The 20th Century Iron For 20th Century Women

Science Applied to a Household Tool.

Asbestos Sad Irons are so different from sad irons of any other make that they stand in a class by themselves--a class above and beyond all others. The asbestos-lined hood protects the handle from heat, keeping it absolutely cool and comfortable. The hood also prevents the radiation of heat from the core or base, thus retaining the heat for a longer time than would be possible otherwise--a saving of time and fuel.

In getting the Palladium and the Household Set of Asbestos Sad Irons, you procure not only the best newspaper of Richmond, but also the finest sad irons that can be had for any price.

GOVERNMENT FAILS TO SECURE ISLANDS

International Complications May Arise as Result of Court's Decision.

LAND ON CANADIAN LINE

WATER COMPANY GIVEN THE ISLANDS IN 1883, REFUSE TO GIVE THEM UP AFTER HAVING IMPROVED THEM.

[Publishers' Press.]

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 11.—An attempt of the United States to secure possession of islands Nos. 1 and 2 in the strait of St. Marie by suit to quiet title failed under a decision of the circuit court of appeals sustaining the district court of the Western Michigan district in favor of the Candler-Dunbar Water company. The islands are on the line of the boundary between the United States and Canada and combined have an area of only two acres. Improvements valued at $100,000 were made by the water company, which claimed to have a good title from the government since 1882. The court held that the government gave a good title in the first place and that it is wrong to attempt to regain possession after so many years.

Because of the location of the islands on the boundary line and the treaty requirement that the United States must keep that line clear it is understood that international complications may arise as a result of this decision.

COUGHS GO

No cough can linger when Winter's Cough Syrup is taken. It is a vegetable remedy which contains none of the narcotics which make the majority of cough mixtures seem to cure when they only drug. Winter's Cough Syrup gets right at the root of the matter and corrects the condition which causes the cough. That is why it is so good for children, although quick in its effect on adult's cough. We warrant it. Price 25c and 50c.
