Returning leave Glen Island at 3:30 p. m. Starin's Glen Island is most delightfully stimated opposite New Rochelle, on Long Island Sound, about twenty miles east of New York, formerly called Locust Island, has been purchased and fitted up by Mr. Starin at great expense, and will be opened during the season of 1880 as a first-class summer resort. One of the principal features of the Island will be old-fashioned Rhode Island Clam Bakes, which will be served daily under the supervision of Hiram D. Maxwell, a well-known, experienced caterer from Rhode Island. Everything that can be obtained at any seaside resort can be had here and at reasonable rates. No pains or expense will be spared to make Glen Island a favorito resort and one of the pleasantest and best conducted watering places in the country. A daily line of boats will be run from New York, leaving pleirs on North and East rivers (see New York papers) every two hours. Excursion tickets will be sold from New Haven to New York via Glen Island, which will enable people wishing to go to New York to enjoy a delightful day's sail on the Sound and an opportunity to stop at the Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three hours and arrive in New York in Island two or three tifully trimmed, from $1.65 to $3.25, former price $3.50 to $7.50. A Proclamation to Remove Discriminating Charges. THE OLD WORLD.

Great Britain.

Refuses to Join an Alliance Against the in announces that the German government has decided to unite with France and the other powers in declining the proposition of England to interfere by armed force in behalf of Greece in the latter's quarrel with Turkey on the boundary question. Whatever may be the immediate reasons which have noved Germany practically to withdraw from the advanced stand recently attributed to the Berlin signatory powers in reference to this natter, it is thought here to be evident that the Sultan's polley of delay, combined with the hesitation of every leading government in Europe to become responsible for inaugu-rating war, is gradually working out a diplo-matic victory for the Porte. It is believed in smi-official circles that with the cession of ulcigno, which the Sultan has promi Turkey will have weathered the worst of the storm for the present. It is not thought probable that Greece will risk a war without the distinct assurance of help, which assur-ance she is further from obtaining than at any time since the close of the supplementary

Funeral of Miss Adelaide Neilson LONDON, Aug. 20 .- The body of Miss leilson was buried in Brompton Cemetery, ondon, this afternoon. The Brompton cemetery is reached by one of the branches of the underground railway, and is situated in the rear of an old church near the upper portion of Brompton village. It is filled with handsome monuments, and for many years past has been the favorite cemetery of the theatrical profession. The Rev. J. D. Massingham officiated at the grave and read the burial service of the Church of England. The coffin, which was of polished oak, was covered with flowers brought by the friends of the deceased. It bore this inscription: "Lillian Adelaide Neilson; died in Paris, August 18th, 1880." Among the chief mourners were Admiral G. Gunn of the Royal navy, Mrs. Morgan Lord, Henry Lennox, Henry Labouchere, M. P., and editor of "Truth," Lord Lugden, Mr. Lewis, Q. and others. Among the actors present were Mr. Henry Irving, Mr. Florence and his wife

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL. Topics Discussed in Cabinet Meeting. Washington, Aug. 20.-The condition of offsirs with reference to the Northwest Indions was reported to day to the Cabinet by the secretary of War. It was decided that the policy already existing of holding the hosiles as prisoners of war and confiscating their stock covered this case. The Cabinet devoted some time to discussing the advisabilty of issuing a proclamation of removing iscriminating charges with reference to Chiese commerce. Secretary Sherman favored such a course, but at the suggestion of the Attorney General, who is also acting Secre-tary of State, action was postponed to allow him time to consider the matter. The rest of the Cabinet session was devoted to rou discriminating Duties Upon Chinese WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 .- The following was sued by the Tressury department this afernoon in regard to the imposition of disriminating duties upon goods expected to arrive by a Chinese vessel now about due at an Francisco: It may be stated that the Treasury department holds that the discrimiating duty of ten per centum ad valorem nust under present regulations be charged upon these goods under section 2,501 of the evised Statutes, and the collector of customs at San Francisco has been instructed accordingly. However, if it shall appear that China makes no discrimination in regard to im-ports from the United States over that from

is understood that the State department now making the necessary investigation to de ermine the facts upon this point. It was formally agreed after the adjournment of the Cabinet to prepare a proclamation extending those commercial privile now enjoyed by other nations to the Chiessels now on the way to San Francisco la Department of State this afternoon, and if completed will be submitted to the Cabinet for consideration next Tuesday. With the Westport Bank Robbery. NEW YORK, Aug. 20.-The arrest of Elijah Alliger, the Broadway insurance broker, upon the charge of negotiating fraudulent securities, has afforded a possible clew to the discovery of other grave crimes. The possible detection of the sewas the main object of the police. It is believed that he is either a dupe or the accomplice of bank burglars. ome of the securities were not among those olen from Mr. O'Connor in 1873 with the stolen from Mr. O'Connor in 1873 with the Hannibal and St. Joseph bonds. It was found that they were part of the securities Hannibal and St. Joseph bonds. It was found that they were part of the securities stolen from the Westport National Bank, of Westport, Conn., which was entered by burglars on the night of February 10th. Officers of the bank were informed, and yesterday the president, with the owner of a part of the stolen securities, visited New York and recognized the securities as among those taken from the bank by the burglars. ken from the bank by the burglars.

The preliminary examination in the case of Alliger, the insurance broker, was held in the Tombs police court this afternoon. Justice Smith, in view of the large amount of forged stolen and altered bonds which Alliger i charged with negotiating, fixed the bail the case at the unusually heavy amount of $50,000. The examination was set down for to-morrow morning, and Alliger was remand-ed to police headquarters.
