

MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS. SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian had learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was then, the remedy for female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce used the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women. Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not go unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefits in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time. The "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being wholly prepared from native medicinal roots, without a drop of alcohol in its make up, whereas all other medicines put up for sale through druggists for woman's peculiar ailments, contain large quantities of spirituous liquors, which are very harmful, especially to delicate women. "Favorite Prescription" contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on each bottle wrapper. It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strengthening power.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.

POSTPONE BILL TO OBLIGE LORIMER

Rivers and Harbors Measure
Will Be Reported to House
January 16.

2 DAYS OF GRACE GIVEN

NAVY APPROPRIATION BILL IS ALMOST READY—PROVISION TO BE MADE FOR BIGGEST BATTLE-SHIP IN WORLD.

[Publishers' Press]

Washington, Jan. 11.—The rivers and harbors bill probably will be reported to the house Jan. 16. Chairman Burton of the house rivers and harbors committee originally planned to lay the bill before the house Jan. 14, but Mr. Burton is inclined to grant a few days of grace to the Illinois members, who are anxious to have the bill delayed until Representative Lorimer of Illinois, who is ill, can return and participate in the committee's discussion of projects for which appropriations are to be made.

Chairman Foss of the committee on naval affairs expects to have the naval appropriation bill ready to report to the house Feb. 1. Secretary Metcalf will appear before the committee some time next week, and his statement will complete the hearings. It is practically assured that the bill will not carry an appropriation for an additional battleship, but it will reauthorize the building of the proposed warship, which is to exceed any vessel afloat. There is some doubt as to whether that ship was properly authorized at the last session. In the opinion of many members of the house, the bill was juggled between the two bodies of congress that merely the drawing of plans was provided. The house committee on judiciary decided by a vote of 9 to 7 not to consider the Hepburn-Doolittle bill, making liquor carried in interstate commerce subject to the laws of any state it enters. The members who voted against considering the bill were Parker (N. J.), Alexander (N. Y.), Nevin (O.), Sterling (Ill.), Birdsall (Ia.), Foster (Vt.), Bannan (O.), Brantley (Ga.) and Jenkins (Wis.). Those who supported the bill were Littlefield (Me.), Pearce (Md.), Tyrrell (Mass.), Dearmond (Mo.), Smith (Ky.), Clayton (Ala.) and Henry (Tex.).

The house committee on industrial arts and expositions decided to make a favorable report on the resolution authorizing the president, in conjunction with the Jamestown Exposition company, to appoint a special commissioner, who shall invite Great Britain to make an exhibit relating to the period of exploration and colonization from 1580 to 1625.

The house broke all records so far as pension legislation is concerned.

ONE QUESTION WAS ASKED SHEA QUICKLY EXAMINED

Judge Ball Sustained the Contention of the State in Famous Conspiracy
Trial Now on at Chicago—To Be Soon Over.

[Publishers' Press]

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Judge Ball decided that Cornelius P. Shea, chief defendant in the conspiracy trial, can testify only in reply to specific questions. It was the plan of attorneys for the defense to have Shea give a general history of the teamsters' strike, and of all the incidents involved in it from its commencement to the finish. The state objected, declaring that in this manner the defense would be able to bring matters before the jury that have already been ruled out by the court. Judge Ball sustained the position of the state.

Shea was asked but a single question and was allowed to go. The defense then declared it had finished its case. Assistant State's Attorney Miller said he would require, but a short time for rebuttal evidence.

passing 625 bills in one hour and 20 minutes. The house adjourned until Monday.

The senate took up for final consideration Senator McCumber's service pension bill. The bill was so amended as to make it applicable to survivors of the Mexican as well as the civil war, and so as to prohibit the payment of fees to pension attorneys. The bill passed without division.

Protest Is Ignored.

[Publishers' Press]

Washington, Jan. 11.—The Jamestown exposition board received letters and telegrams from nearly every member of the advisory committee of the exposition except those who signed the protest against the prominence to be given militia and naval features of the government exhibit. All of these correspondents take exception to the criticism implied in the protest of the dozen signers to the published statement, and as there are 100 members of the advisory committee exposition authorities feel that they are privileged to regard the protest as failing to set out the views of any considerable part of the committee.

SAYS THREE MEN KILLED DR. COX

John Smith Makes Confession
Implicating Jim Hargis and
Ed. Callahan.

BREATHITT COUNTY CASES

DANGER IS SOMEWHAT SUBSIDED AND IT IS THOUGHT TROOPS WILL NOT BE NECESSARY AT THIS TIME.

[Publishers' Press]

Jackson, Ky., Jan. 11.—John Smith, one of the men under indictment for the murder of Dr. B. D. Cox, made a confession, which is in the hands of B. R. Jouett, attorney for the commonwealth. In this confession Smith names James Hargis and Ed Callahan as moving spirits in the crime. He says Hargis and Ed Callahan induced him to enter the conspiracy against Dr. Cox, making promises to see that he was acquitted and to give him a job. He tells of the murder in detail, and says Ed Callahan gave him $100 after the killing, saying Jim Hargis sent it to him.

According to the confession, three men shot Dr. Cox. Smith's words in describing the murder are: "So Judge and Ed put us three, Spicer, Abner and myself, under the barn shed and sent Elbert Hargis to stand on the corner, and when Dr. Cox left his office and started home and got opposite where we were in hiding, Elbert Hargis was to call to him so we would know it was Dr. Cox. We stayed under the shed about one hour, and while we were there Ed Callahan came to us and stayed with us until just about 20 minutes before Dr. Cox was killed, and he told us to be sure and not miss him. And when Dr. Cox did start from his office and come down just across the street from us, Elbert Hargis called to him and said: 'Is that you,' and he said, 'Yes,' and stopped, and all three of us fired at the same time, or so near the same that it was all one report."

Judge James Hargis and his supporters are stupefied as the result of Smith's confession that he helped assassinate Dr. Cox at the order of Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan. Smith's confession bears out in every detail the story told by Asbury Spicer, who also swore he was employed by Hargis and Callahan to kill Cox. His confession was made last June. Hargis swears that Smith is lying. Some of Hargis' staunch supporters are turning on him since the Smith confession. Smith fears for his life, and is begging for protection against the wrath of Hargis and Callahan. The situation is acute. Hargis remains closely in his store.

Conditions here are easier since the writ of prohibition was granted, preventing the special judge, W. M. Carnes, from presiding in the Hargis trial. Judge Carnes left for Frankfort to explain to the court of appeals his action in making rulings in favor of Hargis.

Judge Carnes convened court and made the announcement that the court of appeals issued a writ of prohibition restraining him from further action in the case and adjourned court until Friday. He also passed the cases of Elbert Hargis, Bill Britton, John Abner and John Smith until the same date. Judge Carnes said he did not know what final action the appellate court would take, but that he would return to Jackson Friday and make some orders in the cases.

He says his rulings refusing to quash the indictment against Hargis and his method in choosing an elisor within the discretion of the court. He said if he was prevented from trying Hargis he would go into the cases of William Britton, John Smith, John Abner and Elbert Hargis, all of whom are charged with the same assassination.

Adjutant General Lawrence and State Inspector Hines came here to look over the situation before troops are sent, but would give out no statement. It is almost certain that troops will be sent to prevent rioting.

State Inspector Hines says the situation does not warrant sending troops to Jackson, and he will recommend that none be sent.

Adjutant General Henry Lawrence left Jackson for Frankfort to make his report to Governor Beckham regarding the situation in Breathitt county. General Lawrence refused to discuss the nature of the various conferences he held or to express an opinion of the situation. It is known that representatives of the commonwealth went over the entire case with the adjutant general and told him the state of feeling on the part of the anti-Hargis faction, due to the ruling of the court. General Lawrence wanted to know if it was not in their power to prevent trouble, and they told him they succeeded in quelling the disturbance Wednesday when things looked serious, but they frankly told him they did not believe even a company of soldiers could have prevented a riot had Judge Carnes proceeded with the trial.

Major General Kashtalinski was appointed commander of the Fourth army corps. General Fleischer succeeds General Rennenkamp in command of the Third Siberian corps. The appointments are in accordance with the new policy of the war ministry in selecting men of experience, who have seen service in the field, instead of so-called "Carpet Knights" for high commands.

LANCASTER HAS BAD FIRE LOSS NEARLY A MILLION

Crossed Wires in Tobacco Warehouse of Moss & Co., Started Blaze Which Quickly Spread to Surrounding Buildings.

[Publishers' Press]

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 11.—A fire started by the crossing of electric wires in the tobacco warehouse of S. R. Moss & Co. spread to adjoining property, and caused a loss estimated at $1,000,000. A delay in turning in the alarm gave the fire a good start, and when the firemen arrived it was beyond their control. The structure was a four-story brick, well filled with tobacco. The flames communicated to the Moss cigar factory adjoining, a five-story brick building, which was also destroyed. When one wall of the cigar factory collapsed the only truck of the fire department was buried in the debris and a number of firemen had narrow escapes. The loss on the warehouse is placed at $300,000 and on the cigar factory at $200,000. The warehouse of the American Cigar company, near the Moss buildings, caught fire, but was not greatly damaged. Five dwelling were completely ruined. On the opposite side of the street several large tobacco warehouses of Morris, Levy, Kramer & Goldberg and John Brimer were damaged by water and smoke.

President Will Take the Testimony
Secured and Prepare Special
Message to Congress.

[Publishers' Press]

Washington, Jan. 11.—The president had a conference with Milton D. Purdy of the department of justice, who went to Texas and Oklahoma to make an independent investigation of the riot at Brownsville last summer, in which soldiers of the Twenty-fifth infantry are alleged to have participated. Practically all the testimony taken by Purdy and the affidavits secured by him are in the president's hands and these, with a special message, are to be sent to the senate Monday. Purdy's report, it is said, does not include any conclusions or deductions from the testimony secured by him.

PURDY MAKES HIS REPORT

Assassin Executed.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 11.—The assassin of Lieutenant General Pavloff, military procurator of St. Petersburg, was executed at Lysnos. He refused to take the sacrament and died unidentified and with a cheer for the revolution on his lips. The head of the assassin was removed and preserved at the headquarters of the political police for possible identification later.

A FATAL GAS EXPLOSION

Two Men Attempt to Repair Leaking
Gas Pipe and Are Killed—Others
Badly Injured.

[Publishers' Press]

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 11.—F. H. Pope and Edward Scheibner, were instantly killed and a dozen injured by the explosion of a gas plant in Woodman hall. The seriously injured are Father Dwyer, a Catholic priest; Miss Rose Heck, and Mrs. James Cavanaugh. The accident happened while a card party was in progress in the hall. The gas plant was leaking and the two men killed went into a rear room to make repairs. The explosion followed and the two men were blown through a partition. The hall is a two-story brick structure. The rear of the building was completely wrecked.
