Caleb E. S. Burns to Manage Pioneer

JOHN T. MOIR JR., TO SUCCEED BURNS AS MANAGER OF KOLOA

Caleb E. S. Burns, manager of Koloa plantation has been appointed manager of Pioneer Mill Co. to succeed the late Arthur Collins.

Caleb Burns came to Kauai less than a year ago, resigning his position as assistant manager of Wailuku Sugar Co., to accept the position of manager of Koloa plantation. He will be succeeded here by John T. Moir Jr., who has been assistant manager of the Pioneer.

John T. Moir Jr., was only lately appointed assistant manager of the Pioneer, having formerly been division superintendent of a division with the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Co., before going to the Pioneer. He has virtually been in charge of the Pioneer plantation during the illness and absence of the late manager, and has been accredited by his superiors as having made good.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Burns here sincerely regret their leaving the island, for they both have become exceedingly popular during their short stay here. However, their friends will rejoice with them in Mr. Burns' promotion. His successor at Koloa is an island man, being the son of John T. Moir of Onomea and has made an enviable reputation for himself as a cane man.

ARTHUR HAUCK OF PUNAHOU TO ADDRESS LOCAL CHAMBER

President Arthur A. Hauck, of Punahou school, will be the principal speaker at the next meeting of the Kauai Chamber of Commerce, which will be held at Lihue next month. An invitation was extended to him by the local chamber and his acceptance was received the latter part of last week.

Just what President Hauck will take for the subject of his address is not known but it is believed that will be some subject relating to education.

The other speaker has not been announced but it is expected that the committee will shortly do so.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE NOW IN NEW BUILDING

Last Sunday was a busy day for the working force of the Kauai Telephone Co., as it was the day picked out by the manager, Mr. Woods, to move the exchange from the old building near the Kauai Garage to the new building in Lihue.

The work began about 2:00 a.m. Sunday morning and most of the lines were operating by daylight and all the lines were ready at 10 a.m.

TRAVELERS REPORT ADELAID MCCONNELL AND C. A. BAGGOTT MARRIED

Returning travelers from Honolulu this morning brought the rumor that Miss Adelaide McConnell is to become the bride of C. A. (King) Baggott today in Honolulu.

The Garden Island refuses to affirm or deny this rumor, but circumstances point that there is considerable foundation for it.

Miss McConnell is well known on Kauai, having lived here for a year with her sister Mrs. A. H. Case of Grove Farm.

COUNTY WORKING ON WAILUA FALLS ROAD

The county road department is busy cutting the lantana along the county road to Wailua falls. Due to the height of the lantana the road has very little opportunity to dry during the rainy weather and has become almost impassable.

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING

The November meeting of the Dramatic Club will be held at the Mokihana hall, Monday, November 27 at 7:30. Mrs. Rogers will read "The Circle," by Somerset Maugham. John Drew and Mrs. Leslie Carter appeared in this play during the season of 1921-22.

KAPAA NOTES

Seventy-five men and boys participated in the Father and Son banquet, Monday night in the Hawaiian hall. Mrs. S. Kellinot, assisted by the Hi-Y boys and Girl Reserves had charge of the arrangements. The following was the program:

Call to order and remarks by George Raymond, toastmaster.

Talks: "The Why of the Hi-Y," Edward Morgan, president Kapaa Hi-Y; "Our Greatest Asset; Our Boys," John Kanekua.

Singing led by Mr. Bayless.

"A Boy's Best Friend; His Dad" Warren Kamezawa.

Music by Lyons Orchestra.

Address: "Double Harness," Jimmy Taylor, religious work director, Army and Navy. M. C. A. Honolulu.

Aloha Oe.

The Hawaiian hall was well filled Sunday night to hear Jimmy Taylor of Honolulu. Music by the young people with Mr. Taylor's message made the evening long to be remembered.

The Fernandez band of entertainers departed for Koloa last Thursday after a six day stand in Kapaa. Judging from the crowds that thronged the show grounds nightly the show must have been a success, financially.

The Hawaiian Canneries Co. started their winter packing season last Tuesday with a preliminary run of several hundred cases. The winter season is expected to run until next February.

The "Mouse Trap," a play given by the Kawaihau Girls' Club at the Hawaiian hall last Saturday turned out to be one of the best plays of the kind yet turned out by talent that was strictly local. A large crowd was in attendance at both the concert and play and the dance which followed at the Kapaa hall, also drew well.

To William Purdy, cow puncher with the Makee Sugar Co., went the honor of being the first local man to successfully conquer one of Jack Burrough's bucking bronchos. Several had tried previously and failed, but Purdy, in his second attempt last Tuesday evening, rode Theda Bara without being thrown, although the mare bucked hard enough to throw an ordinary rider. "Bill," as Purdy is known, was formerly a cowboy with the Parker ranch of the island of Hawaii.

Artie Artego, one of the Wild West riders and victim of the unfortunate accident at Waipouli on Armistice Day is mourning the loss of a silver mounted spur, lost somewhere on the local show grounds. A reward was offered but the spur has not yet appeared.

Kapaa enthusiasts of the fascinating game of pocket billiards, or "pool" as it is generally known, will no doubt be surprised to learn that Kauai Lee, whose name appeared in the Honolulu papers recently as a representative of Kauai in the games now being played for the championship of the Hawaiian islands, is no more than "Gassy" Lee Shin, member of the Makee baseball team. Lee has already succeeded in disposing of his first opponent by the score of 100 to 52 and may yet have a chance to bring home the pocket billiard championship to Kauai.

Tommy Evans, territorial surveyor, and his assistants, returned to Honolulu last week after about two months spent in surveying the government lands at Anahola.

DR. MORGAN TO OPEN OFFICE AT ELELEE

Dr. T. L. Morgan will open an office at Elelee at the Y. M. C. A. house and will be at that office on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. till noon.

J. O. Warner Says Liquor Laws are Enforced in States

FORMER LIHUE MAN WRITES ABOUT PROHIBITION ON MAINLAND

The following extract from a letter from Rev. J. O. Warner, former Kauai county Y. M. C. A. secretary and later agent of the Anti-Saloon League in Honolulu, will be interesting to our readers:

Mr. Warner is now taking a course of study in Drew Theological Seminary and doing field work for the Anti Saloon League of New Jersey and New York on Sundays.

"Say, but how the folk lied to us down there in Hawaii about lax enforcement in the states! Don't you believe it. The government is on the job. One hundred and twenty-seven agents clean-up three big eastern Pennsylvania cities in one forenoon, confiscating $10,000 worth of booze; 60 agents swoop down on Atlantic City and close up every booze joint and drain the resort dry; 60 recently raided a big distributing center in the shape of a big New York hotel, operated by a former brewer and got quantities of the forbidden stuff. Last week they dug thru two feet of solid concrete in New York and found $700,000 worth of liquor stored—completely sealed up on all sides.

You can stand on top of the Bank of Hawaii and shout to the people of Hawaii for me if you want to that I have visited San Francisco, Ogden, Denver, Chicago, Dayton, Columbus, Cleveland, Canton, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Trenton, Newark and New York the past summer and in all put together I have not seen as many drunks as I saw on a single Saturday night or Sunday morning in Honolulu!

On different nights I have walked the streets of lower New York, on the west side, indeed all the way from 59th street down to the piers and I did not see a single drunken person or any evidence of booze at all. I could scarcely believe my eyes for I knew that section in pre-prohibition days—I lived in it two straight years; there was a saloon on nearly every corner and the bar tenders sprinkled booze on the sidewalk in front of their establishments to attract the weak ones!

Of course, I am not saying they are not drinking cocktails and highballs and hooch in the cafes and cabarets in New York—for they are, but they are mighty quiet about it compared with the old days, and the folk who are doing it do not count for much in our national affairs anyway.

MRS. PHILIP RICE RETURNS FROM COAST

Among the Kauai people arriving in Honolulu today on the Matson steamer Maui are listed Mrs. Philip Rice and Mrs. Charles Wilcox, who have just returned from the mainland.

Mrs. Rice has been on the mainland for the past three months.

KEKAHA INSTALLING MANY IMPROVEMENTS

Extensive repairs and changes are being made in the mill of the Kekaha Sugar Co., before the 1923 season opens. Among the new equipment that is being put in are two pans and 16 crystallizers. The new lease that has been obtained by the Kekaha Sugar Co. is the reason for the improvements as the company could not see its way clear to make expensive improvements until it was assured of the lease.

PARK BEING MOWED FOR FOOTBALL GAME

The Lihue park is being mowed by the prisoners in preparation for the annual football game between Lihue high school and Kauai Vets. Sheriff Rice says he wants to give the grass a chance to grow before the game so the Vets will have some soft spots to fall on during the game.

Norman Grieg, mill superintendent at Makaweli, was a passenger on the Kinau this morning.

Bids are Opened for New Library Building at Lihue

JACK HANSEN IS LOW BIDDER; CONTRACT TO BE AWARDED ON FRIDAY

Bids were opened last week for the new A. S. Wilcox memorial library by the board of trustees and while the only other bid submitted was by S. B. Goss, who bid $67,500, Jack Hansen was found to be the low bidder, with a bid of $62,500.

The contract was to have been awarded today, but owing to pressure of business, Hart Wood, the architect was unable to come to Kauai last night and the meeting of the trustees was postponed until next Friday afternoon.

The new library building will be built of Hawaiian stone something on the lines of the Lihue Memorial Parish house. The entrance lanai however, will be built of concrete and will be finished off to resemble cut stone. The roof of the building will be red tile.

The main room of the library will contain a reading room, a children's reading room, a delivery desk, book stacks and a packing and shipping room. These rooms will be partitioned off by book stacks, but really will be one big room.

One of the pleasant features of the building will be the reading lanai on the rear of the building. It is planned also that this will be the periodical room. The lanai will be enclosed in glass with tilting windows so that they can be opened or shut as necessity requires.

That the institution of the library on Kauai has been a success can be seen from the fact that the local library has the highest book circulation in the islands.

J. BETTECOURT IS VERY BUSY THESE DAYS

J. Bettencourt Jr., Kauai prohibition officer, reports the following cases disposed of last week:

Ah Pook of Waimea valley, was fined $150 and cost for the possession of a still, 110 gallons of mash and 7 gallons of oke.

S. Nakamura, of Waimea, was fined $100 and cost, the evidence being a sake press and three gallons of sake.

J. Harada, of Kahili, Kilauea, for manufacturing 50 gallons of mash and one gallon of oke was soaked to the tune of $100 and cost.

The first cases were tried at Waimea and the last two at Lihue. S. Nakamura, one of the defendants, refused to plead guilty when first arraigned, but later changed his plea to guilty. In connection with such cases, Bettencourt states that under a ruling of the chief prohibition officer of Hawaii, John F. Colburn III, all persons on Kauai arrested for any violation of the prohibition act, and who would not plead guilty in the local courts, will be transferred to Honolulu for trial in the federal courts.

DR. DUNN RESIGNS AND WILL MOVE TO HILO

Dr. W. T. Dunn, who has been the company physician for the Hawaiian Sugar Co. at Makaweli for the past seven years, has resigned his position and will move to Hilo where he intends to open an office.

Dr. and Mrs. Dunn have made a host of friends during their residence on Kauai and it is with regret that they see him leave.

Dr. Dunn will be succeeded by Dr. Penniston, who took over the practice of Dr. Kuhns during the latter's trip to the mainland. Dr. Penniston has become exceedingly popular during his stay in Lihue and his friends are pleased that he intends to make Kauai his home.

The Lihue plantation has practically completed the concrete work on the new crossing at the mill and the county is now busy macadamizing the crossing. This work is expected to be finished so that the new crossing can be opened next Monday.

The post also decided to open the new armory with a dance which will be given just as soon as the building is completed. The amusement committee also announced that it is the plan of the committee to stage a smoker during the month of December.

SAILOR ON LIKELIKE KILLED AT KILAUEA

Oliva Pua, age 25 years, a sailor on the Inter-Island steamer Likelike, was instantly killed last Saturday afternoon at Kilauea.

Pua was a member of the boat crew that was bringing a line from the steamer to a buoy. The boat was probably surfing in with the line and in doing so struck a rock. Pua was standing up in the boat and was thrown forward when the boat struck and his head hit one of the iron supports of the boat's seats, fracturing his skull.

He was taken to the Kilauea hospital where it was found that death was instantaneous.

He is survived by a mother living Koloa and the body was brought to Koloa Sunday for burial.

After the accident the rest of the crew refused to bring the line ashore from the steamer, claiming that there was a kahuna on the Kilauea landing. Three of the men were seriously injured in a somewhat similar manner about a year ago.

KAUAI MANAGERS GO TO TOWN

Last week end saw the exodus of practically every plantation manager on the island. The reason for the trip is the annual meeting of the planters in Honolulu. Some of the managers waited until Saturday before going to town but a greater number sailed on the Claudine on Friday evening.

COUNTY WORKING ON WAILUA FENCE

The new fence at Wailua park is nearly completed, the county beginning the work last week. A three-strand wire fence is being put in. The Ahukini railroad is constructing the cattle guard where the fence crosses the railroad.

Where the fence runs into the sea on the makai side, a rock wall will be built. A portable track will be laid to haul the rock makai.
