"45 Minutes From Broadway"—Gennett

Over two million copies of "So Long Mary" have been sold by the publishers during the past year. Its sales are said to far exceed that of any other song published in recent years. It is one of the musical numbers which Geo. M. Cohan composed for his most successful comedy, "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," and is sung with telling effect by Corinne in the last act of the play. It never fails to take ten or twelve encores. Its simple and pathetic melody, so easily to be remembered is now as familiar to the Boulevards of Paris as in the cafes of New York. Mr. Cohan has only written five musical numbers for this play, relying on the bright lines and clever situations for its success, more than on a dazzling chorus, of indifferent music. That it has won the popular fancy has been proven by its run of thirty weeks in Chicago and twenty weeks in New York. "45 Minutes From Broadway" will be presented at the Gennett next Monday night. "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp"—Gennett. Charley Grapewin in "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp" is to appear at the Gennett on Tuesday, Dec. 4th in the enlarged version of "Mr. Pipp."

Repertoire at the Phillips. Thursday matinee, "Slave Girl;" night, "Lighthouse Robbery." Friday matinee, "Deserted at the Altar;" night "Dangers of New York." Saturday matinee, "New Hampshire Folks;" night, "Younger Bros."

The above represents the arrangement of plays that has been made by the Dora Woodruff company for the remainder of the week at the New Phillips. It is expected that the matinees today will be an exceedingly large one, owing to it being a holiday. Prices have been placed at 20 cents for reserved seats and 10 cents for the gallery. Vaudeville features are introduced between acts, thus relieving tedious waits. Next week vaudeville will be resumed and a special feature in performing bears has been secured by Manager Murray.

"The Pit"—Gennett. Wright Huntington will appear at the Gennett Friday night, November 30th, in the dramatized version of Frank Norris' famous novel, "The Pit."

"The Pit" deals with the distribution of wheat and is the fictitious narrative of a deal in the Chicago wheat pit. Just as truly as the wheat finally wrecked vengeance on S. Behrmer, the representative of the railroad, in "The Octopus" so in "The Pit" it at length breaks down Curtis Jadin when he is at the height of his vast success in cornering the wheat. He had laid his puny human grasp upon Creation and the very earth herself, the great mother, fooling the touch of the cobweb that the human insect has spun, had stirred at last in her sleep and sent her omnipotence moving through the grooves of the world, to find and crush the disturber of her appointed courses.

Tim Murphy—Gennett. There is every indication that the revival of "Old Innocence" by Tim Murphy will be the most satisfactory undertaking made by him in some time. "Old Innocence" tells a strong story of human nature and natural accidents, and abounds with a number of the most cleverly conceived comedy conditions. It's many characters are true to life and each is so charmingly quaint and convincing as to stand prominently forth through its own naturalness. No character portrayed by Tim Murphy quite equaled for truthful simplicity that of Jason Green and in the hands of this excellent player it received in every sense its just due. Mr. Murphy's revival of "Old Innocence" bids fair to be one of the real successes of the season and to once again establish him as the leading exponent on the American stage of characters of the quaint and dignified order. The revival of "Old Innocence" which he made with excellent judgment and artistic taste and the selection of his players to assist him has been a happy one as he has secured various members who were with him in this same piece before, for among them are Dorothy Sherrod, Louise Whitfield, Mrs. Aubrey Howell and O. J. Griffin. "Old Innocence" will be presented at the Gennett next Saturday night by Tim Murphy and his company.

HIS CLEVER RUSE FAILED NOW ACCUSED OF THEFT

Express Agent in West Virginia Must Face Charge of Having Robbed His Own Office of $6,000—Had His Wife Wound Him.

[Publishers' Press.] Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 28.—C. E. Adams, agent at Kayford, near here, was arrested charged with the robbery of the express office at that place last Saturday morning, when over $6,000 was stolen. The assistant agent, Dunbar, was arrested as an accomplice. It is said $700, supposed to be part of the money lost, was found in Adams' house. Adams had a slight wound in the leg when found near the railroad tracks, which he claimed was inflicted by robbers. When the officers went to examine his trousers to find how near the weapon was held when fired they learned that his wife burned them.

FOUR CREMATED IN HOTEL FIRE

Hostelry Conducted by Salvation Army Was Burned in St. Louis.

SEVERAL FATALY INJURED OVER FIVE HUNDRED MEN WERE ASLEEP IN THE BUILDING WHEN FLAMES BROKE OUT—WAS AN OLD BUILDING. [Publishers' Press.] St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 28.—Four men were burned to death and probably 35 were injured in a fire that practically destroyed the Lighthouse hotel, conducted by the Salvation Army, at Ninth and Market streets. More than 500 men were asleep in the building when the fire was discovered, the greater number being on the second and third floors. All became panic-stricken and before the firemen arrived and stretched nets many jumped from the upper windows and were picked up crushed and unconscious on the street. The four dead were burned to a crisp. The watchman stationed on the third floor discovered the fire. He went to a closet to get some wearing apparel for several men, who were practically without clothing. When he opened the closet door a sheet of flame burst forth, burning off his hair and eyebrows. He was unable to shut the door and the whole room was quickly filled with flame and smoke. Then he gave the alarm and hurried around to waken the sleeping inmates. The closet formerly was an old elevator shaft and with the door opened a draft resulted that quickly spread the fire through the building. The firemen called to those in the windows not to jump until the nets could be stretched, but all to little avail, for as fast as the flames roared nearer the windows men jumped and were picked up injured and unconscious. The fire swept through the second and third floors and did $2,500 damage to the structure. It was an old building. The seriously injured were taken to the city hospital and two who jumped from the windows of the hotel died at the hospital. Six others, all of whom were among those who had jumped from upper windows, are not expected to live.
