The Council Saturday Night.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Council on Saturday night. Some-profiting no doubt, from their experience at circuses and animal showswent early and secured seats. Others, not so fortunate, were compelled to stand upbut all slike are enthusiastic in praise of the exceeding richness of the performances. The new charter men were out in full force; and the old charter men, not a whit behind, had every man rallied to his post. Some of the Councilmen who had, since the last meeting, consulted a little with their constituents, were understood to be "shaky" and if an opportunity offered would try to dodge the issue they had succeeded in raising by securing its postponement. Like Faust, they appear to have raised the devil in their wards before they were fully prepared for him. The old charter men, who had objected to springing this exciting question in the present canvass were determined, now that it was raised, that it should go to the people for settlement, and hence were prepared to vote against any proposition to reconsider the resolution ordering an elec-subject gingerly. Countries approached the menced the performance by moving that $25 be appropriated for the purpose of cial College in this city presents superior printing the new charter in German and English. Mr. Klusman, who advocates the edge of scientific book-keeping in connecadoption of the new charter solely on the ground of economy, and the amount of money the city would make out of it, desired to make the amount $50 instead of $25, and urged it so strongly-of course from an economical stand point-that it became necessary to call the ayes and noes. Those who voted for his amendment, were Mesers. Smith, (Queer), Klusman, Haney, and Muentzer-all economical (?) men, Those voting against it, were Mesers. Hunnel, Chandler, Fergus, Hedderich, and Miller. So Mr. Klusman's economical amendment failed. The original proposition was also voted down.

The amendment was lize all the glory in that kind of tactics. so fair that it could not well be voted down, and consequently was adopted. This, however, seems to have made the original proposition distasteful to its author, and voting against it, he killed his own bantling. Mrs Miller seems to have thought that one side of the question was all that the people need hear, to decide them as to how they should vote. We doubt not he is sincere in this. It seems to be the rule by which he is guided. He has tried it in the workings of a small corner grocery, and it succeeded admirably; and what is sufficient for Councilman Miller is sufficient for the city. How

A man who is in favor of the new charter should always be "spotted," notof the British idea of neutrality, that not withstanding his professions of friendship only is the well known Bermuda loading to the schools. All the talk about entering with cannon at d ammunition at Liverpool, into bonds of this and that amount, that that port, to be placed in command of the schools will not be touched if the new charter is adopted, is more findge. for that purpose. This fact is unanswera-

We should not be surprised if, in several of the Wards now represented by newMARCH 18 charter men, new candidates are brought out. In such Wards, let the friends of the schools consult freely together, and unite on some one of their number who is known to have a personal interest in preserving the schools. There are other interests to be looked at, it is true; but so far as our observation goes, if the citizens of each Ward will unite on some man who feels a deep interest in the schools, and elect him, they will have a Councilman who will attend to the other duties devolving upon him with fidelity and good judgment. As a general rule, those Councilmen who have fought the hardest against the schools, have been most inefficient in every other particular.

> The Louisville Journal is deluded with the idea that Louisville is the political-as Boston claims to be the literaryhub of the Universe. What Kentucky prescribes as sound political doctrine, the Journal seems to believe the mass of the people will gulp down without a why or wherefore. When Kentuckians decide that a man does not possess their confidence as a military leader, the Journal immediately affirms that a majority of the people throughout the Union are of a similar of thinking. Speaking of Gen. Fremont's new department, the Journal says: "He has a good many warm and enthusiastic admirers and partisans, but certainly he does not possess, as a military man, the confiis greatly mistaken as to their opinion of Fremont's ability. They think the man who could, inside of one hundred days, organize and equip one of the finest armies on the continent, and march it hundreds of miles in pursuit of a rebel army its Curtis's army, is thirty-two years of age. equal in numerical strength, which it drove from the State of Missouri, after it had been decided by "Regular officers," that the thing could not be done, is entitled to some consideration, as a military man. The best friends of the President will regret that he has so far vielded to the importunities of the Greelevites as to conent to the appointment of Gen. Fremont to a command in the army. souri.—New Albany Ledger.

The virulence of the Democratic papers of the country towards Gen. Fremont is most shameless. While they bestow the most lavish praise on officers who achieved success by coolly appropriating Gen. Fremont's ideas and plans, they lose no opportunity to abuse the General himself. They charge indiscriminately that Gen. Fremont is incompetent, in the face of known facts proving him not only competent, but that the Government has only been successful by adopting his plans.

THE Rockport Democrat says three military departments have been laid out, and assigned to Generals McLellan, Halleck, and Fremont. The Democrat has confounded the steamhoat McLellan with the Com-Neighbor, you must do better than that.

The New Albany Ledger says a large number of troops are now concentrating at the mouth of Salt river, and will start for somewhere in Dixie on Sunday morning. The splendid 3d Minnesota regiment leaves Louisville for the same destination on Sunday evening.

The new article of war which passed the United States House of Representatives some time ago, prohibiting officers and solslaves, was yesterday adopted by the Senate, by the decisive vote of 29 to 9. We trust this will effectually put a stop to the disgraceful and illegal meddling with slavery which has hitherto been indulged in by a few functical officers, who, taking their views of the constitution solely from the New York Herald, have ignorantly usurped functions which belong exclusively to Uni-ted States Marshals and Commissioners.— The army of the United States has no right to recognize any man as a slave, nor has any private citizen a right to arrest and return fugitives. By the law of 1850 that disagreeable duty is assigned exclusively to certain civil officers, and no one else has any business with it. Gen. McOlellan, it is stated, beartily approves this additional article of war, and the army itself will be glad to be formally relieved from again incurring the odium of maltreating the most loyal and serviceable portion of the Southern population.- N. Y.

The mode in which newspapers are to be taxed is very novel and effective. In the first place, there is a tax of three mills per pound, or about fiffeen cents per ream, upon the white paper. Secondly, there is a tax of five per cent, upon the annual receipts from advertisements. Thirdly, there is a stamp duty upon telegraphic messages; fourthly, comes a tax of three per cent upon the aggregate income of the newspaper establishment. Fifthly, taxes on gas, oil, glue, and several other items; and sixthly, a tax of three per cent. on all job printing.

CARDS OF THANKS. MAYOR'S OFFICE.

EVANSVILLE, March 17, 1862. The undersigned acknowledges the receipt of a number of packages containing supplies for the sick and wounded soldiers in the several Hospitals at Evansville .-Among others, from Mr. McGowan of Carlisle, Ind.; from the ladies of Russellville, Illinois; from Boonville and Terre Haute, and ten dollars ($10) from J. M. Henry Williams of Newburgh, Ind.

The liberal donors are assured of the thanks of the recipients. W. BAKER, Mayor.

MR. EDITOR:-In behalf of the sick soldiers in our Hospitals, you will please present my thanks to the benevolent and patriotic ladies of Hammond township Spencer county, for their very liberal doution of three coops of fine chickens and a large box of sundries, which was forwarded to my care by Lieut. Voerhoeff, Jr., Grand View, per steamer St. Cloud, and delivered by same free of charge. The 25th and 42d mander-in-Chief of the armies of the U. S. Regiments, which were especially remembered by the ladies, as many of the men were from Spencer county, having representatives in all the Hospitals. I sent a portion to each. Acts of kindness such as this from the ladies of Hammond township, go far to cheer the heart of the poor soldier in his sickness, and I believe if it was generally known that our railroad and steamboat men will carry such articles free of charge, and that our draymen will take pleasure in delivering the same at any of our hospitals, our country friends would be glad to prepare such things as would be beneficial to and relished by the sick.
