of Thomas Fagan, liveryman on Orange street.

The body arrived in this city yeaterday norning on the 9.17 train and was removed at once to St. Joseph's Cemetery, where interment took place. No application was made at the registrar's office and no permit was issued, and consequently the whole affair was in direct violation of the law. The law says that the keeper of coaches or any person who assists at a liable to a fine of 810 for violating this law. Registrar Frazer has notified Thomas Fagan and will also serve a notice upon the grave digrer who opened the grave and all others who assisted at the funera and all others who assisted at the funeration of this kind, and if instructions fall fines will be imposed as provided by the health laws embodied in the city ordinance.

A CARELES DRIVER.

A CARELIES DIRIVEE.

Serious Injury to a Woman Koocked down by a Wagon.

About 9.20 o'clock this morning Mrs. Tobitha M. Berson, an aged lady, living at No. 204 West Twelfth street, was knocked down and seriously injured by a reckless driver at the crossing at Tatnall street and Delaware avenue.

She had almost reached the curb on the north side of the avenue when a trocer's waron driven by a half-grown boy came along at a very rapid rake, the oriver apparently unaware of the fact that Mrs. Beason could not get out of the way. When the wagon struck her she was for her her beat of the reckless driver in the maantime never latting.

She beat a supplied to the manufacture of the serious struck her she was considered into the action of the serious struck her she was found and the reckless driver in the maantime never latting.

The reckies driver in the meantime never halting.

Liv. A. J. Stubbs was called and found that Mrs. Benson's injuries consisted of a contused heat and a larvertated scalp, besides a number of fruites about the body. She was conveyed to her home, where she partially regained consciousness, but is still in a very precardous condition from the effects of a severe nervous prostration.

Those who saw the accident were unable to state who the driver of the team was, or who the team belonged to, but declare that it was a grocer's wagon, with a gray horse, and that the hoy driving wore glasses.

An effort will be made to have the driver apprehended and made an example of, as it is of too common an occurrence to have irresponsible buys drive like mad along a crowdes thoroughfare, without the slightest attempt to avoid just such accidents as that of the common.

The paint store of Edward A. Osler, No. 4 East Seventh street, was closed by the sheriff vesterslay. It is taited that Mr. Osler went away some days are, after collacting all the outstanding blish he could, leaving the business in charge of his brother, who finally notified Phildelphia and Camden creditors, and they came down and had the cetablishment closed. There are several creditors in this city who are suxious to know Osler's whereabouts also.

Why is Oak Hall a larger customer to the Express Com-panies than any oth r Clothing House in the country? do personal orders come to Oak Hall from every State and Territory in the land? The rea sons are plain. Oak Hall methods, goods and prices command universal confidence. We tell this story to our fellowworkers in this city as an added reason why the big stock and low prices should cause them to make their clothing purchases at Oak Hall.

OUR FIRST NUMBER FOR FALL.

You will see many adver tisements about large stocks of Fall and Winter Goods and each one will claim to be ahead of their competitors, but we will be content to let the readers of THE GAZETTE know we have a larger stock than usual because our trade de-mands it, and this is an evidence that our goods are sold at as low prices as elsewhere, or a little lower for same quality.
Our Children's Stock is com-

We do not mean by that to tell you we keep the low-price shoddy goods, but we do have a good quality at a very low price, and yet we sell more of our suits from five to ten dollars.

In our Boys' Department we have some very stylish gar-ments to show you, while the young men cannot help being pleased by making a selection from our nobby styles. We have over Forty Styles to show you in our Men's partment, and now, kind reader, just visit us at your earliest convenience and let us show you our goods, and see if it will not be to our mutual interests to deal with each other.

This does not give you much of an idea of our stock, but if you will stop in at
