He served last year very acceptably to all. Great interest was developed over the Platt matter and over the license question. The town voted no license a year ago, and the past summer no beer or liquor was for sale openly at the shore.

Political Complexion of the Towns.

The voting in this State yesterday was a very quiet performance but a very satisfactory one. The biennial sessions amendment was carried by a great majority—over 13,000, with some towns yet to be heard from, which will probably not greatly change the figures.
