A Cheap Purchase.
W. M. But feeling a need of something to sell at about 50 cents and not being satisfied to sell the narrow and inferior goods—measuring only 31 inches—which are now being sold in this and other markets at 50 cents, they have concluded to sell this purchase at 52 1/2 cents measuring 35 inches full. Samples will be given for comparison in this or any other market.

An Important Sale.

At the City Hall, Wilmington, on Saturday morning next, at 11 o'clock, Mr. J. T. Head will sell at public sale the well known Grubb farm (late of Geo. Jackson), located on the road leading from New Castle to Newport, near its junction with the Hare's Corner road. This farm is most desirably located, contains over 104 acres, is well improved, and altogether is one of the finest farm properties in New Castle county. It will be sold positively, on accommodation terms, and should attract the attention of all persons interested in real estate.

OLD NEWSPAPER FRIENDS.

Esquire Hagarty was busily engaged in moving his office effects, this morning, and among other old papers he came across some DELAWARE GAZETTES, containing the issues from November 5th of 1868 to December 10th, 1876, inclusive. Bound with these were copies of the semi-weekly Carroll's United States Record, of Philadelphia, from June 28th to August 25th, 1878, inclusive. The DELAWARE GAZETTE was then owned by W. C. Smith, who had just purchased it from Bonnell & Starr, and the office, according to the publisher's announcement, was in the "rear of the new Fire Engine." These valuable relics are now at the Esquire Hagarty's safe-keeping until Esquire Hagarty gets safely located in his new quarters at the S. E. corner of Sixth and Shipley streets.

AN EXCITING CHASE.

This morning, as officer Dowling, of the Third District, was passing Fourth and Adams streets, he was called by Peter J. Ford, grocer, corner of Third and Adams street. The officer went down to him, and was informed that a colored man having in his possession a watch and hand had just passed along Third street.

The man was about three squares ahead of the officer, and upon seeing the officer coming toward him, he started on a run. The officer gave chase, and when the suspect was passing through Hedgeville, he dropped the ham. The chase continued until the negro reached Brown town, where the officer lost sight of him. The officer secured the ham and it is now at the police station awaiting an owner. Who the man was, or who he had robbed is unknown.

POLICE CASES.

The following cases were disposed of last evening and this morning by Mayor Almond:
William Devitt and James Bridgman for assault and battery on Solomon Smith, were each required to pay $3 and costs.
Newton Lamplugh was arraigned on the charge of using indecent language toward Emma Murphy. The evidence did not prove the charge and he was dismissed.

James Conner for being drunk and disorderly, was required to pay $3 and costs.
A. Stradley and Daniel McCormick, for disorderly conduct, forcing their way into the residence of William Dennis, and using obscene language and committing an assault and battery upon said William Dennis. Penalty $10 and costs each.

The Arlington Strike.

WILMINGTON, March 25, 1879.
MR. EDITOR.—I see other papers, the Republican and Every Evening & Commercial, a great amount of talk about the Arlington strike, and more. I am told that Mr. Gambrell would like to starve the poor of Brandywine out, but the poor of Brandywine could buy and sell him. And, Mr. Editor, he has been going to other mills to try to get the bosses not to hire the strikers, but the gentlemen of the other mills have been more honorable. During different times he has made the employees work overtime without paying them for it, but he has given them one apple for it and if they did not like that they could leave. In regard to him shutting down the mill that is not so.

He did not shut down on account of the employees not working for thirty-eight cents a cent, as he wanted them to do. There are 5 or 6 old women who would work for about $8.00 per month, now I think they ought to be chubbied out for undermining the others.

LETTER FROM SAM'L TOWNSEND

For the DELAWARE GAZETTE.

The readers of the GAZETTE will recollect that in the controversy about Newark College I have been very charitable to the fellow that runs the Newark Ledger—Esling or Eslink—knowing that in a small town like Newark their paper must fall below the average one-horse papers. It says I am pig-headed. This fellow was only brought to that town to do their dirty slandering; but it appears this Eslink, who from the appearance of his head resembles a cross between a 'coon and an ape, is very much elated at an article of Bill XXX Crossdale, of the Every Evening, against me, and had not this 'coon and ape-headed Eslink lived on the confines of Cat Swamp he would have seen my reply in the GAZETTE to his friend B. C. XXX., of the Every Evening. Now Mr. 'Coon and Ape-headed Eslink of the Newark Ledger, I have a warm and charitable feeling towards my fellow-man, and it always makes me feel sorry when I look at such a fellow as you, for it brings to mind a curse in Scripture that no deformed 'coon and ape-headed beings shall enter the Kingdom of Heaven. And although your friend, scallawag Bill XXX Crossdale is a first-class infidel and splendid swearer, he is not so liable to be rejected at the gates of Heaven as you are, for Bill XXX Crossdale, I admit, has the appearance of an ordinary mortal and you have not, and therefore come under the meaning of that particular curse of Scripture. In conclusion, the Newark College men, I am glad to see, have abandoned the project to get money through our Legislature, for they have allowed you to personally insult the members of the Legislature generally, and you close your article by asking the good Lord to deliver you from such men. I shall save this copy of the Newark paper of the 22d of March to take to Dover with me two years hence, if I should be living and the old college friends make new requests.

SAMUEL TOWNSEND.

Townsend, March 24th, 1879.
