TRAVELERS FIND CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY EVERYWHERE.

Mr. C. W. Eckerman, manager of the Smith-Premier Typewriter Co., at Omaha, Nebraska, U. S. A., who is a staunch friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I have taken particular notice that this remedy seems to be carried by drug stores in all parts of the country, which is quite an item when one is traveling. It gives me pleasure to say that I have used it for years and have always found it highly satisfactory, effecting a cure in a shorter time than any other medicine." HAWAIIAN WEEKLY CROP REPORT

For the week ending February 1, Honolulu, T. H., February 1, 1905.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The past week has been marked by a continuance of temperatures decidedly below the normal, in addition to which generally cloudy conditions have prevailed in all sections of the group. The rainfall over windward Hawaii has been copious except in portions of the Puna and Hilo districts; but drought conditions continue in all low-lying sections. In Maui, abundant rains have been general, the drought having been broken, and the harvesting of cane having been resumed in the Kihuna district. Oahu and Kauai have had light showers during the week, but more rain would be beneficial to both islands.

Growing crops have made little or no progress during the past week, vegetation in general being practically at a standstill. Pastures in the Kona and Kau districts of Hawaii are drying up for want of rain, and on account of this and the continued cold weather, a marked falling off in the condition of grazing stock in these sections is apparent. The harvesting of cane is proceeding rapidly, and rice planters are busily engaged in the work of setting out rice plants.

Despite the cold weather, the local markets are fairly well supplied with all kinds of garden truck and reasonable fruits.

REMARKS BY CORRESPONDENTS.

ISLAND OF HAWAII.

Kaunaloa—Temperature higher, with light showers; young cane and other crops suffer for rain and show no growth; pasture short and grazing stock falling off; water supply too short for the fluming of cane; weeding and stripping cane.—J. E. Gamalielson.

Hilo—Cool and cloudy weather continues, with light showers.—L. C. Lyman.

Papaikou—Weather still very cold, stormy, and dry; no growth; cold weather turning cane yellow; water in gulches getting lower all the time; still grinding, planting, plowing, and stripping.—John T. Mohr.

Papeete—Cold and squally weather, with drizzling rains; cane looks fresher in spite of the cold weather.—Jas. Webster.

Honolulu—Weather has been very cold, with no sun; indications of rain, but have had only occasional light showers as yet; very little growth; stripping and harvesting cane.—William Pullar.

Laupahoehoe—Weather showery and cold all week; water heads still very low.—E. W. Barnard.

Ookala—The weather has been cloudy and showery, with cold spells not conducive to cane growth.—W. G. Walker.
Pauhanu—Weather cold, cloudy, and stormy, with variable winds; young cane growing slowly but looking well.—H. Glass.

Upper Pauhanu—Weather very cold and wet; almost no sunshine; cane is growing very slowly.—Dr. C. Buffet.

Honokaa—Continued low temperature and cloudy weather, with good rains during week; fluming cane, and grinding steadily night and day.—C. H. Bragg.

Niuli—Week cold and cloudy with light trades; harvesting cane and sugar making; some plowing and cane stripping.—Robert Hall.

Kohala Mission—Continued low temperature is holding all crops in check.—Dr. B. D. Bond.

North Kohala—Continued cold weather greatly retards cane growth; no sun during past few days.—W. O. Taylor.
Pukaia Ranch—Continued cold weather, with high northerly and north-easterly winds.—A. Mason.

Puuhiue—Weather very cold, with strong north-northeasterly winds; pastures dry, and stock suffering from cold weather; light showers on 2nd and 3rd.—S. P. Woods.

Kamuela—Cloudy weather; nights not so cold as last week; 1.21 inches of rain during week.—Mrs. E. W. Hay.
Puuwaa—Cold and dry, with northerly winds; cloudy but with no rain, which is badly needed; cattle suffering.—Robert Hind.

Kealahou—Cloudy weather during latter part of week; no rain.—Rev. S. H. Davis.
Kealahou—Very cloudy nearly the whole week and threatening to rain; grazing stock suffering from the drought; considerable land is being cleared for coffee.—Robert Wallace.

Kau—Very cold, with northerly winds; weather threatening but continues dry; water very short.—F. H. Hayelden.

Pahala—Weather continues dry and cold checking growth of cane and grass.—H. D. Harrison.

Kapoho—Occasional light showers, with cold weather and strong winds; nearly all vegetation at a standstill on account of the unusual cold weather of the week.—H. J. Lyman.

Oahu—Cloudy and threatening weather, but with little rain; cane showing no bad effects from drought.—E. P. McCann.

ISLAND OF MAUI.

Kipahulu—All plant growth at a standstill; nights very cold, with high winds each day; drought has been broken by heavy rain which began on the 3rd; cutting cane resumed.—A. Groom.

Nahiku—Cold and cloudy all week and vegetation growing very slowly; heavy rain on 2nd and 3rd.—C. O. Jacobs.

Huelo—Lack of sunshine and low temperatures have affected vegetation and stock of all kinds very decidedly; showers in the mountains during the middle of week have increased the water in the streams throughout Hamakua and Koolau.—W. F. Pogue.

Haiku—Low temperatures day and

THE WEBER TRIAL.

AUBURN, Cal., February 1.—The Weber trial has begun.

On the evening of November 16 last, the home of Julius Weber, a wealthy retired brewer of Auburn, California, was burned. In the ruins were found the bodies of Mr. Weber and his wife, their daughter, Bertha Weber, and their youngest son. All had been shot to death. Suspicion pointed to the older son, Adolph Weber, and he was arrested charged with the murder on November 12. He attempted to prove an alibi but his story was refuted by witnesses. He is also charged with robbing the Auburn bank; a pull of gold, supposed to be a part of the booty taken from the bank a month before, being found under the burn. Young Weber seems to have been addicted to the dice table habit and is thought by some to be mentally unbalanced.

THE BELGIAN STRIKE.

MONS, Belgium, February 1.—The strike is serious. Sixteen thousand men are out.

Mons, the capital of Hainaut province, Belgium, is a city of 24,555 inhabitants. Yesterday strikers were reported in twenty-one colonies near the city of Charleroi in the same province.

MANILA, February 1.—Monsignor Agius has arrived.

Archbishop A. Agius of Rome, Apostolic Delegate to the Philippines with his secretary Mr. Petrelli, passed through Honolulu on the Mongolia, January 4.

RAILROAD RATE DEBATE.

WASHINGTON, February 1.—By a vote of 166 to 149 the House decided to limit the debate on the railroad rate bill. The vote will be taken Thursday.

HELSINGFORS ASSASSINATION.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, February 1.—The assassination of State Prosecutor Johnson was political.

ST. PETERSBURG, February 1.—The assassination of Johnson is the precursor of terrorism.

An assembly of nobles at St. Petersburg has petitioned the czar to permit the representatives of the people to participate in the discussion of legislation and of government measures.

ARMIES STANDING PAT.

TOKIO, February 1.—The situation on the Shikoku and Hun River is unchanged.

night and very cloudy days unfavorable for plant growth; advanced pineapple plants doing well, but ripening of fruit retarded; pine shoots recently planted not sprouting well; pasture in good condition; but grazing stock showing effect of cold.—D. D. Baldwin.

Puunene—Very cloudy weather all week, with light showers at night; rising temperature should improve growing crops; harvesting going on with speed.—J. N. S. Williams.

Waikuku—Cold rainy weather; harvesting cane.—C. B. Wells.

Waikuku—Weather cloudy and unsettled, with frequent showers; nights not so cold; plenty of water in the streams of west Maui.—Bro. Frank.

Kihel—Improved weather conditions; much needed heavy rains have fallen to windward, ditches all running full, and pumps shut down; cloudy sky most of week, with damaging high winds during early part; good progress in harvesting.—James Scott.

Olowalu—Weather extremely cold with strong northeast gales during first part of week, followed by heavy rains on the mountain; stock feeling the effects of cold; fertilizing 1905 crops, and harvesting crop of 1904.—George Gibb.

Kaanapali—Weather cloudy and cold with strong northerly wind and rain; crops and pastures in good condition.—William Robb.

ISLAND OF OAHU.

Maunawili—Weather changed for the better on 3rd instant; late rain has been very beneficial both for coffee and pasture; picking coffee.—John Heed.

Ewa—Weather slightly warmer and general conditions better.—George F. Renton.

Waialae—Young pineapple plants look well.—W. R. Waters.

Wahiawa—Weather perceptibly warmer during last three or four days with a good shower of rain on night of 3rd; young pineapple plants begin to show some growth, and maturing fruit will ripen faster now.—B. O. Clark.

Wai'anae—Weather not so cold this week, although not warm enough yet to do young cane much good; harvesting crop.—F. Meyer.

Lale—Weather has been cool and cloudy with a northeast wind during fore part of week, followed later by light showers, but rainfall has not been sufficient to permit suspension of artificial irrigation; the growth of cane has been slow.—D. D. Dibble.

ISLAND OF KAUAI.

Makawili—Very dry weather with cold nights, not good for growth of young cane; grinding is in full swing.—Hawaiian Sugar Co.

Eleele—Weather cold, but getting warmer; light showers and strong northern winds; young cane growing slowly; grinding steadily day and night.—McBryde Sugar Co.

Koloa—Weather continued dry during first part of week, but much needed showers are now falling.—E. W. Russell.

ANOTHER TRUST ATTACKED

ATTORNEY GENERAL W. H. MOODY WHO HAS BEGUN SUIT AGAINST THE GENERAL PAPER COMPANY OF WISCONSIN, KNOWN AS THE PAPER TRUST.

THE MAKE-UP OF THE ROUVIER CABINET

THE COMBES' POLICY WILL BE CONTINUED—ROUVIER WILL BE PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL.

PARIS, January 22.—It was announced tonight as practically certain that M. Rouvier had succeeded in forming a Ministry and would tomorrow inform President Loubet of his acceptance of the premiership, with the names of those forming the Cabinet. Following is an approximate list of the new Ministry:

President of the Council and Minister of Finance, M. Rouvier.
Minister of Foreign Affairs, Theophile Delcasse.
Minister of Justice, Jean Sarrien.
Minister of the Interior, Eugene Etienne.
Minister of War, Henry Bertheaux.
Minister of Marine, Gaston Thomson.
Minister of Public Instruction, Raymond Poincare.
Minister of Commerce, Jean Dupuy.
Minister of Public Works, Bienvu Martin.
Minister of Colonies, Ferdinand Dubief.
Minister of Agriculture, Joseph Raun.

The names of the foregoing are assured, but the distribution of portfolios is still subject to some rearrangement.

The prospective Cabinet met tonight in M. Rouvier's office and went over the situation at some length. It is expected that the result of the conference will appear when M. Rouvier definitely outlines his policy.

As the result of the conference between M. Rouvier and his associates it was decided tonight to continue former Premier Combes' policy. The order of presentation of the proposed reform will be discussed tomorrow and also the new Cabinet's attitude concerning the author of secret reports. It is understood that the new Ministers consider it unnecessary to sacrifice all the accused, as the Nationalists demand.

M. Rouvier will tomorrow ask President Loubet to sign a decree constituting the Cabinet.

The Ministers of Commerce and Justice have not yet been absolutely fixed though the others are as named above.
