayor, shall approve of any plan and specifications, the Mayor shall be authorized to pay the sum of $100 to the successful architect, out of any unappropriated funds.

Mr. Callan moved to amend so as it will read, "for the education of white children."

Mr. Shepherd saw no reason for this amendment being pinned on to this proposition. He was in hope that the discussion on the negro question in this city was at an end.

Mr. Mulloy said that this question was not ended. The negro was in Congress, and he would be here.

Mr. Shepherd said he thought a better hobby ought to be chosen to ride in and out of office on, and he still desired to see the agitation on this subject ended.

The amendment of Mr. Callan was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Byington, Callan, Edmonston, Emerson, Given, Hitz, Mohun, Mulloy, Stevens, and Talbert—10.

Nays—Messrs. Grinder, Lewis, Murtagh, Peake, Raub, Shepherd, Wilson, and Richards—8.

Mr Edmonston moved to strike out $100 and insert $50, for plans, &c.

Mr. Mulloy moved to make the amount $75.

Mr. Richards urged the passage of the bill.

Mr. Emerson moved to lay the bill on the table. He favored the measure if we were able, but he did not think the city ought to enter upon such enterprises at this time. The motion to lay on the table was lost by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Callan, Edmonston, Emerson, and Mohun—4.

Nays—Messrs. Byington, Given, Grinder, Hitz, Lewis, Murtagh, Mulloy, Peake, Raub, Shepherd, Stevens, Talbert, Wilson, and Richards—14.

The amendment of Mr. Mulloy was adopted—11 to 7.

The bill, as amended, was then passed.

Mr. Murtagh, from the same committee, reported a bill from the upper Board to discontinue male departments 2 and 3, in the fourth district, with an amendment to establish two primary schools in the same district.

Messrs. Murtagh and Wilson explained the object of the bill and amendment.

The presence of soldiers in Island Hall, where the schools were kept, rendered it necessary to remove the two departments named to smaller buildings belonging to the corporation, which removal necessitated the appointment of two teachers as principals, instead of assistants, as before. This increase of duty rendered an increase of salary proper, and an additional appropriation was required by this bill for this purpose.

The amendment was adopted, and the bill passed.

The bill in relation to the improvement of Judiciary square was reconsidered and passed.

An act to supply a deficiency in printing and binding for the two boards, reported from the Ways and Means Committee, was passed.

The same committee also reported, through Mr. Wilson, a bill remonstrating against certain amendments to the Metropolitan Police bill, now pending in Congress. Passed.

Mr. Wilson also reported a bill to increase the compensation of certain officers of the corporation. Postponed.

Bill to increase the salary of the ward physicians was passed.

Mr. Wilson moved that when this board adjourn, it adjourn to meet next Thursday, at 5 o'clock, to consider the matter of street railway.

A resolution from the upper board, that the boards meet next Monday, at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of electing Commissioners on Election, was passed, and the board adjourned.

Amusements.

"EAST LYNNE; OR, THE ELOPEMENT."—A new play, thus entitled, is announced for production at Ford's Athenæum to-night, and if its success here approaches in completeness, or in brilliancy, that which marked its performance last week at Holliday Street Theatre, for which establishment it was specially written by an accomplished and well-known dramatist, the management will have ample cause to congratulate himself upon the results of his enterprise and liberality. The new play is based upon the novel of "East Lynne, or The Earl's Daughter," by Mrs. Henry Wood, an English authoress of deserved celebrity on both sides of the Atlantic, and is praised by the entire press of Baltimore, with a heartiness which amply guarantees its excellence. The story of "East Lynne" is irresistibly sympathetic in its sentiment, and has been wrought into its dramatic form with admirable skill and ingenuity. Several of its scenes are referred to by the critics of Baltimore, as being in the highest degree effective and touching, so much so that few auditors, however unused to "the melting mood," can resist the softening influence of their sad suggestiveness. The story of the play, told in brief, is that of a beautiful and accomplished wife, who, deserting her husband and children, in a moment of jealous madness, returns disguised, after years of anguish and remorse, to fill the position of governess to her own children. She discovers that her yet fondly-loved husband is wedded to her hated rival, and this grief, added to her ever-acting remorse, eventually kills her, but not before she has received the forgiveness of the man she had so deeply wronged. Upon this sympathetic foundation is built a play of absorbing interest and beauty, and one which, if its merits be all that is claimed for it, and that we are disposed to concede, will prove a delightful addition to the stock of popular plays.

GROVER'S THEATRE.—The success of this grand establishment is still at the flood. Each succeeding night finds audiences more brilliant in appearance and larger in numbers than on the preceding evening. The beauty and comfort of the house is being more fully developed at each attendance, and the public now are more thoroughly appreciating the genius and labors Herculean of Napoleonic Manager Grover. Last evening, Mr. E. L. Tilton made his first regular dramatic appearance, in conjunction with Miss Susan Denin and Mr. Sen. Rogers. We think that the culminating point of a combination company has been most cleverly calculated and admirably effected by Manager Grover. With his powerful and artistic triple company, he can now produce, in first-rate style, many pieces of rare merit and acknowledged popularity, which cannot be performed, even in an inferior manner, by a large majority of what are known as the standard theatres of the country.

The "Willow Copse" was presented last evening in a manner unprecedented in our recollection. It was an unequivocal success, and was frequently interrupted by avalanches of applause. In the most impressive scenes of this thrilling drama, there were but few eyes in the house that were not moistened with irrestrainable tears of sympathy. Mr. Tilton, Miss Denin, and Miss Hough, each met with a flattering reception, and were called before the curtain several times. The piece will be repeated this evening by universal request; it is well worth the price of admission to see Getz's great scene of the "Banks of the Llewyn." The performances will commence with the laughable farce, "Your Life's in Danger."

CANTERBURY HALL.—Success crowns success at this popular musical resort. A novelty, called "The Virginia Mummy," was produced last evening to an audience overflowing and enthusiastic. Mr. Frank Brower impersonates the principal character, Ginger Blue, which is teeming with fun; and from the manner in which it was received by the audience, we doubt not but that it will enjoy a lengthy "run." Miss Millie Fowler, the beautiful and graceful disciple of Terpsichore, and Miss Ida Duval, the song-bird, still appear each night, receiving loud encores in their new and artistic songs and dances.

CONTINENTAL OPERA HOUSE.—A large and brilliant audience, among whom were many ladies, assembled at the Continental last night, to greet the charming vocalist, Miss Mary Walton. This talented lady was rapturously encored in every piece she sang, and achieved a triumph of which she may well be proud. The grand National tableau, presented last evening for the first time, was well received, and will be repeated this evening. On dit, that Miss Marietta Ravel, the greatest danseuse now on the American stage, is shortly to appear at this establishment. We are pleased to inform the public that the fine overtures of the orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Nachman, create, every night, a great sensation among the spectators. To-night, a new and fine bill.

Baltimore Annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

Conference met, and the roll was called. The minutes were read and approved.

Reports from the several committees were heard.

The ordination of the following preachers as elders took place:

R. H. Cain, H. McNeal Turner, R. P. Gibbs, George E. Boyer.

The ordination sermon was preached by Rev. D. W. Moore. Text: I Timothy, 2d, 3d, and 4th verses. He spoke in an impressive manner of the nature of the responsibility the young men were about to assume.

Bishop Payne concluded with the impressive and solemn ordination service.

An interesting occurrence was the presentation to the bishop, immediately after ordination, of a splendid steel engraving—"the death-bed scene of Wesley." Rev. A. W. Wayman made the presentation address, and Bishop Payne responded in a truly eloquent and most touching address, which brought tears to all eyes.

The conference then adjourned.

The Centre Market.

We perceive that workmen are engaged in tearing off the mouldy, looking shingles which cover the Centre Market, and are engaged in reshingling it. Better tear down the whole mean combination of ugly looking cabins, and put up a new market-house which would be a credit to the city, than to spend money on an object which is a disgrace to us.

The Soldier.

Named Quinn, who was so severely stabbed, as we reported yesterday, we are glad to know, is rapidly improving, thanks to the kind attentions of Justice Stratton and the officers of the tenth district, the care of Dr. Croggon, and a naturally strong constitution. He will recover, although it seems almost a miracle.

Common Drunkard.

Mary Griffith, living near the navy yard, on Sunday last became so completely lost to all sense of shame or decency in the use of the cup of ruin, that she was lying on the commons crazy drunk. Officer Harmon took her before Justice Stratton, who sent her to the work-house as a common drunkard.

Bound to have a Frolic.

Frank Phillips, a smart, bright-looking darkey servant in one of the regiments stationed at Arlington, having been paid off last week, concluded he would come to town and have a time somewhere on the strength of his funds. On Sunday last, in the course of his perambulations in pursuit of [illegible] he fell into the bawdy house of Catharine Mason, on the island. Here he succeeding in captivating the tender affections of Mary Jane Taylor, who filched a dollar out of him, one half of which was duly paid over to Charlotte, according to contract. Mary Jane Ward, another fair but frail damsel, asked him to treat. He gave her a dollar note, and told her to get two drinks with it. Mary Jane No. 2 did so, but by some means forgot to give Frank the change. She says a man snatched it away from her and ran away. Frank didn't like the proceedings, and thinking he hadn't got his money's worth, went to the police station and lodged complaint against the two Mary Janes. They were arrested and taken before Justice Stratton, who sent them to the work-house as prostitutes.

Goddchalk and the Opera.

We are delighted to inform our music-loving citizens that the principal artists of the Italian opera, from the New York Academy of Music, in conjunction with the great pianist, L. M. Gottschalk, will shortly visit Washington and give a few of their brilliant entertainments. Mr. Gottschalk has just returned from the West, where he has been very successful. The artists who will assist him include Mad. D'Angi, the great contralto and only rival of Alboni; Sig. Brignoli, Manconi, and Susini. Who are two well known here to need any praise. Sig. Muzio will have the entire musical direction. The entertainment is to consist of two parts—a grand Gottschalk concert, and the scenes and acts of the most modern operas, in full costume. The time and particulars will be duly announced by advertisement.

Sent to the Work-house.

Mag. Russel, better known among the fancy as "Irish Mag.," a regular feminine fiend, ready at all times for any "divilment," whether it is fighting, cursing, obscenity, or drinking, and especially the latter, which she appears to have a particular and ungovernable passion for, has been domiciliating in Fighting alley, at the notorious den of infamy, kept by "Till Wade," but "Mag." became too much of a drunkard even for her. She could submit to it no longer, and so complained of "Mag." to the officers yesterday, who took her to the station-house, when Justice Stratton sent her to the work-house as a common drunkard and prostitute.

An old Drummer Gone.

Our Massachusetts boys in the army will learn with regret, the sad fate of a well-known and esteemed drummer belonging to their State. "Uncle John Saville," a drummer in the last war, and the most scientific of his craft in the country, hung himself at Roxbury, Mass., recently. He was buried with respectful formality and military honors, at the famous Mount Auburn Cemetery. He has "beat his last retreat," and waits the "Reveille" of the resurrection morn. Peace to his ashes!

Disorderly.

Two young men from Georgetown, John Archer and —— Baltzer, went down on Eleventh street wharf last Sunday, and got on a lark, using profane language, and acting in an otherwise disorderly manner. They were requested to desist, and warned of the consequence, by Officers Barker and Ashton; but the young squirts, considering their own course the best, continued their frolic, when the officers arrested them and took them before Justice Stratton, who fined them $3.94 each. Rather dear sport, unless it leads to their reformation.

A Mean Trick.

Some of the late owners of slaves are playing a mean trick on the freed men and women. They tell them that until the Government pays the money they remain as much slaves as ever. By this falsehood, the services of these poor people can be made use of gratuitously for a few days longer. The colored people ought to be informed by their friends of the true state of the case. They are absolutely free, and their late masters have no particle of right to their time or labor without paying the market price for it. WILBERFORCE.

Pontoon Train.

A portion of a pontoon train has been standing for nearly a month in the open air on Maryland avenue. No one seems to have any care of the train, and it seems to us that some loss may accrue to the Government by the exposure to the weather or the peculations of thieves.

Sale of Land.

Wall & Barnard, auctioneers, sold, yesterday afternoon, at their auction rooms, a part of a tract of land adjoining the Seventh street toll-gate, with improvements, for four thousand and fifty dollars. Purchased by Daniel Mahrling.

DIED.

On the 27th instant, with typhoid pneumonia, Mr. James S. Smith, in the 35th year of his age.

His funeral will take place to-day at 3 o'clock, from his late residence, 596 Seventh street east.

He leaves a wife to whom he was ever kind, and children who will ever know the worth of an indulgent father.
