CALENDAR FOR 1862, Table showing days of the week for each month.

It is seldom in overhauling exchanges and almanacs through the floating newspaper literature of the day...

I am sitting where the moonlight, soft and silver, Flings its gentle dalliance round me, on my lonely chamber door.

There was one all rosy tinted, where the moonlight brightest fell— Where the perfume from sweet flowers floated...

And I marked her wondrous beauty, as she bent To her long hair of constant her kneeling lover said.
