

Pious Indian Agents.

The experiment of substituting pity for bullets as an agency to subjugate the hostile Indians, is to be confirmed. We are willing saintly men should do the work, if they only will do it. A recent Washington dispatch says:

Following is the list of Indian agencies tendered to the various missionary associations and religious bodies:

The Methodists, seven, in Washington, Montana, and Oregon. No appointments have yet been made.

The Presbyterians, six, in Arizona, Utah and New Mexico. Four have been appointed, namely, D. N. Crathern, S. D. Williamson, O. F. Piper, and Isaac F. Warden.

The Baptists, five, in Nevada, Idaho and the Indian Territory. No appointments yet.

The Episcopalians, six, in Dakota. Five have been appointed, viz., J. Leo Englebert, Henry F. Livingston, J. M. Washburne, Henry Gregortz and Samuel D. Webster.

The sixth agency when established will be in Spotted Tail's and Red Cloud's regions.

The American Board of foreign Missions, two, in Indian Territory, the appointments being Henry Brewer and Theodore D. Griffith.

The Dutch Reformed, two, in Arizona. No appointments.

The Unitarians, two, in Colorado.

The Congregationalists, four, in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. Three have been appointed—John P. Bardwell, Seldon N. Clark, and M. T. Richardson.

The Loman Catholic, four, in Dakota, New Mexico, Montana and Idaho. Two have been appointed—W. F. Cady and Charles S. Jones.

Unassigned, five, in Montana, Oregon, Washington, Iowa and New York. Appointed, F. D. Pasa, C. S. King, John Smith, Leonard Clark and Daniel Sherman.

AGAIN the Bands of the S. P. R. are rejoicing. A dispatch of a late date from New York to San Diego, announces that the powerful Lower California Colonization company has joined its resources and strength with the 32d Parallel company, and the San Diego people held a jubilation over the union. They have renounced hope of a lively production of the two units of the new combination. Really, we hope they are not mistaken, as an people have a larger interest to be affected by the new road than those of Arizona.

DEATH OF COL. GERRAN ST. VRAIN. —The Santa Fe Post of Oct. 30 comes to us mourning for Col. St. Vrain, one of New Mexico's pioneer settlers and distinguished citizens who died Oct. 23 at Mora. The Post has an obituary for which we shall find room next week.

Col. St. Vrain was well known and esteemed in Arizona, and we join the Post in paying tribute to his good qualities and in sincere regret that he has been called away.

A telegram to the Post thus refers to his funeral:

FOUR UNION, Oct. 31.—The funeral of Col. St. Vrain was attended by Gen. Gregg and nearly all the officers of Ft. Union. Capt. Shaw of the 8th Cavalry, with his troops, acted as an escort; the General and his staff as pall bearers. He was buried by the Masonic fraternity, and an ex-colonel of Volunteers with military honors. Over 2,000 persons were present.

The services were impressive and the surroundings of a highly impressive character. Nothing equal to it has ever been seen in New Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Capt. E. D. Baker has been relieved from duty in the Department of Columbia and ordered to Camp Hall, Nevada. Upon the recommendation of the Paymaster General, Major Brantz Mayer has been assigned to duty in the Department of California and ordered to San Francisco for duty.

GOVERNOR J. Wilson Shaffer, of Utah, is dead. He was from Illinois, and served on General Butler's staff at New Orleans. His appointment to Utah is said to have been at the instance of Gen. B.

Shaffer was a man of much decision of character and openly antagonistic to the Mormons. He had been in poor health for some time and lately visited California for a change of air. He was over forty years of age. His wife died but a few months since.

JERRY Davis again in Richmond.

Laws of the United States

We are well aware that there is little profit in printing the laws of the United States, at the prices now paid, yet we feel complimented by the following telegram just received from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

GETTYSBURG, PA. OCT. 21 1870
The ARIZONA CITIZEN will be substituted for the Arizona for printing the laws of the next session of Congress. EDWARD McPHERSON, Clerk House of Representatives.

HEREAFTER all advertisements for Southern Arizona from the War Department will appear in the CITIZEN by official designation.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.
President Grant issued the annexed Proclamation Oct. 21:

Whereas, it behooves a people sensible of their dependence on the Almighty, publicly and collectively to acknowledge the gratitude of His mercy, and humbly beseech for their continuance;

And whereas, the people of the United State, during the year now about to end, have cause to be thankful for general prosperity, abundant harvests, exemption from pestilence, foreign war and civil strife;

Now Therefore, be it known, that I, U. S. GRANT, President of the United States, concurring in any similar recommendations by chief magistrates of States, do hereby recommend to all citizens to meet in their respective places of worship, on Thursday the 24th day of November next, to give thanks for the bounty of God during the year about to close, and to supplicate for a continuance hereafter.

A Wise Prophet.

A correspondent of the Alta California writing from here, who signs himself "Tucson," but whose usual signature is S. M., gets off the following:

"The political campaign opened here by a speech from Hon. R. C. McCormick, of about two hours, on the evening of the 9th.

Hon. Sylvester Mowry replied to him on the evening of the 6th. Both speakers had crowded houses, and I presume gave their respective party friends equal satisfaction. Mr. Mowry spoke an hour, and made a veritable sensation by reading a letter from McCormick to the Attorney General of the United States, asking him for a decision that the Pinos and Mattopepas, Papagos, and Yuma Apache Indians should be allowed to vote, and in time for the next election.

Of course, among a frontier people such a letter is very damaging. Both gentlemen seemed to understand their audience. Let the American Eagle alone, and make a clear, easy, fit talk. The indications from all parts of the territory are that Brady will beat McCormick by a heavy majority."

This is characteristically inaccurate. No sensation whatever was created by the reading of McCormick's letter of 1868 to the Attorney General, which we have already published in full, nor did it ask for any such decision as this correspondent asserts. It was simply an inquiry as to whether by the new franchise law and the various amendments to the Constitution, the status of Indians (not taxed) had been changed. Among frontier, or any other people, such a letter could not be damaging to anyone.

The prediction of Brady's majority is in keeping with the game of brag so largely played by S. M. and his partisans.

We are surprised that the Alta should give place to the letters of a correspondent so unreliable, and whose statements are stamped with so much prejudice. The course of that journal is often inconsistent, but we have never known it more so than in the treatment of Gov. McCormick during the present campaign. We happen to know that the Alta has no better friend in Arizona or Washington than the Governor, and yet S. M. has been allowed to misrepresent him and his prospects ad libitum, and the Alta editors well know that S. M. is his malignant enemy.

The Alta has lost friends all over the Territory by its course, and we cannot do less than advise the people to drop a journal so ready to publish what its editors must know to be false and malicious in the extreme.

MILITARY MATTERS.—Gen. George Stoneman, Commanding Department of Arizona, accompanied by Major M. Cogswell, Special Inspector, and Lt. J. L. Johnson, arrived in this city on Sunday afternoon last, en route to Drum barracks, from a tour of inspection through the Department. General Stoneman and party left Prescott Oct. 13th, and successively inspected the posts at Dute Creek, Colorado, Fort Yuma, and Yuma Depot, coming to San Diego over the Fort Yuma arripke Road. On Monday, Major Cogswell inspected the post at this place, and found the same in excellent condition. Gen. Stoneman and the officers named left for San Pedro on Monday afternoon by the Orizaba.—San Diego Union, Nov. 3.

The 2nd number of the Arizona CITIZEN, published at Tucson, has been received. It presents not only a handsome appearance, but abounds in news of general interest. Its editor is Mr. John Wasson, a gentleman of decided ability and journalistic experience. We well remember the Avalanche—a paper published at Silver City, Idaho Territory, which under the control of Mr. Wasson was the most extensively quoted of any journal on the coast. He afterwards engaged in publishing one of the leading Oakland dailies, and for years has been the able correspondent of the New York Tribune and San Francisco Bulletin. We congratulate our friends of Arizona upon their acquisition of so able an exponent of their local interests, and we wish the Citizen the success it so richly deserves.—San Diego Bulletin, Nov. 5.

FROM YUMA COUNTY.

Arizona City, Nov. 7th, 1870.
EDITOR CITIZEN:—The "Mojave" reports the schooner Isabel and brig Josephine at the mouth of the river.

The steamer Idaho is probably there by this time with troops for this Territory. Over two hundred recruits have arrived at the Fort overland from San Diego.

Rowell & Taylor's train has started for your place with a load of government freight.

Mr. Jacobs left for Tucson Thursday. Mr. Fish passed through here Saturday.

A letter from the north end of the county states that McCormick is sure of 200 majority there. YUCL.

Latest News.

We have just received a liberal instalment of telegraphic news from the office in San Diego, and will continue to receive them by every mail.

When of absorbing interest, we'll try the experiment of publishing them in extra. Our citizens may thus, if they wish, avail themselves of news but 44 days old from all parts of the world.

A Mr. Hillman, of the banking house of Seligman & Co., New York and San Francisco, drew the $100,000 prize in the Mercantile Library lottery on the 31st ult., and Col. Crossbie, of General Sheridan's staff, a $19,000 prize.

GREENBACKS are regularly tending to war. They sold in San Francisco, Nov. 4, at 91½ @ 91½. Uncle Sam's paper is about as good as that of any of his neighbors.
