Taft Should Be Re-elected.

President Taft should be re-elected because he has given the country an honest and effective administration. The three years of his term have been characterized by business stability and unexplained prosperity. He has maintained the high standing of the United States among the nation of the world. In his efforts to secure international peace he has elevated this republic to the highest plane among world powers. Thus, under his administration, there has been material and moral advancement at home and increased respect for the United States abroad.

He has been a fearless and impartial administrator of the laws. He has prosecuted the illegal trusts more numerous, more actively and more effectively than any of his predecessors. He has shown great wisdom in dealing with national problems and he has shown courage and decision in meeting international questions, such as the abrogation of the Russian treaty. Above all, he has kept faith with the people and has maintained constitutional government.

He has been a good business president. The tariff board, through which the tariff would be taken out of politics, was his idea. He personally scrutinized all the details of governmental expenditure and he organized the efficiency and economy commission which has saved the people millions of dollars.

His wise recommendations for the betterment of social welfare have resulted in the enactment of many beneficent laws.

With courage, ability and wisdom, he has conducted the affairs of the nation. That his work, done without ostentation or self-praise, has produced great results is demonstrated by the splendid condition in which the country finds itself today.

The Republican Ticket Will be Headed Taft and Sherman

After a careful examination of the law Chairman Dolley of the Republican State Committee advised the Roosevelt electors that the law made it mandatory upon the Secretary of State to certify to the names of Taft and Sherman as the candidates for President and Vice-President on the Republican ticket and that it was useless to bring suit to test the question again. This same conclusion was reached by Secretary of State Chas. H. Sessions and Attorney General John S. Dawson.

This identical question has already been decided by the Kansas Supreme Court in the case of the Populist candidate for Vice-President in 1896. When Mr. Thomas E. Watson, of Georgia learned that the Kansas electors nominated by his own party would vote for Arthur Sewell, of Maine, the democratic nominee for Vice-President he requested the secretary of state to keep his name off the ballot because it would work a fraud and misrepresentation on the voters. The secretary of state agreed to do it. But the supreme court issued a writ of mandamus compelling the secretary of state to certify to the name of Mr. Watson, even over the protest of Mr. Watson himself.

The facts in the present case are these: There are now and for several weeks past have been on file in the secretary's office, three certificates duly executed by the convention officers of the three political parties—the Republican, Democrat and Socialist. The Republican certificate shows that Taft and Sherman are the Republican nominees; the Democratic certificate shows that Wilson and Marshall are the Democratic nominees; and the Socialist certificate shows that Debs and Seidel are its nominees.

No certificate or other notice has been filed in that office on behalf of any other person claiming either the Republican, Democratic or Socialist nomination for President and Vice-President.

The Kansas supreme court in the Watson case said: "A certificate of nomination is the guide to the secretary of state, and he should follow it in giving direction to the county clerks as to the making of the official ballot. We think it plain that he has no right to omit the party appellation, nor the names of the presidential and vice-presidential candidates added to the party appellation by the authority of law and properly appearing in the certificate."

"The secretary of state is a mere ministerial officer and not a censor of political parties nor a guardian of public morals," and that even the court itself "could not pass judgment upon the motive which actuate a political party for that is not jurisprudence, but politics." That is the law as it stands today.

At the party council Secretary of State Sessions stated that he would welcome a suit against him to test the question anew. He could have certified out the names of Taft and Sherman for several weeks past, but delayed action for the sole purpose of giving anybody in Kansas an opportunity to bring such test case. That the learned lawyers, who first took issue with him, finally adopted his view of the law is evidenced by the fact that they have finally, one and all, advised against bringing the suit.

The Attorney general offered to waive all questions as to the right of the Roosevelt electors or any private citizen to bring such a suit, and have the court pass squarely upon the merits of the case as to whether or not the supreme court would hold that the Watson decision is still the law in Kansas. But the Roosevelt attorneys thought it wasn't worth while.

Many Driven From Home.

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Gibson's.

A man stepped up to a ticket seller at a moving picture show in a town not far from here and told the man at the box office that his wife was in there with another man, and he intended to wait until they came out, relates the Downs News. After the reel which was being shown was finished the manager interrupted the show long enough to make the announcement: "There's a tough guy outside waiting for his wife and the man that brought her here. I'd advise the pair to step out the rear door." There was a hasty bustle and a man who claimed to count said that fifteen couples shot out through the rear door.

Running up and down stairs, sweeping and bending over making beds will not make a woman healthy or beautiful. She must get out of doors, walk a mile or two every day and take Chamberlain's Tablets to improve her digestion and regulate her bowels. For sale by all dealers.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Wa-Keeney Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This Wa-Keeney citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed. Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit. W. C. Wollner, Wa-Keeney, Kans., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved more effective in my case than any other kidney medicine I ever used, I was annoyed a great deal by too frequent passage of the kidney secretions and my condition was generally worse in cold or damp weather. I had a dull ache through the small of my back and this showed that my kidneys were at fault. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Gibson's Drug Store, corrected my trouble and benefited me in every way." (Statement given April 13, 1907.)

A LATER STATEMENT.
When Mr. Wollner was interviewed several years later he said: "I have no reason to change my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. Since I previously endorsed this remedy, I have taken it on several occasions and the results have always been the best."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

BUT WHAT IS MAN? THE BIBLE ANSWER

Man Never Fell From the Angelic Nature

And Has Not Been Promised Angelic Nature in Future—He is "of the Earth Earthy"—Christ Redeemed Him With a View to His Restoration.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Paris, August 11.
—One of Pastor Russell's addresses today was from Psalm viii, 4. "What is Man?" He remarked that although he had been several times in Paris this was his first public address there—on invitation of the local Class of Bible Students Association.

He had heard that Bible students were scarce in France, but already he had found some very alert for clearer light upon the Word of God now due because we are in the dawning of the New Dispensation. Once he and other Bible students, confused with the errors of the Dark Ages, thought of man as a spirit being inhabiting a body of flesh, coming into it at birth and departing from it at death. Bible study is rapidly driving away that error. The Bible clearly tells that the genus homo is an animal being, of the earth earthy—not a heavenly or spirit being. This is in harmony with what science has been telling us—that which we could not receive until we found it to be the Message of God. The Bible does not place man upon an equality with the brute, but far above. His superiority is that of form and species. His larger brain and its better shape than that of the brutes indicate his knowledge and intellectual superiority over them. He is to them God's representative—their king, created in the moral image and likeness of his Creator.

The fact that man dies has led some to the conclusion that he is a spirit being and at death merely finds release from his body of flesh and soars back again to a spirit condition in which he once was. How inconsistent! How illogical! The Bible tells, on the contrary, that God made man as He desired to have him—adapted exactly to the conditions provided for him—an earthly Eden, Paradise. The Bible tells that God proposed to him everlasting life as a man on condition of continued obedience. It explains that dying is not going home, nor going to eternal torment, but ceasing to be.

"Joy in the Morning."
This penalty passed upon Father Adam—he lost the right to live and fell under the sentence, "Dying, thou shalt die." "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread until thou return unto the ground from which thou wast taken." (Genesis iii, 19.) The fallen, death-sentenced Adam could not give to his children rights which he had lost. Hence we are all sinners by inheritance. We are all dying. By one man's disobedience sin entered into the world, and death as a result of sin, and thus death passed upon all men, because all are sinners.—Romans v, 12.

The Scriptures speak of the past and present as a night time of sorrow and pain and trouble, but tell of the New Dispensation, when the curse shall be removed, and style that a Glorious Day, in which the Sun of Righteousness shall arise and drive sin's clouds away. God through the Prophet declares, "Weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning." The signs that we are in the morning, the gray light of the New Day, are already manifest to those who are awake. The wonderful blessings that have come to mankind during the last century, and particularly during the last fifty years, are foregleams of the great Day of Messiah, the Day of earth's reconciliation, the Day of the cancelling of the penalty of death, the Day in which God, through Messiah, will wipe away all tears from off all faces. The result of that Day, a thousand years long, will be that all the willing and obedient will be uplifted and all the wilfully disobedient and wicked will be remanded to death—"the Second Death."—Revelation xx, 14.

Why So Long Delay?
It is easy to see why these blessings of Restitution and uplifting out of sin and death conditions did not begin before the first advent of the Redeemer. The uplifting work could not be accomplished until two things would first be done. One was that a redemptive price needed to be given. Adam's life was forfeited. The life of a Redeemer must be given in his stead. This was what Jesus did. He left His heavenly glory, humbled Himself to human nature, and then the Man Christ Jesus gave Himself a Ransom-price for all. This is plain.

But, according to the will of God, instead of beginning the blessing of the world, He did first another work, namely, the gathering of the Church to be His Bride. Their invitation is to suffer with Him and to reign with Him—to present their bodies living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God through Christ. (Romans xii, 1.) So consecrated, the flesh of all believers is counted as the flesh of Jesus, and suffers, as such, trials, ignominies—"Let us go to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach." "Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus."—Hebrews xiii, 13; II Corinthians iv, 10.

The Spider Cheat.
Many species of spiders are interesting on account of their physical construction or their habits, but the most curious specimens are probably to be found in the woods of Sumatra; and these naturalists call, not without reason, "spider cheats." This insect, in order to trap the flies, etc., on which it feeds, hides on a leaf and spins a web of neutral color, making an illusion so perfect that the prey not only does not fly, but seems attracted by the peculiar termination of the web on the edge of the leaf. This is a perfect knot in appearance and gives to the trap the general shape of a miniature palm-leaf fan with indented handle.—Harper's Weekly.
