CALL AND TEMPERANCE. What's the matter with Mays, of Jefferson for United States sensitor? He ought to be acceptable to the Alliance. He is crainly not subject to corporate influence.

He is a man of ability and good, hard common sense. That he and Pasco are tornies should no more be counted against im than against Call is held the fact that be latter and Fleming are Jacksonvillians. That's the matter with Mays of Jefferson in the senate? Say, what's the matter

The temperance people should be for The latter's backers will shortly ed in driving all the har-rooms out of Illahassee. They have opened a dram pop in the opera-house, where liquor is ispensed gratis with a lavish hand, and there a man can get on a good, old "jag" without turning loose a cent of that money thich, under other circumstances, he might deprive his family of. The barms can't stand it long if that lick is kept up. And that such good work in the cause of temperance is appreciated by the imperance people seems attested in the fact that among Mr. Call's warmest supporiers may be found the good Templars of Florida.—Pensacola News.

WHEN SHALL WE THREE MEET AGAIN? Mr. John N. C. Stockton, national unker and senatorial trainer, has been cht a very important, pointed, punctught a very important, pointed, punc-tured and necessary lesson, and it will be metime before he undertakes the job of ning another legislature. As he is yet groung man the lesson he has received be very valuable to him. He and as Alexander and the T.-U. SAVE HIM FROM HIS FRIENDS.

No man ever made better headway a campaign than did Senator Call as gas he had foes to fight, and particuby as those foes were the head of hated orations - railroads and national but while he overcame his eneis almost by a wave of the hand, his pat popularity and prestige could not come the friendship of the Timeson and its "carrier-pigeon" service: the Haddock, Jeems Alexander and that and peculiar Keely-Motor force in Milios, Mr. Jno. N. C. Stockton. The combination" proved disastrous to Sen-or Call's brilliant chances of success, dhis downfall is attributable directly his friends and not to his enemies. If man ever had just cause to exclaim anguish and bitterness of spirit from terry bottom of his socks, "Save me to my friends!" that man is Wilkin-Call. How a man of his political respectively. The state of the the judgment of sensible men.-

LOOK AT THIS.

That a spectacle! Here are these men ring and voting for a man who decian to secure the exalted position of states senator. Buttonholing legisentreating them to give him their official patronage, sending for them to his room, where the strongest ents are held forth to obtain their ort, a free bar is opened where cigars lquors are dispensed with a lavish to influence the weak kneed and vasmembers (there are a few of such), ret avowed temperance men, some of are rank prohibitionists, are giving their support.—Milton Clarion.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED. Banker Stockton struck the wrong man when he made his unprincipled bargain to Dr. Blitch. He didn't know how honest Marion county men were.-New Capitol. IT IS ALL RIGHT ANYHOW.

Call's doom in this contest for senatorial honors is sealed without a peradventure. Already the pallor of death is seen spreading his countenance, but still he hopes. Like a dying miser he hates to leave his

But we think the coming week will set-tle the matter. The name of one man, we believe, if presented again, will meet with a unanimous reception. Be this as it may, Call is out of the race. Should it happen that a nomination cannot be effected during the present session, it will fall to the governor's lot to appoint a senator. We think our legislators value their privileges too much to allow matters to take this turn. Even should Governor Fleming be obliged to do this, Call would not be the man. Now Carlow matters to allow ma not be the man.-New Capitol.

HOW IS THIS FOR UNIQUE?

The Times-Union in a brief half column review of the articles which recently appeared in the Manufacturers' Record Baltimore, says: "Any one interested in the subject of phosphates will do well to send for a copy, etc." * * "It would require too much space in the Times-Union to give anything like a satisfactory synopsis," etc.

Think of it! Here is the at least wouldbe daily of the state, so full of slush about Call that it can't take time to give even a decent notice of the greatest industry of the state. "It would require too much space." And yet here is column after column of soft soap and sycophancy about the men who vote for Call. They are "in-telligent," "respectable," "brilliant," "elo-quent," etc., etc., ad nauseam! There is not one every day ordinary individual in the whole lot! Tombstones always flatter the dead; but if you want it said on thick before you peg out, just vote for Call !-Bartow Courier-Informant.

TAKE OUT THE BEAM IN THINE OWN EYE. If the T.-U. thinks to help Mr. Call's chances by its war on Col. Chipley, it has mistaken the temper of the people. It would be far more useful to the late senator if his friends would defend his public act. This attempt to arouse prejudice is no credit to the profession of journalism .-Monticello Constitution.

Italy's Condition for War.

Italy's area is 114,410 square miles, and its population about 29,000,000. Its standing army consists of about 262,000 men, and on leave of absence there are 35,800 men who are technically considered to belong to the permanent army. Then there are militia of various orders amounting to nearly 2,000,000 more men, who could be called into service in case of invasion. Italy's king is Umberto I. Its assumed superiority in navy would hardly avail in a conflict on this side of the Atlantic, which is where the war would be if any should occur with us. The lack in coaling capacity and seagoing qualities would keep most of Italy's fighting ships at home in any such war. There is no danger that Italy or any other European nation could obtain a lodgment in the United States.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
