The words are those which will be used in the preliminary round of city-wide spelling bee, which will open at the meetings this week.

Each club participating in the spelling bee will select five persons to represent it in the finals to be held in January.

Meeting of the Garfield Park club, scheduled for this week, will be postponed until Friday, Dec. 23. A Christmas program will be given at that time. The Young People's orchestra of the Federation of Olive Clubs, under the direction of Leslie C. Troutman, will furnish music.

About six new organizations will be received into the brotherhood of the Leisure Hour clubs after Christmas. Committees of the groups now are meeting with Ritter.

Music will dominate the program in the Brookside Park Community house Wednesday.

The Bethel Negro Male chorus will sing, and the Radio Rangers will give a group of old time songs. Then will come the spelling bee, which will be music to the ears of lovers of orthography (look that one up!).

Movies from the state department of conservation will be shown Wednesday at the meeting in J. T. V. Hill Community house. J. F. Kaylor of the department will be in charge.

With more than 5,000 present at the Friday night meetings of Leisure Hour clubs throughout the city, attendance figures for all clubs for last week ballooned to almost 7,500.

Biggest week of the season is predicted for next week, when movies and Christmas programs are expected to bring the crowds thronging to the meetings.

Louis Stockman demonstrating one step of the new Hi-Ho dance with Miss Rosemary Krueger, 5264 College avenue.

Catchy, clever and yet easy to dance, is the new Hi-Ho step, originated by Louis Stockman, national dance authority, in collaboration with The Indianapolis Times' popular silhouette puzzle game, which has won the fancy of thousands of its readers.

Just to show Times readers what a good dance it is, and how easy it is to learn, Stockman will teach it free of charge to all those who will fill out the coupon in today's paper and bring it to the Lyric ballroom at 7:30 Thursday night. If you can't come Thursday, free instructions also will be given Saturday night at 7:30.

 Stockman is one of the best-known dance teachers in the country.

The Hi-Ho, which is being taught to Stockman's classes, may be danced to any slow or medium tempo fox trot, blues or step time. When danced to slow blues music the knees should be bent on all the off beats of the music.

Directions for the new dance have been prepared by Stockman. The following directions are for the men:

CRIPPLE FIGHTS FOR MONEY TO GET EDUCATION

Legislative Act at Issue in Case of Man Injured
 at Guard Camp.

With patience that has borne him through five years of suffering—two of them in a wheel chair—Lester Bowles, 25, of Franklin, a cripple, fought in superior court five today for money with which to finish his college education.

Unable to walk, except by using improvised stools as crutches, Bowles, a victim of paralysis, seeks $4,020 from the state of Indiana.

This amount, he alleges, is due him under a special 1931 legislative act providing $20 weekly for him "out of humanitarian considerations." The act was passed in Bowles' behalf on pleas of friends.

Kicked by Horse at Camp
 Bowles was a senior at Franklin college when permanently disabled. He was kicked by a horse while with the Indiana national guard at Camp Knox, Ky., Aug. 4, 1927.

In five years, Bowles has proved that doctors' statements, "you never will walk again," were false.

At first, he learned to scoot laboriously about his sick room by bracing himself on two chairs. Then he made the stools by which he hobbles about his home.

Case Under Adversement
 His father, E. M. Bowles, told today how his son has set to work to win his money. Bowles, who is a course in biology.

Judge Russell J. Ryan, who took the case under adversement, must decide whether the legislative act entitles Bowles to the $20 stipend for 201 weeks that elapsed between date of the injury and date when the act became effective, June 30, 1931.

If he gets this money, Bowles hopes to be graduated from college and pay for further medical aid which he believes may cure him.

PIONEERS REVISE RULES

Increased Membership Expected
 Insley Is Re-Elected President.

Increased membership is expected to follow action of the Society of Indiana Pioneers in revising its eligibility rules at the annual business meeting Saturday at the Claypool.

The organization voted to change its rules on membership to conform more closely to dates when counties in the state were formed. In the past, membership has been limited to persons having one ancestor who settled in Indiana prior to Dec. 31, 1830.

William H. Insley was re-elected president. Other officers re-elected were Almus G. Russell, vice-president; Mrs. Walter H. Montgomery, secretary; Miss Katherine Graydon, registrar, and Herbert W. Foltz, treasurer.

Democrat Chiefs Share
 Choice License Plates

McNutt Takes No. 1; Mayr
 Given 2; 13 Goes to South-Bender.

The elite of Indiana Democracy shared the first "spoils" of victory today with apportionment of choice auto license plate numbers today by James Carpenter, chief of the auto license bureau.

Defying, for the third time, the superstition of unlucky numbers, Joe Scheininger of South Bend was allotted No. 13, which, he says, "brings me good luck."

Mrs. Kin Hubbard, widow of the late humorist and paragrapher, received No. 6, which her late husband received for years.

Governor-Elect Paul V. McNutt received license No. 1, according to precedent.

Frank Mayr Jr., secretary of state, was given plate No. 2, and Frederick Van Nuys, senator-elect, received No. 2 bearing a star.

Plate No. 3 went to R. Earl Peters, Democratic state chairman, with Clifford Townsend, Lieutenant-Governor-elect, receiving No. 3 with a star.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Werneke, Terre Haute Democratic party figures, received Nos. 14 and 15, respectively.

Others are: H. M. Timilot of Bloomington, McNutt's father-in-law, No. 4; N. J. Studebaker, South Bend auto manufacturer, No. 5; Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman, No. 7; William Storen, state treasurer, No. 8; Bowman Elder, Indianapolis, No. 10; George Mayr, brother of the secretary of state, No. 11; Frank McHale of Logansport, No. 12; Charles Roy, St. Joseph county.

HOOSIER MAYOR
 TO IGNORE PLEA
 OF CIVIL UNION

Richmond Chief Refuses to Halt Police Interference
 With Jobless.

By Times Special
 RICHMOND, Ind., Dec. 12.—Mayor Windsor B. Harris will ignore a telegraphic demand of the American Civil Liberties Union that he take steps to stop police interference with meetings of the unemployed here.

The mayor announced his stand today following receipt of a telegram Saturday from the offices of the union in New York.

"Continuance of this unlawful exercise of power will lead to serious outbreaks," the message declared. "May we have your assurance that the police will be stopped? If not, we must take the issue into the courts. Please wire answer collect."

In a statement accompanying announcement that the message had been dispatched, the union charges that Richmond police used gas bombs Dec. 6 to break up a meeting in Workers center, attended by fifty persons, as protest against a reduction in poor relief ranging from 20 to 35 per cent.

The statement asserts that in March of this year, there was a successful strike against a proposal to cut wages of made work recipients to 20 cents an hour, to be paid in script. It is charged that the leader of the strike was "kidnaped and deported by police."
