PICTURES OF MEMORY.

BY ALICE CARY.

Among the beautiful pictures
That hang on Memory's wall,
Is one of a dim old forest,

My eyes, in a weak endeavor,
As the light of immortal beauty
Shine on the trees of olden days,

Miscellaneous.

Prospect of a United Opposition.

From the signs of the times, North and South, we may account it a fixed fact that there will be a thorough and cordial union of nearly all the Opposition elements in the next Presidential campaign.

the question of slavery in all the Territories has been permanently and irrevocably settled, in accordance with the views and wishes of the Northern people. The slavery issue, in all its practical aspects and relations, therefore, as an element of political and sectional controversy, is extinct.

A CURIOUS ECHO AT HARPER'S FERRY.

DISCOVERED RECENTLY BY AARON BANG.
Say, Echo—'tis the "Herald" somewhat merry
About this tragedy at Harper's Ferry?

The Kansas Question Revived.

The telegraphic reports of the election recently held in Kansas on the adoption of the constitution framed at Wyandotte, announce that the instrument has been ratified by a majority of the inhabitants of the Territory.

Hon. Edward Bates.

Although Mr. Bates has been a citizen of Missouri for more than forty years, still he is unknown to a large portion of the people of the State.

Mr. Clay's Quarrel with Gen. Taylor.

The following scrap of history, in the Binghamton Democrat, of October 13, from the locality and the personal familiarity with the relations of the great men named, which is published in the comments, is ascribed by the Buffalo Commercial to the pen of Daniel S. Dickinson.

A NEW VERSION OF AN OLD SONG.

ILLUSTRATING THE GROWTH OF PUBLIC SENTIMENT.
Ain't—Old John Brown had a Little Tigeon.

Popular Sovereignty to be Illustrated by Wood-Cuts.

The New Orleans Delta thinks that Douglas and the Harpers committed a great oversight in their copy-righted political essay.

The True Doctrine.

The editor of the Indianapolis Atlas, having been accused of entertaining erroneous opinions upon the subject of slavery, defines his position in a most satisfactory manner.
