their political associations. He will wear no party fetters, but at the same time will never conceal his preference and predilections.

In the present campaign he will favor the election of Messrs. Pierce and King, believing them to be "honest, compatent, and faithful to the Constitution"—to be good Union, Compromise men—occupying a good Union, Compromise platform—sustained by the conservatives of the North and richly deserving the support of all parties at the South.

He will also give a cordial, hearty support to the present Chief Magistrate of Georgia, believing that his past acts, his present administration and his devotion to the Union, entitle him to the parise of the wise and good, and will yet win for him the confidence of the nation.

The undersigned deems it unnecessary to say more. He is not unknown to the people of Georgia, with whom he has held editorial intercourse, and for whose kind and liberal patronage, heretofore bestowed, he is profoundly thankful. He has established the Courier upon a permanent basis, and is resolved to make it worthy of popular support. The arrangements for local and foreign news are ample, and will be extended to meet the utmost demands of the public. The first number will be issued on the 26th inst., or as soon thereafter as the necessary office arrangements can be perfected. Post Masters and others who will obtain aubscribers and remit the money, will be allowed the usual par centage for their trouble.

Mr. J. EDREHI, a native of Morocco, has the sale an excellent article called AMULETS, which is preventive of Cholera, Scarlet Fever and other contagious diseases—was extensively worn in England during the rage of Cholera in 1832, and twas approved by the Medical Faculty in that country. This Amulet is a berry that grows upon a tree on Mount Lebanon, in a Botanic Garden near Jerusalem. It has been patronized in the four quarters of the world. This Amulet is an excellent article to prevent the spread of contagious diseases—from its smell is a preventive of Fevers and general usedine of the system. It is worn as a necklace around the neck for ornament, and also as a bracelet around the wrist. From its strong odor, it is an excellent and a certain article for the preventive of moths in clothing.

This article is patronized in England, France and Italy, and likewise acquired universal patronage in America. No one should be without this excellent article.

Ladies and gentlemen! You have now the only opportunity of purchasing them you will have, or have again when I am gone. They are sold at a reasonable price—from $1 to $4 for each necklace.

Mr. Edrehi will remain but a short time, and may be found at the new Segar and Tobacco store, between 45 and 3d streets, Pennsylvania avenue.

PROSPECTUS OF "THE MEDIUM,"

A Newspaper to be published Daily and Weekly in New York and Washington City.

Such has been the progress of sectional feeling, that a mutual exchange of opinion between the North and the South has become indispensable to quiet the public mind and restore mutual confidence and good will.

With this view, it is proposed to publish in New York and Washington City, a daily and weekly Newspaper, in which the ablest writers of both sections may present the facts and arguments upon which they rely, in support of the interests and institutions of each, under the hope that such a paper, conducted with fairness, moderation, and candor, and with an earnest desire to subdue sectional prejudice, will obtain extensive circulation, and exert a beneficial influence.

Part of the plan is to invite, by an offer of premiums, prize essays on the subjects of British Abolition, British Commerce, British Finance, British Banking, and British Diplomacy, and also on the American Tariff, American Commerce, American Banks, American Currency, and African Slavery. These questions, it is hoped will put in requisition the ablest pens of the whole country, and give to "The Medium" an interest and character which will secure for it a support commensurate with the expenditure necessarily incurred.

COTTON PLANT.

COTTON PLANT.

A Southern journal, published weekly, to advocate direct trade, manufactures, agriculture, and the development of Southern resources by C. G. BAYLOR, Washington, D. C.

The importance of such a journal as the above needs no exposition. The material and substantial interests of the South have been too long neglected. The "Cotton PLANT" is established to promote these interests, keeping entirely aloof from party or party politics. A complete foreign and domestic correspondence has been arranged. The best talent of the country will contribute to our columns, which will present a medium of general communication, correspondence, and information for the friends of the measures we advocate. The proper steps have been taken in Europe and America to lay the foundation of a direct foreign trade at the South, and to introduce our coarse manufactures into the continental European market. One object of the "Cotton PLANT" will be, as the organ of direct trade, to stimulate the South to carry out this important measure.

Measure.
We call upon the Southern merchants generall to send us their business cards, that we may lay them before the country, to enable the friends of Southern commerce, manufactures, &c., to discriminate properly in their desire to promote Southern commerce.

$100 Reward.

RAN OFF from my plantation, on Red river, eighteen milea above Alexandria, in the State of Louisiana, last February or March, a mulatto or griffe colored negro man, about 33 years old, compactly built, and about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high, and weighs about 150 or 160 pounds. He talke slowly and walks in the same way, a good look ing fellow, and has fine and sound teeth; his name is Austin, but 1 hear he has changed his name, and says he belongs to some Doctor, at Natchitoches.

I have reason to believe he is cutting wood or working for some trifling person, near the mouth of Black River, as he arrived there in company with another negro, in the flat they carried away with another negro, in the flat they carried away from my Ferry.

If he went off in any steamboat that is not destroyed, and will be responsible for an action of damages, I will give 2000 dollars for proof to conviction in open court, at ALEXANDRIA, against any captain, master, or commander so allowing him or aiding him to make his escape, on their boat, from my service.

I will give the above raward of $100 for Austin delivered in any slave State jail, so that I get him J. D. ALLEN.

In the first attempts of this Company to meet the wants of travel to California, by providing ships on the Pacific, in connection with their ships from New York to Chagres, they were prevailed upon, at the urgent solicitation of the great number then desirous to go out, to sell tickets for through passages from Panana in advance, for their ships then going round This was done from a desire to accommodate those who could procure passages in no other quarter, and by which, whatever might be the detention, they would reach San Francisco sooner than by any other line. Unforeseers difficulties, and the prevalence of fever at Rio de Janeiro at the time, prevented their ships from reaching Panama as soon as anticipated, and caused detention at the 1sthmus, which was increased by the impatience of passengers in going forward, against the advice of the Company, at an earlier day than the ship could possibly reach Panama.

These interruptions are now all removed. Three of the four ships of the Company, intended for the Pacific service, have arrived at Panama, and several of them have performed trips to San Francisco and back. So that the Company are now able to give the public the assurance that the voyage through from New York to San Francisco, will be performed with regularity and despatch.

Industrial Resources and Progress of the Southern and Western States, In three large and closely-printed volumnes, small types, double columes, handsome print, paper, and binding. (Being a digest and abridgment of the twelve volumes of De Bow's Review.) Price, $10, or $3.33 per volume.

or $3.33 per volume.

DESIROUS of supplying the large and continually increasing demand for the complete series of the Review in 12 vols., now exhausted, and which it would require a very large outlay to reprint, the editor has been induced to make a selection of all the important and valuable papers contained in them from the beginning, condensing, rearranging, and completing to date, and throwing the subjects, after the manner of the encyclopædians, into alphabetical order. In this manner everything of interest and importance will be preserved in a convenient form for reference; and the volumes will constitute the only repository for the shelves of the library, of such information, which, by means of the monthly numbers hereafter; will always be brought down to date.

The volumes will embrace the gist of everything that has appeared in the Review relating to the Southern and Western States, (an imperfect index of which will be found at the opening of the 10th volume.) to wit:

Southern and Western States, an imperied index of which will be found at the opening of the complete statistics of Railroads; results, profits, expenses, costs, advantages, miles in projection, construction, completed, &c.; Plank Reads, Canals, Navigation, &c. Statistics of Health and Diseases, wealth and progress; relative condition, whites and blacks; Slave Laws and Statistics, management and amelioration of slavery origin, history, and defences of slavery and slave institutions; the valuable treaties of Harper, Hammond, Drew, on slavery, &c. Commerce of the South and West in all of its minute particulars, &c.; together with a historical and statistical sketch of each of the States and cities; the tistical sketch of each of the States and cities; the domestic and foreign trade, resources, manufactures, &c., of the United States; the Census Returns from 1790, with the complete statistics of the Census of 1850.

The volumes will be issued in September, October, and November, 1852; and orders are solicited in advance, payable on delivery to merchants, or to the parties themselves.

DE Bow's Review, of which this is a condensation, is published monthly in New Orleans, and other Southern and Western cities, 112 to 140 pages, small print, fine paper, and engravings, and treats of all the great industrial matters relating to the Southern and Western States, and incidentally of the North and the Union. Terms $5 per The volumnes hereafter will be uniform with the

RAN away from the subscriber, October 27th, 1837, from his residence on Willow Swamp, South Ediato River, Orangeburg District, South Carolina, a negro man named HOWARD, about six feet high, and otherwise well proportioned and of black complexion, full faced, high fore head, a prominent nose, and no whiskers; havning on one of his arms the letter S, or a mark resemilting it. He had a scar on the inner ankle of, presume, the left foot. He speaks with plausibility and ease; is rather assuming in his address, yet mild and humble in his manners. He is a keen, shrewd fellow, walks fast and quite erect, and is apt to bear uncommonly much on his toes when hurried. He said that he originally belonged to a farmer named Joshua Lee, near Clinton, in Virginia; either there or Norfolk or Richmond, in that State, I presume he took up quarters. Any person finding and apprehending the same, and delivering him safely into the hands of the subscriber, shall receive the above reward of one hundred dollars, besides reasonable expenses that he may be at in coming and returning. 100 DOLLARS REWARD !
