Certainly anything that makes a man translated, means plain as the nose on a man's face. What right have people to sing who know nothing about rhythmics, melodies, dynamics? in New York. That is the way home industries are encouraged in California. The old tunes ought to be ashamed of themselves when compared with our modern beauties. Let Dundee and Portuguese Hyman and Silver street hide their heads beside what we heard not long ago in a church—just where I shall not tell. The minister produce the house heard not long on school Street. Enquire at the REGISTRY OFFICE. minister read the hymn beautifully. The organ began, and the choir sang, as near as I could understand, as follows:-Oo-aw--gee-bah Ah-me-la-he O-pah-sah-dah

Wo-haw-gee-e-e. My wife, seated beside me, did not like the music. But I said: "What beautiful sentiment! My dear, it is a pastoral. You might have known that from ' Wo-haw-gee!' You have had your taste ruined by attending the Brooklyn Tabernacle." The choir repeated the last line of the hymn four times. Then the prima donna leaped on to the first line, and slipped and fell on to the second, and that broke and let her through into the third. The other voices came in to pick her up, and got into a grand wrangle, and the bass and soprano had it for about ten seconds; but the filled with the same care as if they were on the spot, no presoprano beat (women always do), and the bass rolled down into the cellar, and the soprano went up into the garret, but the latter kept on squalling as though the bass in leaving her, had wickabout the soprano, and looked back to see if she had fainted; but found her reclining in the arms of a young man who looked strong enough to take
